

Congress Already Has Big Program For Next Session

Railroad Legislation Expected To Be Considered First

Washington—(AP)—A big program already is laid out for the new congress to be elected this fall. What the fifty-seventh congress left undone, the seventy-sixth is likely to find on its docket when it convenes next January—unless there is a special session in the meantime.

Some congressmen have predicted that a special session may be necessary to rescue the railroads from their desperate financial plight. Chairman Wheeler (D-Mont.) of the senate interstate commerce committee did not agree. Legislation, Wheeler said in effect, can't save the railroads—only a business upturn can do that.

Among other legislation congressional leaders said they believed congress would have to consider were the following:

- Relief Problem
1. Relief and unemployment—the seventy-fifth congress put this problem up to the next session by appropriating relief funds to last only to March 1.
 2. Amendments to the crop control act—farmer complaints about the rigid control over planting and marketing already have forced upward revisions in cotton, wheat and tobacco quotas. Other changes may be necessary.
 3. Revision of the tax laws—President Roosevelt let the tax bill passed this year become law without his signature because, he said, congress had surrendered "the American principle of taxation" in modifying the undivided surplus and capital gains taxes. He made it plain that the next congress would be called upon to revise the tax structure.
 4. Anti-trust laws
 5. Revision of anti-trust laws—President Roosevelt asked an investigation, about to be started by a 12-member committee, looking toward tightening up these laws. The committee will report to the new congress.
 6. Governmental reorganization—congressmen indicated there would be consideration next year of a bill similar to that pigeon-holed by the house in the last session.
 7. Regional planning—The president sent a message to the seventy-fifth congress urging creation of water conservation areas but little progress was made on legislation to that end. Indications were he would renew the request.

THE WEATHER

SATURDAY'S TEMPERATURES

	Colest	Warmest
Chicago	58	60
Denver	62	88
Duluth	48	76
Galveston	78	82
Kansas City	66	86
Milwaukee	54	58
Minneapolis	56	78
Washington	52	62
Winnipeg	52	78

WISCONSIN WEATHER

Fair, not so cool tonight; Sunday increasing cloudiness and warmer, showers north central and extreme east portion in afternoon.

GENERAL WEATHER

Showers have occurred since yesterday morning over eastern Lake Superior, the lower lakes and the St. Lawrence valley, and generally over the southern Rocky mountains and the Canadian northwest. But fair weather is general this morning over the plains states and the upper Mississippi valley.

It is now slightly warmer over the north central states and mid temperatures prevail over most of the central and eastern sections of the country.

Fair and slightly warmer is expected in this section tonight, followed by increasing cloudiness with increasing temperature Sunday.

EXPERIMENT PLOT

Cabbage is being planted in an experiment plot at the Lock farm, Shonock, according to R. C. Swanson, Outagamie county agricultural agent. The plants will show yellow resistant qualities and a demonstration will be held at the plot later this summer.

SEVENTY-FIFTH CONGRESS WHOOPS TO A MERRY END

Crowd of congressmen and page boys pack the well of the House of Representatives a moment after the speaker had pounded the gavel to proclaim the end of the 75th Congress. Central figure in the jam is Speaker William Bankhead, his arm raised in farewell to the gallery. The house voted an official finish at 9:10 p. m., June 16. The customary scramble of cheers and farewells followed.

Regents Preparing For Transfer of 2 Radio Stations

Madison—(AP)—Anticipating final action for transfer of the state's radio stations, WHA and WLBB to the University of Wisconsin, the board of regents yesterday set up a committee to work out plans for their operation.

Station WLBB is located at Stevens Point and WHA on the university campus. Financial management of both stations and the technical management of WLBB have been under the supervision of the department of agriculture and markets.

The state reorganization committee recently approved a recommendation by Governor LaFollette that the university take over complete control of the stations. An executive order fixing the date of the transfer has not yet been signed, however.

The radio committee appointed by the regents to effect the consolidation when the date is set is an ex-officio group composed as follows:

Ralph Ammon, director of the department of agriculture and markets; John Callahan, state superintendent of public instruction, W. W. Clark, director of agricultural extension, the university; Dean Frank O. Holt, of the extension division, E. G. Doudna, secretary of the board of normal regents, George P. Hambrecht, director of vocational education, Dean C. J. Anderson, of the school of education and University President Clarence A. Dylstra.

The technical directors of the two stations also will be members.

Isabel Funeral Rites Will Be Held Monday

Madison—(AP)—Funeral services for Captain Thomas Isabel, 75, credited with saving 600 persons from drowning in Lake Mendota, will be held here Monday.

The retired chief of the University of Wisconsin boathouse, which supervises traffic on the lake, died in a Madison hospital yesterday.

Services will be held at 8:30 a. m. Monday in the Fitch-Lawrence chapel and at 9 a. m. in St. James church. Burial will be in Holy Cross cemetery.

Captain Isabel is survived by his widow, Sarah, a son, Frank, of Tampa, Mexico, two daughters, Mrs. Henry Bertoli, of Chicago and Mrs. John Miller, Madison, a brother, William Isabel, Port Huron, Mich., and seven grandchildren.

LANGDON TO REMARRY

Hollywood—(AP)—HARRY LANGDON, wispy-eyed movie comedian, and his third wife, Mabel Georgia Sheldon Langdon, are going to be married again. They applied at Ventura, Calif., for a license yesterday.

Voluntary Financial Support of U. W. Is Advocated at Meeting of Alumni

Madison—(AP)—Alumni of the University of Wisconsin, gathered here today for class reunions, had before them an appeal for voluntary financial support of the university.

George I. Haight, Chicago, former president of the Wisconsin Alumni association, declared last night at the annual "past presidents" dinner that Wisconsin needs the financial as well as moral support of its graduates even though it receives its appropriations from the state.

Eighty prominent alumni attended the dinner at which 10 of the association's 12 past presidents were honored guests.

"One thing the alumni can do, Haight said, 'is to contribute gifts to the university and to obtain private help for it—the kind of help other institutions get.'

"One who knows the history of legislative appropriations, knows that the legislature has been generous to the university, but during times when money is scarce the legislature appropriates first to the college of liberal arts and second to the professional schools.

"It is up to the professional men among the alumni to help the professional schools with dollars when the legislature fails to appropriate sufficient funds.

Haight also advised the alumni to avoid "snap judgment" when there is any adverse criticism of the university.

Among the past presidents at the dinner, beside Haight, was Mrs. Imogene and Carpenter, Madison, first head of the association, June, 1911 to 1912. Others were:

Ernest Von Briesen, Milwaukee; John Lord, Chicago; Fred Clausen, Lorion; Judge Charles Byron, Chicago; Judge Evan A. Evans, Chicago; Asa Briggs, St. Paul; Myrton T. Hushaw, Chicago; and Harry Bullis, Minneapolis.

Past president unable to attend were Judge Charles Rogers, Ft. Atkinson, and Earl Vits, Manitowish.

Commission Certifies

Shullsburg Utility Price

Madison—(AP)—The public service commission took final action today to permit the city of Shullsburg to acquire the local plant of the interstate light and power company, which will become a municipal utility.

It certified $20,700 as the price, of which $18,000 is the 1936 valuation placed upon the real estate and equipment and $2,700 as the maximum amount for materials and supplies on hand and for additions made since the valuation was fixed.

The certification was made to the Lafayette county circuit court, which, through agreement, recently dismissed an appeal by the company. The commission said the company and city will determine the exact value of materials to be included and that the city, meanwhile may take over the plant.

Chicago PWA Office Is Receiving Applications

Mayor Goodland yesterday received a letter from the PWA regional office at Chicago informing him that applications for PWA projects are being accepted. Restrictions in force since June, 1937 have been removed so far as examination of applications is concerned, the letter stated.

KILLED BY GOLF BALL

Spokane, Wash.—(AP)—A head injury suffered when he was struck in the head by a golf ball proved fatal last night to Miss Alice Krause, 24, federal soil conservation clerk.

Joan Gerlach Takes Lead In Jaces Queens Contest

Joan Gerlach moved into first place with a 760-vote margin when votes were counted last night for the Appleton queens popularity contest. She outdistanced Gertrude Ashman, who took a lead of 40,000 votes in the previous day. Miss Gerlach has a total of 225,900 votes against 225,200 for Miss Ashman. Grace Oudenhoven, who has been leading most of the way, is in third place with a total of 220,400 ballots.

Elaine Merkel, route 1, Menasha, extended her lead in the out-of-town race from 99,850 to 112,300. Connie Hammes, route 2, Appleton, is in second place with 111,800 votes. Only 13 days remain before the close of the contest.

Standings in the Appleton race are: Joan Gerlach, 225,900; Gertrude Ashman, 225,200; Grace Oudenhoven, 220,400; Rosemary Hutten, 146,300; Esme Koch, 133,700; Arlene Jandrey, 49,700; Margaret Simon, 42,850; Doris Wiesse, 40,150; LaVerne Woepke, 30,600; Dixie Corning, 28,750; Verna Kangas, 22,900; Margie Knudson, 19,450; and Ione Radtke, 16,450.

Leaders in the out-of-town contest follow: Elaine Merkel, route 1, Menasha, 112,300; Connie Hammes,

Man Who Flew Shawano Jail Is Under Arrest

Shawano—(AP)—Sheriff Carl Drueckery said today that Joseph Eiden, 36, who escaped from jail here Nov. 30, was in custody at Grand Forks, N. D. Eiden had been arrested here on a charge of theft from an oil company. Drueckery said he is charged by federal authorities with possession of counterfeit equipment, and that he likely would be returned to face that charge.

'World Merrily Headed for Hell With Flags Flying,' Congregationalists Told

Beloit—(AP)—A resolution urging that plans for an economic plebiscite within the Congregational denomination be dropped entirely and be disapproved by the General Council of Congregational and Christian Churches in biennial session here, was submitted today by Ralph N. Seward, Lake Mills, Wis., delegate.

I. B. Davies, Delavan, Wis., F. J. Hatwood, Appleton, and C. W. Boardman, Ft. Atkinson, backed Seward's resolution.

Seward said there was considerable support of the resolution, which declares the plebiscite plan and economic primer issued in connection with it are confusing and have aroused great resentment.

The plan, which presents the principal conflict facing the current eight-day session of the council, would call for a roll of the denomination's one million members on a number of economic subjects.

The Seward resolution will be studied by the Council for Social Action and acted upon Tuesday.

Beloit—(AP)—The world is merrily headed for hell with all flags flying, and there seems to be little that can be done about it.

Hubert Herring, director of the Council for Social Action, made the statement yesterday to the General Council of Congregational and Christian churches here.

He charged the federal administration has moved steadily toward involvement of this country in troubled foreign affairs and that President Roosevelt's talks have molded American opinion for an armed movement.

After Roger W. Babson, Boston economist and retiring moderator, told the council 75 per cent of all Congregational ministers must have their salaries increased to give them a wage comparable to carpenters and bricklayers, the Rev. J. W. F. Davies of Waukegan, Ill., provided a topic for a series of seminar debates with his assertion "there is dynamite" in the church's proposed economic plebiscite.

Proponents of the plan minimized the warning, stating they believed it would be only a "dazzling firecracker."

Defends Plebiscite

The Rev. Alfred Schmalz, assistant director of the Council for Social Action, defended the plebiscite, proposed for this fall, claiming it is not just a plan to discover the mind of churchmen on economic problems, but its usefulness lies in the stimulation which it gives to a program of education in social issues.

The plebiscite would contain seven questions to be put to more than 1,000,000 Congregationalists, covering government work relief, agricultural price fixing, labor union tariffs, public ownership of utilities, consumer cooperation, and whether capitalism is the best solution to our economic problems.

Verne Kaub, Madison layman, attacked the plebiscite as a propaganda move. Arguments on both sides took place in seminar discussions.

Mr. Davies said "I live in an industrial community, and there is an entirely different feeling over the economic plebiscite as against a peace plebiscite, held by the church."

No Pressure by Rich

The Rev. John S. Green, Pittsburg, declared that millionaires in his parish never have brought pressure on the pulpit, but that labor has made such attempts.

Former Governor William E. Sweet of Colorado asserted there was "not so much dynamite" in the plebiscite, and added that hundreds of thousands of Christian laymen are in doubt, many of them led by "ultra conservatives." He said the plebiscite should be analyzed so that in doubt may be answered in the light of truth.

Earlier Babson had suggested that church officials cease defending low salaries to ministers and permit the denominational magazine to come out fearlessly on the subject.

At the business session of the board of home missions yesterday, the Rev. Harry Thomas Stock of Boston was elected general secretary of the division of Christian education in succession to the Rev. Herbert W. Gates, also of Boston, retiring because of the age limit.

Dean Lloyd K. Garrison of the University of Wisconsin Law school, former Chairman of the national labor board, defended the Wagner act at a forum meeting of the Council for Social Action. He pointed to a settlement of more than 1,000 disputes by the board.

Man Found Dead in Car At Madison Rail Yards

Madison—(AP)—A man believed to be Al Anderson, 60, a sign painter of Milwaukee or Burlington, was found dead in a box car in the North Western railroad's Monona yards today. Coroner Edward A. Fischer said he thought the man entered the car at Jefferson Junction. Postcards mailed at Burlington and addressed to Al Anderson at Milwaukee were found in a pocket.

Committee to Study Truck Prices Monday

Bids on three trucks for the street department will be considered by members of the street and bridge committee at 10 o'clock Monday morning. Prices have been received from 10 local companies and range from $1,115 to $2,900.

Be A Safe Driver

STARKS Hotel

TONIGHT

Roast Duck . 30c

Served Every Night

Fried Spring Chicken . 25c

Except Monday and Sunday

Starting at 6:00 P. M.

Boneless Perch . 15c

with French Fries . 20c

Baked Ham Sandwiches . 10c

Homemade Chili . 10c

Noon Plate Lunches . 25c

You Are Invited to Come and Hear! The

JOHNS EVANGELISTIC MESSENGERS

of Sturgis, Mich.

in MUSIC — SONG — SERMON

Each Night at 7:45 P. M., except Mon. at the

New Appleton Tabernacle

Story St. and Badger Ave.

TONITE: "Jubilant Nite."

SUN. 10:45 A. M. "Why Christians Loose the Victory"

SUN. 7:30 P. M. Great Evangelistic Service.

"The Greatest Thing in This World"

Bring a friend! A warm welcome awaits you.

Rev. Geo. R. Bauerlein, Pastor

Ruling Group in Congress Called Unmoral Majority

Only Removal of Bureaucratic Restrictions Will Revive Economic System

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington—(AP)—The "most unmoral majority" in the history of the congress of the United States would be the proper designation for the ruling group of the seventy-fifth congress just closed?

Such a characterization might seem harsh at first glance, but there are tests of what constitutes morality or unmorality in government and they can be applied readily.

First, the Lawrence Democratic majority authorized the expenditure of $12,000,000,000, which is the highest amount ever appropriated in any one year in time of peace, and this was voted notwithstanding the fact that the public debt has reached an all-time high in $37,000,000,000 and that the nation now has experienced eight successive years of treasury deficits.

Second, the Democratic majority, which controlled both houses by more than a two-thirds vote implicitly sanctioned the use of federal funds in party elections by setting specifically on three separate occasions to prohibit all federal employees from engaging actively in politics.

Third, by a new law, all first, second, and third class postmasters were given lifetime positions without the necessity of passing competitive examinations. Future vacancies are to be filled from the top three in a competitive examination, but with senate approval of each choice. A more brazen use of public offices for political purposes can hardly be imagined, especially since all the first, second and third class postmasters have been appointed by the Democrats without examinations.

Returned Deaf Ear

Subservient to the executive in most respects, unwilling to heed the advice of the business men that the economic system, now in a state of collapse, can be revived only by a removal of bureaucratic restrictions, the Democratic majority turned a deaf ear to pleas for action that would make for stability and chose instead to do many things which aggravate the present instability.

The Democratic majority refused to permit congress to exercise its legislative discretion in specifying clearly the uses to which public funds would be put and, instead, allowed the executive free rein again to do the spending, and this notwithstanding the palpable failure of the first pump priming experiment.

The only achievement which stands out as a glorious exception is the defeat of the president's bill to "pack" the supreme court with six new justices. The failure, on the other hand, of the bill to reorganize the executive departments was so closely associated with the criticism of President Roosevelt for his desire to increase his own power that it otherwise merits serious study of provisions was lost in a shuffle of debate and controversy.

With a depression of severe proportions ravaging the country, casual attention was paid by congress to the clamor for tax revision and the good enacted in the final tax law was to some extent vitiated by president's statement to the effect that he might, in the next session, seek to put back some of the features of taxation which business dreads so much.

The fact that the Democratic majority did nothing to alleviate the condition of the unemployed or the partially employed except to offer them more federal funds is a fundamental blunder, the true meaning of which may not be apparent as early as next autumn, but, in the long run, will mean the downfall of the Democratic majority.

Chose Diser Way

To get stable economic conditions, the legislative branch of the government could have done many things. These have been enumerated time and again to government officials and the files of the department of commerce are full of practical suggestions. But, the politicians chose what seemed to them the easier way—the path of expediency. They preferred to rely on the help that federal funds might give them in the autumn elections than to tackle the real problems of the American economic situation.

So, as congress goes home, there is no sign of relief, but a sigh of sadness. For, in America as in other countries in their pre-dictatorship phase, the legislative body has sacrificed principle for political expediency. The WPA and the PWA, whole federal machinery commanded by the president now is to be utilized for the benefit of the Democratic party to win an election. This happened in 1936 and it is going to be repeated, but on a smaller scale, in 1938.

Meanwhile, business men who have the responsibility of management and the responsibility as trustees of the savings of the investors look askance and wonder whether the only lesson the Democratic majority will ever learn is the lesson of a devalued dollar whose purchasing power is finally exhausted by what has previously seemed to be an inexhaustible flow of paper bonds and paper money. FEVERS sometimes must run their course. So it is with unmoral and profligate legislatures.

(Copyright, 1938)

Plan Fight Against Diseases Menacing Fur-Bearing Animals

Madison—(AP)—The University of Wisconsin will inaugurate a research program to eliminate diseases threatening the state's $10,000,000 fur animal industry if the state emergency board supplies the necessary $25,000 appropriation.

The regents voted at their meeting last yesterday, following a year's study of the problem, to request the emergency board to make the funds available.

The executive committee and Dean E. B. Fred reported there are great possibilities for a research program to study diseases among fur-bearing animals, especially, fox which have never been properly diagnosed and for which no adequate form of treatment is known.

Wisconsin fur breeders, accompanied by Assemblers Maurice Fitzsimmons, Fond du Lac, appeared before the regents a year ago to ask the university's help.

The board yesterday reelected Harold M. Wilkie, Madison, president; Mrs. Jessie Combs, Oshkosh, vice president, and Maurice McCaffery, Madison, secretary. McCaffery entered upon his thirty-first year as secretary.

To permit reelection of Wilkie the board amended the by-laws which prohibited a president from succeeding himself. The by-laws, it was found, had been disregarded in the past.

Beloit Advertising Man Heart Disease Victim

Beloit—(AP)—Hugh Ralston, 47, Beloit newspaper classified advertising manager the last 10 years, died suddenly yesterday of heart disease.

Ralston, a leader in the Boy Scout movement, was stricken after he returned from Minneapolis, where he attended the annual convention of the Association of Newspaper Classified Advertising Managers.

He formerly was classified manager for the Rock Island (Ill.) Argus and the Terre Haute (Ind.) Star. His widow and three daughters survive.

School Boards Will Hold Annual Meetings

School boards of the rural school districts of Outagamie county will hold their annual meetings at 6 o'clock Monday evening, July 11. The meeting is set by state law and election of officers of the districts will take place, according to Henry J. Van Straten, county superintendent of schools.

FINDS 8-LEAF CLOVER

Salem, Va.—(AP)—Frances Kinkaid, 17, expects a double portion of good luck—because she found an 8-leaf clover.

She plucked it in her front yard, where several seven, six and five leaf clovers and 41 of the four-leaf variety also have been found.

Today's RADIO SCHEDULES

8:30 p. m.—Family Party, WLS, WTML.

8:45 p. m.—Capital Opinions, WBBM, WCCO.

9:00 p. m.—Henry King's orchestra, WBBM.

10:00 p. m.—Xavier Cugat's orchestra, WGN.

10:30 p. m.—Roger Pryor's orchestra, WBBM. Bob Crosby's orchestra, WGN.

11:00 p. m.—Jan Garber's orchestra, WGN.

Sundays

4:00 p. m.—Lutheran Hour, WFL.

4:00 p. m.—Catholic Hour, WMAQ.

6:00 p. m.—Charlie McCarthy, WTML, WMAQ.

7:30 p. m.—Album of Familiar Music, WTML, WMAQ.

8:00 p. m.—Grand Central Station, WBBM, WCCO.

8:30 p. m.—Court of Missing Heirs, WBBM, WTAQ, WCCO.

8:30 p. m.—Duke Ellington's orchestra, WABC and network.

9:30 p. m.—Jack Benny, WTML.

Monday

1:00 p. m.—Radio theatre, WBBM, WCCO.

7:30 p. m.—Tales of Great Rivers, Red network.

8:00 p. m.—Wayne King, WBBM, WCCO.

8:30 p. m.—Eddie Cantor, WTAQ, WCCO.

8:30 p. m.—Burns and Allen, WMAQ, WTML.

9:00 p. m.—Ray Kinney, Red network.

8:00 p. m.—Freddie Gibson, Buddy Clark, WBBM, WCCO, Barn Dance, WLW, Bob Crosby's orchestra, WGN. Bill Carlsen's orchestra, WTML.

IT PAYS TO HAVE CLOTHES CLEANED OFTEN IN THE SUMMER!

Clean clothes are cooler, smarter and will give much longer wear. Tests show that clean clothes actually wear longer because sharp particles tend to weaken the fabric as they are removed. Consider this fact—then consider the economy in sending your clothes to Groth's often.

Groth Company Cleaners

Appleton Tel. 655 Delivery Service

Why drive in congested traffic? RIDE TO THE CARNIVAL IN A

TOWN TAXI

PHONE 585

ALL PASSENGERS INSURED! 15c For One 20c For Two

ANNOUNCING THE OPENING OF THE CURB SERVICE D & L KURB-SERVICE

401 N. APPLETON ST. Near R. Depot

— SPECIAL —

Tonite — Sunday — Monday

10c 10c 10c

1 Box, Large Jumbo Pop Corn and 1 Glass Hire's Root Beer

Root Beer—Pop Corn—Candy Bars Gear's Ice Cream

Conservation Men Select Advisory Board for Hearing

Committee Will Bring Recommendations to State Meeting in July

Outagamie county sportsmen at a hearing last night at the courthouse aired their views regarding open seasons for fishing and hunting of the various species, made recommendations for consideration by the state conservation department and at a state meeting in July, elected a committee to represent the county at the state meeting. More than 10 attended the session.

Many of the hunters and fishermen had their own ideas about when to hunt and fish certain species and willingly backed their points with argument but in general the sportsmen readily reached agreements, knowing that final action is up to the senate department after consideration of recommendations of other counties in the state and particularly in this area for species that are fished and hunted here.

Fred Hasenauer, of Appleton, Dr. Theodore Knapstein, Greenview, Hugo Schultes, Stephenville, and Antoine Reith, Kaukauna, were named on the committee to represent the county. The committee will name its own chairman and alternates for the state meeting.

The meeting last night was similar to sessions held in each county in the state. James Gerhartz, Appleton, was named temporary chairman of the meeting and after election of a committee, Antoine Reith, 1937 committee chairman, took charge. E. R. Kramer, game warden, also attended the session and explained various points in the questionnaire.

Closed Season

The sportsmen favored a closed season on ruffed grouse, prairie chicken, Hungarian partridge, bobwhite quail and an open season on ringneck, blackneck, Mongolian and mutant pheasant cocks to start Saturday, Oct. 15.

After it was explained that shorter shooting hours on upland game birds will not permit sportsmen to take advantage of the birds on their nesting grounds during the early morning hours, late afternoon and that shooting hours from 7 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon coincide with those for migratory waterfowl, the hunters recommended the 7 to 4 o'clock. They also favored a daily bag limit of 4 and possession limit of 8 on grouse of any variety. They approved having the mixed daily bag limit limited to not more than 4 birds including pheasant cocks and the total possession limit of not more than 8 birds including 4 pheasant cocks.

The regulation that no person shall kill more than the daily bag limit either in aggregate numbers or otherwise in any one day of any upland game bird for which an open season is provided was approved. Prohibiting the possession of upland game birds 10 days after the close of the season, unless a special permit is obtained was favored. They approved prohibiting common carriers to transport game birds.

Rabbit Season

An open season for cottontail and jackrabbits for 45 days opening Saturday, Oct. 29, and with a daily bag limit of three was recommended. The hunters favored having the snowshoe hare season concurrent with the cottontail rabbit season. An open season on gray and fox squirrels concurrent with that of pheasant season and to close on Dec. 1 was favored. Hunters also voted for a 4-day open season on gray raccoon with one zone for hunting.

In discussing a deer season the hunters recommended an open season to start Saturday, Nov. 26, and to run for five days. They favored continuance of the present fork-horn buck law. Having shooting hours a half hour before sunrise to sunset upland animals was approved. Straight or mixed daily bag limits and possession limits of three on rabbits, five on gray and fox squirrels and two on gray raccoon with a season limit of 12 were approved.

It was recommended that moose, elk, marten, fisher, silver fox, silver-black fox, black or blue fox, black squirrels and flying squirrels and black raccoon be on the protected list at all times and that unprotected birds and animals include timber and brush, weasels, coyotes, lynx, wildcats, gray fox, muskrat, badger, woodchuck, gophers, owls, hawks, crows, kingfishers, starlings, grackles, redwinged blackbirds and English sparrows.

Waterfowl Season

It was recommended that the waterfowl season open on Sept. 16, with a later date on canvasback ducks. A 1 daily bag limit was recommended along with the zoning of Wisconsin with Illinois. A woodcock season from Oct. 1 to Oct. 31 was favored. The hunters approved the regulations on blinds and sink boats.

Ducks were classed as scarce and a closed season on them was recommended. A closed season on mink and otter also was recommended. An open season on skunk was favored.

Turning to fishing regulations, the sportsmen approved closing the fishing season with the expiration of the ice fishing season. Present regulations on large and small black bass, trout on inland water and lake trout were favored. Some fishermen asked that no partiality be shown on opening the Wolf river on pike, and April 1 was recommended by vote as opening day. Present regulations on other fish were discussed and in general approved.

The fishermen opposed an ice fishing license in addition to the regular fishing license and favored a general resident fishing license of $1 for all adults 18 years of age or over for inland waters only, and that the present rod and reel license be repealed.

Be A Safe Driver

'DAD' GIVES WEDDING ADVICE
On the eve of his wedding to Anne Lindsay Clark at Nahant, Mass., John Roosevelt, youngest son of the President, gets last minute smiling advice from "Dad." The bridegroom-to-be met his father as he arrived in Salem, Mass., to board the yacht, Potomac.

65 Graduates of Senior High School Have Credits Transferred to Colleges

H. H. Hebble, Appleton High school principal, announced today that 44 of the high school's 387 graduates have indicated they will attend various colleges and universities this fall. In addition, 23 graduates of other years have had their high school credits transferred to various schools.

Thirteen students have transferred credits to Lawrence college including Betty Brown, Alfred Oliver, Myra Koitsch, John Kroll, Charles Pruett, Franklin Fumal, Dexter Wolfe, Mildred Toll, Edna Muldoon, Ben Seaborn, Janet Fulmire, Ruth Mewaldt and Andrease Heuser.

Those who have indicated they will attend the University of Wisconsin are: Clifford Dorman, Mary

May Rain Sunday, Weatherman Says

Temperatures Chilly Last Night but Rise to 72 Degrees This Noon

Residents of Appleton and vicinity who are planning outdoor recreations over the weekend may look forward to warmer weather Sunday with possible showers Sunday afternoon in the north central and west portions of the state, the weatherman says. The weather today will remain fair and not too cool tonight.

The temperature remained chilly last night and this morning but was rising at noon. The thermometer atop the Post-Crescent building registered 72 degrees at 12 o'clock. For the 24-hour period ended at 9 o'clock this morning the highest mark in the city was 69 degrees and the lowest was 50, according to charts at the Wisconsin Michigan Power company plant.

Phoenix, Ariz., reported the maximum of 104 degrees yesterday, the hottest in the United States. The lowest temperature reported was 36 degrees at Winnemucca.

Kopitzke Funeral Is Conducted at Marion

Marion — Funeral services for John F. Kopitzke, who died Tuesday at Appleton, were conducted from St. John's Lutheran church on Friday afternoon by the Rev. Fred Obroegge. Burial took place in Roseland cemetery.

Mr. Kopitzke was born in Germany on Oct. 15, 1861. When he was 6 years old his parents came to America and located in Ohio. Later they moved to a farm in the town of Dupont and for the last few years he has made his home with his son Arthur. Surviving are two sons, Arthur of Dupont and Henry of Appleton; four daughters, Mrs. Otto Ruschke of Union, Mrs. John Vogt of Birmahood, Mrs. Ervin Steege of Pella and Mrs. Arnold Thuck of Leopold.

Benz, Zuchlik to Go to Albert Dahms' Funeral

Alex O. Benz, president of the Aid Association for Lutherans, and W. H. Zuchlik, treasurer, will attend the funeral of Albert Dahms, 72, former Appleton resident and director of the association, at Minneapolis Monday afternoon. Mr. Dahms, who at one time operated a grocery store on College avenue, left Appleton for Chicago. He later moved to Minneapolis where he became a general agent for the A. A. L.

Woman in Hospital With Throat Wound

Mrs. Alvina Webster, 29, Oneida Indian, is confined to St. Vincent hospital, Green Bay, with a slashed throat reported to Sheriff John Lappen to have been self-inflicted early this morning at her home. Mrs. Webster's condition is not serious, the attending physician said.

INJURED FOOT

Norman Servaes, 43, 801 Desnoyer street, Kaukauna, suffered a foot injury when a keg of beer he was carrying slipped on it this morning at the Kaukauna Electric City Brewing company plant. He was taken to St. Elizabeth hospital.

Ellsworth Youth Heads 4-H Clubs

Arthur Fischer Elected to State Office at Madison Meeting

Madison—(P)—Arthur Fischer, of Ellsworth, a delegate from Pierce county, was elected president of the Wisconsin 4-H club organization today at the annual meeting on the university campus.

Fischer was elevated from the vice presidency and that office was filled with the election of Miss Edna Baumann, of Edgar, a delegate from Marathon county and university home economics student. She will become president at the 1939 session.

Other officers elected were: Robert Helm, Darlington, secretary-treasurer and Arnold Stern, Foxboro, sergeant at arms.

More than 1,000 young farm men and women neared the close of the week's exercises today. The program has included a busy daily routine starting at 6 in the morning and ending at 11 at night.

Drama groups from Milton, Strassburg and Albion will participate in the one act state play finals tonight.

The organization yesterday honored Melvin Martin, of Ripon and Marie Schlus, of Baraboo who had been selected as outstanding junior leaders in 4-H club work in the state last year.

State Orders Utility To Reduce Rural Rates

Madison—(P)—The public service commission today ordered the Wilcox River Power company operating in St. Croix and Dunn counties to reduce its rural rates $1,300 a year and refund nearly $3,500 contributed by customers toward the cost of lines.

The refunds are to be made in cash and the new rates will become effective at once.

The commission said the revisions were necessary to bring the utility's schedules into line with those of other utilities operating in adjacent territory.

The Coleman-Pound Light and Power company, Marinette county, was ordered to overhaul its distribution system before Oct. 1, to test all meters, and to send out its bills at least a week before they are due.

Settle Labor Dispute At Mine in Michigan

Michigan—(P)—I. Komaroff, field examiner for the national labor relations board, announced today charges of unfair labor practices filed against the Castle Mining company of Ramsay, in Gogebic county, Michigan, have been settled.

The company was charged by the Steel Workers' Organizing Committee (CIO) with refusal to re-employ 18 miners because of union activities when the mine reopened in August, 1935, after a shutdown.

Komaroff said the 18 miners were given $2,500 in back pay, five are to re-employ with full seniority rights, and four are to be placed on a preferential re-employment list.

Rooney to Serve as U. W. Alumni Director

Madison—(P)—New directors of the Wisconsin Alumni association, elected by a mail poll, were announced today at 11 class reunions in which more than 1,000 "old grads" of the University of Wisconsin renewed acquaintances.

The directors are: Philip H. Falk, Waukesha, class of '21, who was named this week as president of the state teachers' college at Stevens Point; Frank V. Birch, Milwaukee, '18; C. H. Bonnin, New York, '23; Albert J. Gooden, Green Bay, '07; Dr. Gunnar Gunderson, LaCrosse, former university regent, '17; Harlan B. Rogers, Portage, attorney, '09; and George W. Rooney, Appleton, president of the 1938 senior class.

Longshoremen's Union To Meet at Kaukauna

A conference to be held with Governor LaFollette sometime next week on working conditions on the Fox river will be discussed at a meeting of the International Longshoremen's union, local No. 1441, at the Odd Fellows hall, Kaukauna tonight. The meeting will open at 7:30.

DEATHS

STELTZER FUNERAL

Funeral services for William Steltzer, 78, who died Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Emil Buss, 714 E. Hancock street, were held at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Bretschneider funeral home with the Rev. F. C. Reuter, pastor of the First English Lutheran church in charge. Burial was in Mishicot cemetery. Bearers at the funeral home were Lester and Chester Stillman, Rudy Moder, Arthur Luedtke, James Levan and John Buss. Bearers at the grave were Irvin Krueger, Robert Schultz, Albert Tetzloff, L. O. Tetzloff, Emil Wideman and Hugh Steltzer.

JOHNSTON FUNERAL

Funeral services for Mrs. Eva Rich Johnston, formerly of Appleton, who died last December at Manland, Fla., will be held at 2:30 Monday afternoon at the Wichmann funeral home. Dr. Harry C. Culver of the Methodist Episcopal church will be in charge. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

BAND SOLOIST
Clayton Hopfensperger, cornet player in St. Mary High school band of Menasha, will be the featured soloist at the third concert of the 120th Field Artillery band at Pierce park Tuesday night. He will also give a baton twirling exhibition.

William F. Hegner Is Admitted to State Bar

William F. Hegner, son of Dr. and Mrs. George T. Hegner, 722 S. State street, was admitted to the bar Thursday morning at Madison, after having received his law degree from Marquette university, Milwaukee, Wednesday night at the Milwaukee auditorium. Dr. and Mrs. Hegner attended the commencement exercises at Milwaukee and also saw their son sworn in at Madison.

Change Date to File Prices on Pavements

The date for receiving bids on paving of Fremont street, John street and E. South Rivers street has been advanced from June 28 to July 5, according to Carl J. Becher, city clerk. Bids on sewer laterals for the same streets will be received at the same time. The bids will be opened at a meeting of the board of public works.

Members of 4-H Club Meet at Selle Home

Members of the Reinert 4-H club met at the Arthur Selle home Thursday evening with Arthur Winkelman in charge. Dolores Smith led group singing after the meeting and Harold Luebke sang a solo. Games were played and refreshments served. The next meeting will be held at the Leonard Smith home Thursday evening, July 7.

Births

A son was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haef, 319 Racine avenue, Kaukauna, at St. Elizabeth hospital.

A son was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. Steve Mullen, route 4, Seymour, at St. Vincent's hospital, Green Bay.

The Dog Owner and His Dog

BY ALLAN KERR

Wild life conservation may oftentimes be served in ways seldom considered by us as individuals or organized groups. We are thinking at the moment of the great annual toll of nesting song and game birds, their eggs and young, taken by dogs and cats that are carelessly or ignorantly allowed to run at large during the spring and early summer months.

We can't help but feel that any action taken by sportsmen's clubs and other organizations to educate many of the unknowing offenders, would be one of the most worth while moves possible in the direction of a more bounteous wild life supply. What the slaughter is each year, no one can definitely know, but authorities agree that it is tremendous. One state estimates 12,000,000 birds killed by cats.

Kitty has the advantage in that she can attack both the tree and ground nesters, but it is no doubt the latter that falls victim in greatest numbers. Among these are the larks, plovers, ducks, pheasants and grouse. The ravages of their natural enemies cut the number of young raised to maturity, and when our domestic animals are also allowed to prey upon the almost defenseless creatures, the adults are fortunate to raise any portion of their brood to full growth.

Enjoy Trips Afield

Many persons are still of the opinion that the place for dogs is in the country where they can roam free and unhampered, and follow their age-old natural instincts. Dogs do enjoy trips afield, but like humans they have gradually learned to accept the modern form of restrained living that was not known to ages long gone by. It is not unusual to hear hounds on the trail near farm and cottage districts in the middle of the night. Dozens of young rabbits, unable to take care of themselves in such an uneven contest, are thus destroyed. The very hunters who carelessly allow their dogs to run at large unattended and unsupervised, are likely the first to squeak about the scarcity of game during the hunting season.

Persons who love their dogs, or place any monetary value on them, should certainly realize the hazard to life and limb that every prowling canine faces. In addition to death dealing speeding cars on the highways, there is the possibility of injury inflicted by other dogs, poisoning, or theft of the favorite hunting pal. It must be remembered, too, that a dog may be destroyed by farmers or conservation wardens, if caught in the act of molesting farm stock or wild life. No breed of dog is immune to all of these hazards.

Greater Problem

The cat is even a greater problem. There are no laws to govern his wholesale marauding; no license fee to defray the cost of his destructive nocturnal hunting expeditions, such as is assessed the dog owner. It prowls at will, and although it helps to keep down the rodent population around the farmer's barns, it also destroys hundreds of pest destroying birds that help keep those barns filled. We believe Wisconsin could do itself, and the country generally, a great service by leading a movement to remedy this situation, right now. In the meantime, those of us who understand the problem and are interested in improving the wild life situation in our own locality, should do everything in our power to educate others. A good start is to set a good example.

BOOK REVIEW

Reader Meets Many Admirable Characters in 'Time to Change'

By Jean Wiley Thickens

"THE TIME OF CHANGE" by Lucille Grebene. It is sometimes difficult to determine just why certain novels have been selected as best sellers. Their style and content may not seem to justify that coveted title. Perhaps the answer lies in the ability of certain publishers to put their books across with the reading public. On the other hand one occasionally chafes upon a story which deserves that signal honor and yet causes barely a ripple of comment from the public when it appears. Such a novel is "The Time of Change," a saga of the War of 1812.

The locale of Miss Grebene's novel is Stonington, Conn., and she starts in her brief preface that she has selected authentic family names for her story, names of those who actually took a part in the stirring days of the war, though the particular characters depicted are figments of her imagination.

The word picture of Molly Eldredge who at 20 left her home in Massachusetts to set up housekeeping with a young suitor who carried her off on the seat of his war-gon, is a delightful one. Molly at 20 has the poise, the good sense and the tolerance of a woman twice her age. The day of her wedding her young husband is obliged to leave her in the care of his mother while he starts precipitously to aid his fellow citizens in repelling the attack of British troops on the city of Stonington. During many anxious days Molly does not know whether her bridegroom lies dead or wounded or whether he has survived the battle which they all can hear raging a few miles away.

Cares for Wounded

Instead of bemoaning her interrupted wedding journey as youngsters of her age might be expected to do, Molly joins her mother-in-law in caring for the wounded. She finds an immediate place for herself in her husband's former home, wins the instant approval of Madame Eldredge, of grandpa who is bedridden, of her fun-loving young brother-in-law Jonathan, and of poor rail-road-brained Keesie the family drudge, whose mind has never been quite right since the Indians massacred her husband in 1780 when she was a bride.

The simple events of every day in the Eldredge household and in the homes of their neighbors, form a vivid pattern of light and shadow. There are the periodic visits of Jess Hart, the itinerant tin-smith who peddles kitchen utensils, thread, needles, salves, cotton goods and condiments and in exchange for bits of gossip gathered from his house to house canvassing is given his food and a pallet in front of the hearth each night. Ephe Darte, is the town bum whose "sickness" is a full-grown distaste for any type of work, calls at the Eldredge house twice daily to beg milk, fresh vegetables or a chicken from his hapless family of half grown offspring. The change of the seasons, and the tides, of seedtime and harvest are all exquisitely depicted in Miss Grebene's unique style.

Tidal Wave

Her description of the tidal wave which inundates the countryside, drowns Christopher and destroys crops, stock and farm buildings is thrilling and tragic. It has the epic quality of the story of the flood found in the book of Genesis. One reading the account can almost hear the terrifying roar of the wind and taste the salt spray on his tongue. Death and destruction stalk the countryside. In adversity one's true self is discovered and the Eldredge clan are pure gold. It is refreshing and unusual in modern literature to meet so many truly admirable characters in one book for many modern authors seem to lean toward the abnormal and the emotionally unstable, in their selection of characters to people their books.

"The Time of Change" is Lucille Grebene's first novel, having been preceded only by a book of personal memoirs. It is to be hoped that in her future novels the author will not lose her sane view of life and her delightful style of describing it.

Realty Transfers

The following real estate transfers were filed today at the office of A. L. Collar, Outagamie county register of deeds:

Henry Van Nuland to John T. Van Nuland, two lots in the village of Kimberly.

Rudolph F. Pasch, a lot in the Sixth ward, Appleton.

Anna Press to Eli Fielkow et al, a lot in the Fifth ward, Appleton.

J. H. Landry to Mary Landry, a lot in the Third ward, Appleton.

John Vander Hyden to Joseph Vander Hyden, a part of a lot in the village of Kimberly.

Theresa Mitchea to Anthony J. Mitchea, a lot in the First ward, Kaukauna.

TAKE GAS BIDS

Bids on two 8,000-gallon tank cars of gasoline will be considered by the county highway committee Monday afternoon at the courthouse. Usual business also will be transacted.

Two mortgage cases were considered by the mediation board at its weekly meeting this morning at the courthouse.

Service to All

Personal Attention

WICHMANN

Funeral Home

Cor. Franklin and Superior Sts.

Phone 460R2

UNFALTERING SERVICE

BRETTSCHNEIDER FUNERAL HOME

PHONE 308-R-1

"Over 50 Years of Faithful Service"

JOHNSON SAYS:- WE LEAD - OTHERS FOLLOW!

It pays to have your Shoes Rebuilt!
It pays to have your Hat Cleaned and Blocked!

Get more wear from your hats and shoes by using our expert service! And you get more service for your money at Johnson's!

SHOE REBUILDING—SHOE SHINING—HAT CLEANING

JOHNSON'S

SHOE REBUILDERS

Appleton — Tel. 4310 Neenah — Tel. 617

We Call and Deliver

Ullerich Squad Trims Local 1107 In League Contest

Third Man Up in Last Inning Spoils No-Hit Game for Hurler

Industrial League

	W.	L.
Ullerich's	1	0
Plywood	1	0
Mystery Boys	0	0
Bordens	1	1
Local 1107	1	1
K. C.	0	2

New London — Ed Stern, Jr., spoiled a no-hit softball game for pitcher Bob Ullerich in the Industrial league last evening when he cracked a two-bagger in the final inning. He was the third man up with two already down and failed to score, the team of Local 1107 tallying on an error in the first inning to take a 12 to 1 trimming from Ullerich's unsponsored squad.

Bob Yost led the winners' barrage of 16 hits with a perfect record at bat, there times up for two doubles and a home run. He was the first man on bases each time. Ullerich also led off with a home run in the fourth frame. Denny Roberts clouted two doubles and Melvin Glock and Herman Platte each counted one.

The game went only 5 1/2 innings because of a late start and approaching dusk. Clifford Sawall tossed for the losers with Luellian Longie behind the plate. Platte caught for Ullerich.

The Bordens and Plywood teams are scheduled to meet Monday evening at the Washington High school diamond.

New London Society

New London—The Manawa chapter of the Order of Eastern Star assisted the New London lodge in the work of annual inspection of the order at the Masonic temple Thursday evening. Mrs. Laura Tarr, Ashland, grand lecturer of Wisconsin, conducted the inspection. Several members of the Clintonville lodge were among the 75 persons at the 6:30 dinner.

The New London lodge will hold a regular meeting Monday evening. It will be the last until September. Hostesses will be Mrs. George Ribbany, chairman, Mrs. Perry Cornelius, Mrs. C. J. Dean and Mrs. O. K. Ziebur. The group will hold its annual picnic June 24 and Mrs. C. H. Kellogg has been placed in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. William Dent was honored with a floral bouquet when she met with the Firemen's auxiliary at Appleton Thursday afternoon. The group served a picnic lunch at Alicia park. Mrs. Dent is state president of the Wisconsin Firemen's auxiliary.

The last meeting of the summer was held by the Leisure Hour club Thursday evening. Mrs. E. H. Smith was hostess and prizes were received by Mrs. John Nugent, Mrs. R. E. Scanlon and Mrs. William M. Knappstein. Mrs. John Croak will reopen the season at her home Sept. 13.

A 1 o'clock luncheon was served the past presidents of the American Legion auxiliary by Mrs. A. G. VanAlstine at her home Thursday afternoon. Cards followed and prizes were won by Mrs. Emil Gehrke, Mrs. L. J. Manske, Mrs. Helmut Ehrenreich and Mrs. Richard Gehrke. Mrs. Ehrenreich will be hostess July 21.

The Neighborhood club played at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Roloff Thursday evening. Prizes went to Mrs. Charles Pasch and Mrs. Earl Curry. The latter will be hostess next week.

The Friendly Eight club will be entertained by Mrs. G. A. Wells Monday afternoon. Mrs. L. C. Lowell will be assisting hostess. The meeting was postponed from yesterday.

The West Side club met with Mrs. Herman Ladwig yesterday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. William Gehrke and Mrs. A. R. Margraff. Mrs. Otto Stern will entertain in two weeks.

Four to Attend Synod

Gathering at Oshkosh

New London—Four New London persons will represent the Emanuel Lutheran church of this city at the biennial meeting of the North Wisconsin district of the Joint Evangelical Lutheran synod of Wisconsin and Other States at Oshkosh at next week, Monday to Friday, inclusive.

Attending will be the Rev. W. E. Pankow, pastor; the Rev. LeRoy Ristow, assistant; B. H. Boese, principal of the parochial school; and August Flunker, official delegate of the congregation.

New London Office

News and circulation departments of the Appleton Post-Crescent are represented in New London by Alvin J. Brault, 103 E. Cook street. News items and orders for subscriptions may be left at that address or may be telephoned by calling 18. Papers missed by carriers will be delivered if complaint is made before 7 p. m.

New London Office

News and circulation departments of the Appleton Post-Crescent are represented in New London by Alvin J. Brault, 103 E. Cook street. News items and orders for subscriptions may be left at that address or may be telephoned by calling 18. Papers missed by carriers will be delivered if complaint is made before 7 p. m.

Dedicatory Services to Be Held Sunday for New Veterans Home Entrance

Waupaca—Colonel Fred T. Cruse of Madison, will represent Adjutant General Ralph Innell Sunday at the special dedicatory services of the new stone entrance and exit to the Wisconsin Veterans' Home. The project, which is still under construction due to a delay because of rains, is a gift of the state department of the Women's Relief corps and will cost that department nearly $800, $200 of which is a gift from the E. B. Woolcott post, Grand Army of the Republic, Milwaukee.

The dedicatory program which has been prepared by the state department of the Relief corps will be held at the monument which has been erected between the entrance and exit and upon the bronze plaque of which has been placed the inscription which will show that the project has been dedicated to the veterans of the Grand Army Home of the Republic.

The program is as follows: Raising of colors and pledge of allegiance; "The Star Spangled Banner"; Waupaca band; invocation, Captain Henry Held, department chaplain of the G. A. R.; selection, Waupaca band; introduction of memorial committee of the W. R. C., Department of Wisconsin; preamble of the project, Mrs. Alma Cheeseman.

Quartet, Sheboygan juniors; introduction of honored guests.

Remarks by the department commander of the G. A. R., W. P. Bryant, and national senior vice commander-in-chief, Captain Held; presentation of Milwaukee Drum corps and selection; address, Dr. Hafemeister, acting commandant; presentation of memorial, Mrs. Clara Miller, department president; acceptance for the state, Colonel Cruse; unveiling of the centerpiece monument, two Milwaukee juniors; Cornerstone ceremony—Reading of papers, The Home, Mrs. Alma Cheeseman and Mrs. Clara Miller, deposit of box, Mrs. Miller; sealing of the stone: America, band and audience; taps.

New London Personals

New London—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Thayer at their home on Shawano street yesterday morning.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schimke, route 2, New London, at their farm home yesterday in the town of Caledonia.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Patchen and son Robert left this morning to spend several weeks vacationing in the Estes National park in Colorado. Accompanying them is Mrs. Patchen's mother, Mrs. Catherine Lawson of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Polzini and daughter, Jeanette Marie of Oregon City, Ore., are visiting relatives here this week. They will start their return trip home next week by way of the southern states.

Mrs. Anna Polzini, Menominee, Wis. and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winkler of Clintonville visited relatives here yesterday.

Miss Margaret Wright is spending the weekend with a group of girls on an outing at Cedar lake.

Miss Alice Nichols, Black Creek, underwent an operation at Community hospital yesterday.

New London Churches

EMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH
Rev. W. E. Pankow, pastor; Rev. LeRoy Ristow, assistant; German service, 8:30 a. m.; Sunday school, 9:00 a. m.; English service, 10:00 a. m.

MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD CATHOLIC CHURCH
Rev. Paul E. Herb, pastor; Rev. Anthony J. Baier, assistant; High mass, 7:00 a. m.; Children's mass, 8:30 a. m.; Low mass, 10:00 a. m.

METHODIST CHURCH
Rev. Ralph R. Holliday, pastor. New London service 11:00 a. m.; Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.; Stephensville service, 8:45 a. m.; Bear Creek service, 10:00 a. m.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Rev. F. S. Dayton, pastor; Services and sermon, 7:30 a. m. and 10:30 a. m.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Rev. Harold P. Rektstad, pastor; Sunday school, 9:00 a. m.; Preaching service, 10:00 a. m.

Mrs. Lawrence Miller Feted on Anniversary

New London—Guests from all over the countryside were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Miller at their farm home last evening in honor of Mrs. Miller's birthday anniversary. About 60 were present from in and around Appleton, Hortonville, Weyauwega, Fremont and New London.

Twelve tables of cards were played and prizes were won as follows: Ladies, Mrs. Walter Koehler, Weyauwega; Mrs. Henry Kuehl, New London; Mrs. Carlton Schneider, Hortonville; travelers prize, Mrs. Richard Hottizer, Weyauwega; Men's Alfred Steinberg, William Breitenfeldt, Calvin Pomrenge; traveling prize, Herman Gorges, all from New London.

60 Pheasants Released in Hortonville Area

Hortonville—Sixty pheasants from the state game farm at Paynette were received by A. L. Collar Friday and were released in the vicinity of Hortonville by Mr. Collar and Herbert Falek, a member of the Junior Fish and Game association.

Mrs. Chris Fahley entertained Friday afternoon in honor of her daughter Juanita's birthday. Guests were Doris Mae Lason, Bernice Steffen, Margie and Elaine Falk, Julia Lapp, Carolyn Hertel, Merle Hein, Dorothy Freiburger, Bern-

Too Late To Classify by Baer

Guernsey Breeders Hear Discussion of Problems

Chilton—A group of Guernsey breeders met with Clarence Sheridan, well-known Guernsey breeder from Fond du Lac county, in the city hall in this city Wednesday evening, and heard Mr. Sheridan outline some of the problems confronting Guernsey breeders today. Mr. Sheridan stated that a plan or program to be followed is one of the essentials in driving to gain progress and advancement for the improvement of the dairy herd. It is necessary to have an objective in mind and then overcome all obstacles that place themselves in the path leading to one's destination, he said. The dairy herd improvement association with its records is the only guide to better cows, he maintained, urging breeders to plan to follow blood lines to get the best results, and definitely to abandon crossing breeds. He advised dairymen to get together on a dairy program to keep the industry among the other industries in the country. A clean, healthy herd is one of the fundamentals in building up a good, sound dairy program, he asserted.

At this meeting the Guernsey breeders appointed a committee of three farmers to have charge of showing Calumet county Guernsey cattle at the state fair. Ernst Schultz, August Ploekelmann and John Koehler were named to the committee.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hofmeister in a hospital in Milwaukee on Thursday. The child was named Ann Louise.

The Rev. F. C. Heimann, pastor of Holy Trinity church in Jericho, and the Rev. L. F. Binder, pastor of St. Charles church, Charlesburg, will leave Monday for a month's tour of New Mexico, California, Oregon and other western states, where they will visit relatives and friends. During their absence the Salvatorian fathers of St. Nazianz will conduct services in their churches.

Relatives and friends surprised Joseph Propson Wednesday evening in honor of his birthday. The guests were Mrs. Mary Gillis and son Norbert, Stockbridge; Mr. and Mrs. John Propson, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Penning, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Sabel, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Veit, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Propson.

Dr. and Mrs. John Minahan and son Billy went to Milwaukee Wednesday to attend the commencement exercises at Marquette university, their daughter Kathryn being one of the graduates. At Milwaukee they were met by their son John, a cadet at West Point, who will spend the rest of June here.

Sister M. Delphine and M. Marceline of St. Francis convent, Milwaukee visited their father An-

Gough Funeral Rites Held at Bear Creek

Bear Creek—The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Gough was held at St. Mary's church at 9:30 Thursday morning. Solemn requiem mass was celebrated by the Rev. J. G. De Vries with the Rev. Paul Herb of New London as deacon and the Rev. N. Diederich of Clintonville as sub-deacon. Frater Richard Mulroy, nephew of Mrs. Gough, was master of ceremonies. Bearers were William J. Lucia, Theodore Briscoe, Albert Lorge, Frank Prunty, Joseph Mares and Mike McClone. Members of St. Ann's Al-

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS FOR LICENSES

Notice is hereby given that the following applications for Class B Licenses to deal in intoxicating liquor have been filed with the Town Clerk of Grand Chute:

Name	Address	Location of premises to be licensed
Frank McCaghey	R. R. 2	N.W. of S.E. 1 Sec. 4, Town 21, Range 17, Lot 2, Bk. 25, Bell Heights
Elmer J. Hintz	R. R. 2	Lot 1, Bk. 23, Bell Heights
Geo. W. Frazer	R. R. 2	W. 29' of E. 60 ft. of 1 - 2, Block 31, Bell Heights
Wm. Meyer	306 W. Wisconsin Ave., Appleton	Lot 11, Sunny Slope Plat
Bernard J. Overesch	175 W. Foster St., Appleton	S.W. S.W. 1 Sec. 33, T. 21, R. 17
Clarence Na Green	R. R. 2	N.E. N.W. Sec. 29, T. 21, R. 17
Mrs. Ed Fleming	R. R. 1	S.W. S.W. Sec. 22, T. 21, R. 17
Olive Wiesneski	R. R. 1	S.E. S.W. Sec. 22, T. 21, R. 17
Mrs. A. H. Frakes	R. R. 1	Lot 4, Bk. 22, Highmore Addition
Emery J. Barrett	R. R. 1	S.W. S.W. Sec. 24, T. 21, R. 17
Frank De Wall	R. R. 3	Lot 113 & 114 Randall Plat
Lawrence Keiffer	R. R. 3	Sec. 2, Town 21, Range 17
Rose Kaufman	R. R. 2	N.W. S.W. Sec. 24 T. 21, R. 17
Waldemar E. Klein	R. R. 3	Lot 6, Ulman Plat
C. J. Loev	R. R. 2	N.W. N.W. Sec. 6, T. 21, R. 13
Sheldon Stammer	R. R. 3	Lot 1 lying S of Carline Sec. 19, T. 21, R. 18
Geo. M. Vander Velden	R. R. 3	Lots 40, 42, 44, Ulman Plat
Genevieve Powers	R. R. 3	Lot 2, Bk. 23, Bell Heights
Lawrence John Biechler	1528 N. Superior St., Appleton	Lot 1 S. of Hiway, Sec. 19, T. 21, R. 13
Sylvester Esler	Appleton Hotel

June 16, 17, 18

WAYNE E. ROWAN, Town Clerk of Grand Chute

1.200 Persons Take Part in Procession Of Corpus Christi

Little Chute — Approximately 1,200 persons attended the solemn procession in honor of the feast of Corpus Christi at St. John church Thursday evening. The procession started at the church at 7 o'clock and proceeded to four altars in the village which had been erected for the occasion. Benediction was held at each altar with the final service at the church. Among the out-of-town members of the clergy who attended the services were: The Rev. M. A. Hauch, Appleton; the Rev. John De Wild, Combined Locks; the Rev. C. B. Vanden Borne and the Rev. Alfred Hietpas, Kimberly; the Rev. Joseph Jansen, Aurora; the Rev. A. W. Van Dyke, Freedom; the Rev. Father Roter, Kaukauna. Music was furnished by the members of the Little Chute Community band and the members of St. John choir.

Mrs. Fred Gerrits, Main street, entertained the members of the Birthday club at her home Thursday evening. Cards were played and honors at bridge were awarded Mrs. Joseph Conrad and Mrs. A. P. Rock. Winners at schafkopf were Mrs. Michael Karrels and Mrs. Cornelius Langedyk and the traveling prize was won by Mrs. Philip Molitor. Those present were: Mrs. Henry Van Susteren, Mrs. Michael Karrels, Mrs. Albert Hartjes, Mrs. A. P. Rock, Mrs. John G. Jansen, Mrs. Joseph Conrad, Mrs. Cornelius Langedyk, Mrs. Philip Molitor, Little Chute; Mrs. George Gerrits, Appleton.

Mrs. Philip Molitor, Main street, entertained a few friends at card at her home Thursday afternoon. Guests included Mrs. Matthew Molitor and Mrs. George Kessler, Appleton, and Mrs. Peter H. Jansen, Little Chute.

Mrs. Otto Jenny and Miss Margaret Jenny returned Thursday from a several days visit with relatives and friends in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Cornelius Van Dyke spent Wednesday in Milwaukee where she attended the commencement exercises at Marquette university. Her son, Joseph, was a member of the graduating class.

Miss Olive Van Susteren has returned to Milwaukee after a several days visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Susteren, Main street.

Joseph Verbrick, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Verbrick of Keshena is visiting for several weeks with Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Doyle.

Several members of this village are planning to attend the exemplification of the fourth degree program at Chilton Sunday. John G. Jansen will be among those from here who will attend.

Complete Addition To Service Station

Manawa—Completion of the new cement block and brick addition to the Standard service station, corner of Main and Union streets in Manawa, owned by F. H. Goetz and managed by Carl Rineck, was announced this week. The addition is 26 by 32 feet in size and was built to match the original building in every detail, including the red brick front and the red tile roof.

The addition includes two grease stalls where cars may be cleaned and serviced at any time and in all kinds of weather. Other improvements are the installation of an oil burner and added equipment. The original Standard service station was constructed in 1927 and was the first drive-in gas station in Manawa.

Under the change of time for Green Bay and Western passenger and mail trains to take effect Monday, the morning westbound train will arrive in Manawa at 7:02 instead of 8:54. The afternoon eastbound train is scheduled to arrive here at 2:54 rather than 2:20 as formerly. The change will benefit rural route patrons who desire to get mail out on the afternoon train.

The Rev. R. A. Karpinsky, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, and F. J. Gehrke, lay delegate, are in St. Louis, Mo., this week and next attending the annual convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio, and other states.

Be A Safe Driver

SUNDAY, JUNE 19th

HOLY ANGELS PARISH

CHICKEN DINNER

GRAND PICNIC

2 Mi. South East of Appleton

Band Concert

ST. MARY'S HIGH SCHOOL OF MENASHIA

Side Show of Wonders

Dinner Served 11 to 2 P. M.

Cafeteria Supper 5 to 7 P. M.

30 x 60 Tents for Protection

Rain or Shine

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS FOR LICENSES

Notice is hereby given that the following applications for Class A Licenses to deal in intoxicating liquor have been filed with the City Clerk of Appleton:

Name	Address	Location of premises to be licensed
Acker, George Sr.	825 W. Fifth St.	614 W. College Ave.
Ashauer, Jake & Mike		812 S. Oneida St.
Becher, Ed.	1200 S. Oneida St.	1200 S. Oneida St.
Becher, Elmer John	217 W. Pacific St.	1428 W. Second St.
Brigg's Hotel	118 E. Washington St.	118 E. Washington St.
Calmes, Fred N.	1413 N. Meade St.	720 E. Wisconsin Ave.
Calmes & Rechner		117 S. Appleton St.
Conway Management Co.		123 N. Oneida St.
DeWall, Elmer	322 W. Commercial St.	404 N. Appleton St.
Eggert, Clarence	317 N. Bates St.	733 W. College Ave.
Eiehring, Henry	148 S. Walter Ave.	148 S. Walter Ave.
Gamsky, Jack	311 S. Walnut St.	231 S. Walnut St.
Garvey, William	321 W. College Ave.	321 W. College Ave.
Gassner, John Sr.	414 N. Appleton St.	414 N. Appleton St.
Gerrits, John	111 E. College Ave.	111 E. College Ave.
Giesen, Albert	217 W. Pacific St.	619 W. College Ave.
Helmuth, Peter	313 E. College Ave.	313 E. College Ave.
Hoffengartner, Jacob	516 W. College Ave.	516 W. College Ave.
Houle, Ira	1248 E. Wisconsin Ave.	118 S. Walnut St.
Jens, A. T.	1525 S. Outagamie St.	117 N. Appleton St.
Johnston, Elmer	719 N. State St.	702 E. Wisconsin Ave.
Kamps, Ralph W.	802 W. Prospect Ave.	109 E. College Ave.
Kaufman, Glenn W.	R.R. No. 4 Appleton	117 S. State St.
Kellett, Leonard	322 E. College Ave.	322 E. College Ave.
Kerrigan, Harry	1215 W. Winnebago St.	221 N. Appleton St.
Klimko, R. L.	1525 W. Washington St.	1525 W. Second St.
Koehnle, Anton A.	712 W. Packard St.	501 N. Richmond St.
Mader, Charles	301 S. Walnut St.	301 S. Walnut St.
Maritime Tavern		336 W. Wisconsin Ave.
Mauer, Edward J.	515 S. Walnut St.	332 W. College Ave.
McGinnis, Earl	325 W. College Ave.	325 W. College Ave.
Houle, Effie	524 W. Lawrence St.	627 W. College Ave.
Nennig, Peter	127 S. Walnut St.	127 S. Walnut St.
Oudenhoven, George C.	223 E. College Ave.	223 E. College Ave.
Pruetz, Herman	509 N. Appleton St.	509 N. Appleton St.
Rankin, John B.	1315 N. Superior St.	334-6 W. College Ave.
Reek, John H.	600 W. College Ave.	600 W. College Ave.
Schaefer, George	1608 S. Lawe St.	1330 S. Oneida St.
Schneider, Frank	1216 N. Morrison St.	326 W. College Ave.
Schwarz, Ignatius	127 S. State St.	116 S. State St.
Sheerin, Clifford	300 W. College Ave.	300 W. College Ave.
Stark, Raymond	517 N. Mason St.	317 N. Appleton St.
Strutz, Maurice	906 S. Oneida St.	306 S. Oneida St.
Thies, Alvin B.	811 E. Brewster St.	333 W. College Ave.
Tornow, Wm.	205 W. College Ave.	123 W. College Ave.
Trass, Peter	308 N. Richmond St.	208 N. Richmond St.
Ulrich, Hazel	301 N. Appleton St.	301 N. Appleton St.
Vander Linden, Alvin	523 W. College Ave.	523 W. College Ave.
Van Roy, Peter & Howard	314 E. College Ave.	314 E. College Ave.
Verbrick, Edward H.	510 W. Foster St.	127 N. Appleton St.
Vereuter, Philip	1103 N. Division St.	605 W. College Ave.
Wankey & Miller Tavern	205 W. College Ave.	205 W. College Ave.
Werner, Uno	819 W. Commercial St.	1123 N. Mason St.
Wettengel, Charles	535 W. College Ave.	535 W. College Ave.
Winter, Michael	732 W. College Ave.	732 W. College Ave.
Zuehlke, Marilyn V.	611 W. 3rd St.	343 W. College Ave.

June 16, 17, 18 — 1938

CARL J. BECKER, City Clerk

Waupaca Mayor Maps New Plan to Handle Transient Relief

Waupaca — A new plan for handling penniless transients, is to go into effect immediately, according to a statement Friday by Mayor Irvin Erickson. Whereas in the past plan, transient relief has necessitated great expenditure, the new arrangement will minimize the expense by the issuance of tickets in the hands of Chief of Police Paul Jones. Each transient will be allowed one night's lodging in the city lockup inces.

There is no such country as Holgerland. The official name for the diked-in land which has one of the world's greatest colonial empires is The Netherlands. Holland is the name of one of its provinces. The city lockup inces.

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS FOR LICENSES

Notice is hereby given that the following applications for Class B Licenses to deal in intoxicating liquor have been filed with the Town Clerk of Ellington:

Name	Address	Location of premises to be licensed
Frederick Buchman	R. 1, Hortonville, Wis.	S. E. N. W. Sec. 30, Lot 1 and 2, Block 2
Hugo Schultes	R. 1, Hortonville, Wis.	Village Plat, Lot 6, Block 7, Village Plat
Henry Erke	R. 1, Hortonville, Wis.	Village Plat

D. M. BREITRICK, Town Clerk of Ellington

June 16, 17, 18

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS FOR LICENSES

Notice is hereby given that the following applications for Class B Licenses to deal in intoxicating liquor have been filed with the City Clerk of Appleton:

Name	Address	Location of Premises to be licensed
Acker, George Sr.	825 W. Fifth St.	614 W. College Ave.
Ashauer, Jake & Mike		812 S. Oneida St.
Becher, Ed.	1200 S. Oneida St.	1200 S. Oneida St.
Becher, Elmer John	217 W. Pacific St.	1428 W. Second St.
Brigg's Hotel	118 E. Washington St.	118 E. Washington St.
Calmes, Fred N.	1413 N. Meade St.	720 E. Wisconsin Ave.
Calmes & Rechner		117 S. Appleton St.
Conway Management Co.		123 N. Oneida St.
DeWall, Elmer	322 W. Commercial St.	404 N. Appleton St.
Eggert, Clarence	317 N. Bates St.	733 W. College Ave.
Eiehring, Henry	148 S. Walter Ave.	148 S. Walter Ave.
Gamsky, Jack	311 S. Walnut St.	231 S. Walnut St.
Garvey, William	321 W. College Ave.	321 W. College Ave.
Gassner, John Sr.	414 N. Appleton St.	414 N. Appleton St.
Gerrits, John	111 E. College Ave.	111 E. College Ave.
Giesen, Albert	217 W. Pacific St.	619 W. College Ave.
Helmuth, Peter	313 E. College Ave.	313 E. College Ave.
Hoffengartner, Jacob	516 W. College Ave.	516 W. College Ave.
Houle, Ira	1248 E. Wisconsin Ave.	118 S. Walnut St.
Jens, A. T.	1525 S. Outagamie St.	117 N. Appleton St.
Johnston, Elmer	719 N. State St.	702 E. Wisconsin Ave.
Kamps, Ralph W.	802 W. Prospect Ave.	109 E. College Ave.
Kaufman, Glenn W.	R.R. No. 4 Appleton	117 S. State St.
Kellett, Leonard	322 E. College Ave.	322 E. College Ave.
Kerrigan, Harry	1215 W. Winnebago St.	221 N. Appleton St.
Klimko, R. L.	1525 W. Washington St.	1525 W. Second St.
Koehnle, Anton A.	712 W. Packard St.	501 N. Richmond St.
Mader, Charles	301 S. Walnut St.	301 S. Walnut St.
Maritime Tavern		336 W. Wisconsin Ave.
Mauer, Edward J.	515 S. Walnut St.	332 W. College Ave.
McGinnis, Earl	325 W. College Ave.	325 W. College Ave.
Houle, Effie	524 W. Lawrence St.	627 W. College Ave.
Nennig, Peter	127 S. Walnut St.	127 S. Walnut St.
Oudenhoven, George C.	223 E. College Ave.	223 E. College Ave.
Pruetz, Herman	509 N. Appleton St.	509 N. Appleton St.
Rankin, John B.	1315 N. Superior St.	334-6 W. College Ave.
Reek, John H.	600 W. College Ave.	600 W. College Ave.
Schaefer, George	1608 S. Lawe St.	1330 S. Oneida St.
Schneider, Frank	1216 N. Morrison St.	326 W. College Ave.
Schwarz, Ignatius	127 S. State St.	116 S. State St.
Sheerin, Clifford	300 W. College Ave.	300 W. College Ave.
Stark, Raymond	517 N. Mason St.	317 N. Appleton St.
Strutz, Maurice	906 S. Oneida St.	306 S. Oneida St.
Thies, Alvin B.	811 E. Brewster St.	333 W. College Ave.
Tornow, Wm.	205 W. College Ave.	123 W. College Ave.
Trass, Peter	308 N. Richmond St.	208 N. Richmond St.
Ulrich, Hazel	301 N. Appleton St.	301 N. Appleton St.
Vander Linden, Alvin	523 W. College Ave.	523 W. College Ave.
Van Roy, Peter & Howard	314 E. College Ave.	314 E. College Ave.
Verbrick, Edward H.	510 W. Foster St.	127 N. Appleton St.
Vereuter, Philip	1103 N. Division St.	605 W. College Ave.
Wankey & Miller Tavern	205 W. College Ave.	205 W. College Ave.
Werner, Uno	819 W. Commercial St.	1123 N. Mason St.
Wettengel, Charles	535 W. College Ave.	535 W. College Ave.
Winter, Michael	732 W. College Ave.	732 W. College Ave.
Zuehlke, Marilyn V.	611 W. 3rd St.	343 W. College Ave.

June 16, 17, 18 — 1938

CARL J. BECKER, City Clerk

NOTICE OF APPLICATIONS FOR LICENSES

Notice is hereby given that the following applications for Class A Licenses to deal in intoxicating liquor have been filed with the City Clerk of Appleton:

Name	Address	Location of premises to be licensed
Court, John	1320 S. Outagamie St.	114 N. Oneida St.
Ford Hopkins Drug Co.	118 W. College Ave.	118 W. College Ave.
Pankuch, A. J.	1518 N. Drew St.	345 W. College Ave.
West End Beer Depot	728 W. College Ave.	728 W. College Ave.

June 16, 17, 18 — 1938

CARL J. BECKER, City Clerk

She will always be happy with a General Electric in her kitchen

WISCONSIN MICHIGAN POWER CO.

APPLETON POST-CRESCENT

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY, BY THE POST PUBLISHING COMPANY, APPLETON, WIS.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT APPLETON, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

ANDREW B. TURNBULL, President
VICTOR L. McNAHAN, Editor
HORACE L. DAVIS, General Manager
JOHN R. RIEDEL, Managing Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: Delivered by carrier to city and suburban subscribers for twenty cents a week, or $10.40 a year in advance. By mail, in Wisconsin, one month $1.50, three months $4.50, six months $8.00, one year $14.00 in advance. By mail, outside of Wisconsin, one month $1.75, three months $5.25, six months $9.00, one year $16.00 in advance.

MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The A. P. is exclusively entitled to the use of publication of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

Audit Bureau of Circulation
Circulation Guaranteed

TWO CONGRESSES

The adjournment of our congress with the compliments of the President for "its constructive legislation" and the usual claims by interests that are bound to conflict concerning the good or evil of what has transpired are all before us.

We may spare ourselves the undecidable argument concerning the program just turned out in order to look at another congress and its problems, the parliament of England.

While we were debating floors and ceilings and expecting them to stand without walls; and urging utilities to be built at public expense but expecting those already built to spend their money like drunken sailors; and giving the public moneys to businesses that are so unsound they cannot obtain a loan through regular channels but expecting those from whom they will take business to hire more men, the English parliament was considering a much more practical problem, that of defending its people from surprise death in the next war, heralded as a war that will come without warning since men have abandoned the old practice of making declarations of their purposes.

Sir Samuel Hoare, Home Secretary, declared repeatedly that there were several main dangers against which the prevailing administration at London was taking precautions. First of all, there was the devastating danger of the high explosive bomb. When this bomb is mixed with incendiary bomb pandemonium is bound to break loose. There is no such thing with all the fire departments in the world of putting out conflagrations started by chemicals spattered in every direction from a sufficient number of incendiary bombs. But fires bring street confusions. And then high explosive bombs do their deadly work.

All of which is to say that an attack upon a city in the modern sense drives the people from their homes with fire and destroys them with shell.

The Home Secretary stressed the fact that the government was firm in its determination in adhering to the policy of dispersal and its unwavering hostility to the concentration of large numbers of people in certain given spots. A careful survey of London's open spaces reveal, said the right Honorable gentleman, that there was room for caves or sheltered trenches to accommodate about a million and a half people. But of course that was not adequate because the metropolis of England has about six times that population. Since but seven or eight minutes generally elapse between the warning of impending doom and the explosion of high explosive projectiles it is necessary that shelters be put that far away from those who are assigned to them.

Comparing the records in our congress and the British parliament on prevailing questions before each one may be struck by the fact that England faces great danger because she is so closely connected geographically with a breeding place of war and that we who are so fortunately located in respect to that danger abandon practical plans for our internal safety that England of necessity must successfully execute and spend a lot of our legislative time wasting or risking the welfare of the advantages heaven has given us.

PUNISHMENT FOR SPIES

Germany and Russia are two countries that impose the death penalty on their own nationals for espionage in peacetime.

Just recently the Reich executed a married couple after their conviction of the offense of treason based upon military espionage. As is customary in such circumstances at Berlin the details of the crime were concealed just as the trial was secret but this official announcement was made:

"The delinquents had come in touch with a foreign power's intelligence service beyond the German borders and had soon willingly agreed to its espionage proposals. For more than two years, lately by automobile, they made extensive spying trips through Germany regularly reporting the results to their employer."

At Berlin newspaper correspondents write that it is assumed the foreign power that employed these people was Poland. The Countess Wipoliska, employed by Warsaw, was sentenced to life imprisonment some time ago but will, it is expected, be exchanged for German spies caught in Poland.

The infliction of the death penalty in peacetime makes spying all the more dangerous and must have an inflationary effect upon the wages. It would seem that so long as all European nations participate in this sort of activity on a widespread scale there should be a little co-operation concerning penalties, and therefore wages and exchange privileges.

Business that exists so generally everywhere on a great continent should be reduced to the usual control that results when a recognition of true conditions takes place. It is surprising that the Germans who have a passion for efficiency disregard its fundamentals in so important an affair.

THE CIO BECOMES "OH! I SEE"

The only surprising thing about the blowup in the United Automobile Workers is that it was so long delayed in coming.

President Martin's statement that political affiliation had nothing to do with firing the leaders but that "I do not intend to see the auto union used as a tool to assist or comfort any alien dictatorships" has a significance that could hardly be missed even upon the dull.

The CIO welcomed all the Red brethren to its bosom after it opened its campaign of action.

It was warned that the Red can destroy but that he cannot build. It was cautioned that a true Red, a genuine Communist, is an irresponsible person of such mental instability that he can not carry any designated plan of action to completion.

But the temptation to Mr. Lewis and his cohorts was too great. The Reds had deep voices and as deep lungs. They loved the exhibitionism of carrying banners, clinching fists, hurling insults and posing as martyrs. And such actors have a certain value in all the rough and tumble of labor organization methods as approved by Mr. Lewis.

Now the painful lesson is brought home. It is a physical and mental impossibility for these Reds to cooperate with anyone for long over anything unless their leader wields the knout or handles a gun. And this is not said in particular criticism of the Reds. They are born that way. The most careful scrutiny will not reveal a genuine or consistent worker among them. For they cannot work excepting as hunger or showmanship makes temporary labor advisable.

Neither do they understand the American labor movement. The idea of contracts, of honor, of faithfulness to agreements by whomsoever deliberately enters into such pacts, is clear over their head. One might as well be talking Hindu to them.

They want noise, disruption. Homes, families, steady employment and all the other marks of American life are as bitter as wormwood to their taste.

Mr. Lewis knew better than to have anything to do with them. But even experienced men will hope against hope and wish for the impossible.

MR. ECCLES TALKS STRAIGHT LANGUAGE

Marriner S. Eccles, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, has certainly done the country a service by his forthright criticism of the banking authorities of the national government. Moreover, his recently published letter to Senator Vandenberg of Michigan is something of a lesson in honesty.

Mr. Eccles knows—which the people generally do not know—that those at the head of the various banking departments of the United States have pursued a wholly hostile and antagonistic policy toward one another. For apparent political purposes someone like Mr. Jones of RFC will lash the banks for not loaning money more generously in their communities. Mr. Eccles knows that the banks could produce written proof to demonstrate beyond the sketchiest argument that bank examiners have been telling them they are too liberal and criticizing them for making the very loans other powers in the administration have been demanding.

"One of our greatest needs," said Mr. Eccles, "is to permit banks to invest in the securities of local enterprises." This declaration was made in response to the request of the Michigan senator who urged "an authentic statement" be given the public from the federal reserve board to offset "the substantial attack upon the American monetary system" resulting in part from the attitude of bank examiners in turning thumbs down on all local issues, however sound, however proven, however desirable.

Of course this isn't the first time in our history when the general public was treated as a bunch of stupid to be pulled around by the nose.

But there have been sufficient rumblings because of the seriousness of the situation to indicate that banks might even go so far as to publish the written declarations of bank examiners to indicate how far the administration itself is to blame for what it calls "frozen credit."

The Antwerp printing house of Christopher Plantin, one of the earliest printers in Europe, is a museum now and you can enter it and find its presses, worksheds and offices exactly as they were in the 16th century.

Most tourists forget that the Romans occupied England for more than 300 years, yet every time he uses the abbreviations for English money the Englishman is under Roman influence. It stands for "librum" (pound), for "solidus" (shilling), and d. for "denarius" (penny).

THE contribution department is a blankety-blank blank so you'll have to put up with thoughts gathered from hither and yon with no particular point or coherence. I have often admired Jonah, your regular correspondent, for his ability to talk about nothing in an entertaining way. Nothing, as you know, is something but something can't be nothing.

Jonah has a right nice article accompanied by candid snapshots in a current camera magazine. I like his reference to the little woman as a "dark room widow." Photography, good and my kind, has become so popular that you never know when you're going to be caught lunging into a three-decker sandwich or talking to that blonde down on the corner.

Wonder how Blon De is doing? ... Looks like we'll have to move south for the summer. I liked that crack about there being a time when blation was just a misprint of another word for soup. ... Flash—A New York "cabbie" wants to repay money received while on relief. ...

a woman went down
the street this way trying to window shop and drive
at the same time.

Incident: Company had come and all were seated at the dinner table. A lull came in the conversation and the host's 3-year-old daughter burst out with "Sit up straight." Like runners at the crack of the starter's gun, all stiffened and then a wave of laughter spread among the guests to the relief of the confused mother.

Fishing laws and regulations can be justified but it seems such a shame when a person lands a nice 17-inch fish to find that it is an inch shy of the minimum length.

— or is it?
Trying my hand at poetry
Is just for the sake of variety.
I could say this
Or I could say that,
But I would be only be Talking through my hat.
STOO

A Verse for Today

By Anne Campbell

THE BUDDING ACTOR

Last year our budding actor went to the rehearsals, saying
He had a small part but he meant
To do it well. ... The braying
Of a proud donkey was the part
That claimed his histrionic art.

The year before, I asked him what Great role had been assigned him.
He told me that his part was not
In print, and so to find him
I went back stage, as is my wont,
And found him playing a pig's grunt.

This year he played a big black bear,
And danced, and in so doing,
Upset a table standing there!
The art he is pursuing
Is long and arduous all through!
Next spring they may let him say "Boo!"
(Copyright, 1938)

Looking Backward

10 YEARS AGO

Saturday, June 16, 1928

More than 700 delegates and visitors were expected to attend the fifty-seventh annual convention of Wisconsin Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, at Appleton Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The membership of the Y. M. C. A. was 1,407, including 894 men and 513 boys, the largest number ever attained.

Final arrangements for the Neenah Boys' Brigade annual camp at Onaway island had been made. Officers at the camp that year were to be S. F. Shattuck, Leo Schubert, Waldemar Olson, Lyal Stimp and Maranus Toepel. Ole Jorgensen was to have charge of athletic activities.

At the final spring meeting of the Men's club of the First Congregational church, Herbert H. Heblie was elected president; Ralph J. Watts, vice president; Silas Krueger, secretary; C. E. Foreman, treasurer.

25 YEARS AGO

Saturday, June 21, 1913

Dr. H. B. Tanner, Kaukauna, arrived home from his sugar plantation in Mexico after being on the road nearly a month.

Roland Miller, who was attending college at Urbana, Ill., arrived home to spend the summer with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Sherman and daughters, Marie and Margaret, and George Utz, left for Milwaukee where they were to join the Wisconsin Bankers association on a trip to the South and Georgian Bay.

At a recent horse racing circuit meeting a new circuit was formed here was to insure better races at the county fairs in the future. The new circuit comprise Appleton, De Pere, Plymouth and Oshkosh. Secretary Daniel Steinberg had just closed a contract with the Belmont sisters, parachute jumpers, for the fair the following September.

Until recent times there was a Jewish colony in Kaifeng in Honan province, China, the Jews having apparently come to China during the Han dynasty, soon after 34 A.D.

A climatic solar calendar suitable for the valley of the lower Yellow River in China was compiled about 1000 B.C. and continues to be used by the farmers throughout that area.

The first Roman Catholic missionary in China was John da Montevarino, an Italian Franciscan, who arrived in Peiping in 1294 during the reign of Timur Khan, grandson of Kublai Khan.

The family name of the English royal house was changed from Wettin to Windsor July 17, 1917.

COULD THAT BE THE REASON THE GROCERY BILLS HAVE BEEN SO HIGH LATELY?

Personal Health Talks

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.
Noted Physician and Author

FIRST AID FOR ACIDITY

The most important thing to do for a gas attack or for hyperacidity of the stomach or for both is to keep cool. It may be uncomfortable, to be sure, but it is never dangerous and the worst effects from a "gas attack" are those induced by worry or fear. That formation of gas or accumulation of an excess of air (swallowed) in the stomach can seriously embarrass the action of the heart is a morbid fancy that has no foundation. But I concede that anxiety concerning such a happening or fear that it will happen in YOUR case, even if it has never happened to any ordinary mortal, can make you pretty sick. There is no denying that people do faint from fear or vomit from some shocking sight or pale with pain or flush with joy. Why shouldn't the heart action react to anxiety or worry?

Class B neurotics, even some Class A neurotics, often reproach me for my teaching that there is no such state as nerve exhaustion or nerve strain recognized in physiology or pathology. They call me hardboiled, heartless, utterly devoid of the finer attributes of a real doctor. In reply I offer the newly revised Little Lesson No. 15 "Nerves and Nutrition" for only twenty cents, if you send with your letter a stamped envelope bearing your address—envelope not less than 3 1/2 by 5 1/2 inches, a three-cent stamp.

Now that you have learned how important it is to keep cool, the next thing to do about hyperacidity, with or without "gas," is to find out whether it is hyperchlorhydria (excessive secretion of the natural hydrochloric acid in the stomach) or excessive formation of lactic and butyric acid from fermentation of carbohydrate food (starch or sugar) retained undigested too long in the stomach—perhaps retained too long because of a deficiency of the normal hydrochloric acid secretion and retardation of digestion.

Of course taking alkalis will neutralize and temporarily relieve excessive acidity of either type, but the diet and other remedial measures likely to help hyperchlorhydria is not likely to help the hyperacidity of fermentation.

If it is hyperchlorhydria, then a third step is to determine whether it is the hyperchlorhydria of the to-beccoism—which is indistinguishable clinically from that of gastric or duodenal ulcer in many cases. The way to settle this question in any case is simple: If you chew or smoke or take snuff, quit. It takes at least three months of abstinence to find out whether the hyperchlorhydria was caused by the damage done the autonomic nervous system by tobacco. It takes perhaps three days to eliminate all tobacco from the system. So don't deceive yourself.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Midnight Earache
What home treatment would you recommend for acute earache in the middle of the night when a doctor is not available? (O. M. B.)
Answer—Hot mustard foot bath, and ear drops of glycerin as warm as the patient will bear, or better, if available, a solution of 20 grains of antipyrin in the ounce of glycerin.

Soda Destroys Vitamins

Would a teaspoonful of soda in a cup of sour milk kill the vitamin B in whole wheat bread? (B. H.)

Answer—Probably a considerable portion of it. Send stamped envelope bearing your address and ask for monograph "Wheat to Eat" which contains suggestions for effective use of plain wheat in the daily diet.

Psoriasis
Some time ago you told of a new treatment for psoriasis. I have it and would like to get a copy of your article if I can. (D. C.)
Answer—Send twenty-five cent coin and a stamped envelope bearing your address, for 80-page booklet "Save Your Skin." It describes the massive dose vitamin D treatment for the silvery scale disease, also gives practical information on care of skin troubles, complexion, cosmetics.
(Copyright, 1938)

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writers' names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, 285 El Camino, South, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Your Birthday

"GEMINI"

If June 19 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:15 a. m. to 12:15 p. m., from 2:15 to 4:15 p. m., and from 7:15 to 9:15 p. m. The danger periods are from 8:15 to 10:15 a. m.; from 5:15 to 7:15 p. m. and from 9:15 to 11:15 p. m.

It will be decidedly unwise this day to assume another person's authority. Personal prerogatives will be zealously guarded, and any infringement of them is apt to be resented. You may find ample evidence of the day ends, that your friends have had some very amusing unique experiences. People as a whole will be in an exceptional good humor, with a propensity to indulge in jokes at their friends' expense. Should you be one of the victims accept their jests good naturedly. Be slow in ridiculing anything or anybody this day, otherwise you may invite trouble. It perhaps will be well to make only reasonable requests this day, and refrain from being too insistent that they be granted. Married and engaged couples, and those contemplating matrimony, must not allow false pride to get the better of their common sense, if they wish this to be a harmonious day.

If a woman and June 19 is your birthday, you probably will have a very large circle of acquaintances, but comparatively few intimate friends. Although you are fully capable of fighting your own battles the chances are you will have someone to fight them for you. You might impress people who meet you for the first time as being pleasure-loving, but those who learn to know you apparently will discover that you have an intellectual depth that you did not dream you possessed. As a trained nurse, artist, newspaper woman, real estate or insurance agent or singer you might make a fortune and a long-remembered name. You seem destined to have a very happy married life.

The child born on June 19, has so much determination sometimes, that it is mistaken for stubbornness. This youngster is likely to have some well-defined ambition which is evidently worthy of encouragement.

If a man and June 19 is your natal day, you are apt to be very conservative, progressive and aggressive. Through politics, the pulpit, theatrical work, writing or selling you may be able to save money and win a fine reputation.

Successful People Born on June 19:
Sam Walter Foss, poet.
Charles W. Dabney, educator.
William Henry Webb, ship-builder.
Elbert Hubbard, author and editor.
Charles C. Everett, clergyman and author.
(Copyright, 1938)

Seen And Heard In New York

BY GEORGE TUCKER

New York—Notes on the Big Town, jotted here and there on a round-up:

Manhattan has many fascinating drinks, but the most intriguing now being purveyed are (a) Roman Smile, (b) The Dagger, (c) the Royal Romance, and (d) Tahitian Punch.

Bob Burns is on a shopping spree. ... He bought 16 blue shirts his first day in New York. ... Bob's name sticks with you, doesn't it?

You never have to ask him what it is. Lum Fong is another. ... Mr. Fong is one of Manhattan's most noted restaurateurs.

Dorothea Lawrence reports seeing this dual feature on the marquee of a Jersey City theater: Battle of Broadway

Nurse from Brooklyn
Alfred W. McCann, the food commentator, likes to take photographic heigars, his best feat being a complete photographic record of the Alaskan salmon run.

Walter Fleischmann, writing from Hollywood, says New York is soon to have a glimpse of that strenuous Latin game, jai-alai, which will be introduced here by Anthony Quinn, the actor who looks like Valentino. ... The similarity is so noticeable that Paramount will remake "The Sheik" with Quinn in the Valentino role.

Miriam Hopkins, blond and sassy is back in town. ... Erin O'Brien Moore, back from a week's whirl of the Providence playhouse, is off for Maine, where she will guest-star for six weeks at leading summer theaters. ... It will be interesting to analyze Professor Ferde Grofe's musical interpretation of the Kentucky Derby after it blossoms into sonata form. ... In it he will attempt to depict the subtlety of a mint julep. ...

Personal note to Lorayne McCune, Iowa City, Iowa: Don't worry, Honey, I'll write you a story about Alexander Gray. ... Recommended: The dazzling ice show in the Summer Terrace at the New Yorker.

For our better-late-than-never dept.: Yesterday Charles Atlas, the strong man, was hurrying down Seventh avenue. ... "And whither in such a rush, Mr. Atlas?" ... There's a movie I missed and it's being reshown at one of the neighborhood houses," he confessed. "I want to catch up on my cinema."

"Which movie is that?" I inquired.
"One I missed, he replied. "One I missed when I was a boy—The Birth of a Nation."
Which reminds me that this picture really is around. ... It's still being shown, and making money.

A Bystander In Washington

BY PRESTON GROVER

Washington—Skilled politicians matched their talents against the White House amateurs in the Iowa campaign and won one of the tippiest battles of the season.

It is noised about in these parts that a cluster of political youngsters led by 35-year-old Tommy Corcoran have put their noggin together to "purge" the Senate, and perhaps the House, of members who have not been too joyous in support of the New Deal program.

Notable among the so-called "elimination committee" besides Corcoran are Harry Hopkins, WPA administrator; Joseph B. Keenan, assistant attorney general; Ben Cohen, associate of Corcoran in White House advising, and Jimmy Roosevelt. Sometimes Secretary Ickes is included because he put his foot successfully in the Oregon primary, although he is hardly a political "youngster."

In Full Cry
Yet of this cluster not one has whetted his horns in active battle for elective political office. Nevertheless, they boldly entered the Iowa primary. Hopkins and Jimmy Roosevelt expressed friendliness toward Rep. Otha Wearin as a candidate for the senate. Wearin had boasted that he had supported and would support more New Deal legislation than anyone else in the primary. Against him was Senator Gillette, who, like Wearin, had floated into Congress in 1932 after the Roosevelt wave. But he had taken time out to express his independence and to vote against the court bill.

Barely had Hopkins voiced his simple words of encouragement to Wearin than the professionals in congress took after him. Probably if Hopkins could have met them blow for blow on the senate floor he would have come off a bit better because he is no Singer midget when it comes to exchanging verbs and adjectives.

But he couldn't, and by the time such an expert as Senator Wheeler of Montana had finished with him, Hopkins was publicized the country round as one who had prostituted relief for politics.

Only very recently Hopkins had sent circulars far and wide advising WPA workers that they didn't have to turn to anybody when voting time came. When, at the time top of the WPA organization spoke a word in favor of a candidate the expert politicians would see nothing than that he had been the first to violate the presumptive purport of his earlier message, which was to keep politics out of WPA.

Now, Children
It was shrewd political workings on the part of the professionals and before it was over the senate came within a finger length of passing a measure which would have outlawed political activity by WPA. Coming right after Hopkins' outburst, it would have been considered a senatorial vote of censure by all those who chose to consider it—and in these times of hot-fought primaries there are many who would choose.

One never knows what these Corcoranites may be up to next but the decisive defeat administered to Wearin after their first important venture into the big national game could be discouraging, no end.

There are many who would say that President Roosevelt had no hand in the Iowa affair, but so close to the "elimination committee" that he could hardly escape some of the disadvantageous flaresback. It would not be surprising now if he grinned wryly at his boys, and then told them not to play with fire so flippantly.

Supper-Bridge Party Is Given at Seymour

Seymour—Mrs. M. Monroe and Mrs. William Allen were hostesses to 28 women at the supper followed by auction bridge at the home of the former on Wednesday evening.

Honors were won by Mrs. R. T. Jones, Mrs. Harold Olson, and Miss Kathleen Stam.

The Ladies Aid society of the Evangelical church held its regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon with 22 members present. A committee was appointed to arrange for an ice cream social in the near future. Members are as follows: Mrs. W. Haese, Mrs. E. Wiese, Mrs. W. Scherff, Mrs. F. Huth, and Mrs. R. Sherman.

Mrs. Harrison Smith and Mrs. Harold Olson entertained at a 6:30 luncheon and bridge at the Falk hotel on Thursday evening. Five prizes were contract were in play with prizes won by Mrs. I. Hansen, Miss K. Stam and Mrs. B. Siebert. Mrs. Siebert was the out-of-town guest from Green Bay.

An important meeting of the Seymour Game Protective association will be held at the city hall at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

The Guild of the Methodist church will hold a plunkett dinner at 1 o'clock Thursday. It will be limited to 80 persons.

The Men's Glee club octet from North Central college, Naperville, Ill., will present a concert at the Seymour Evangelical church at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening.

The acting, of course, is dated, but the battle scenes make you cry.

Marc Cronelly is a sort of sentimental producer. ... All of his productions have a nostalgic twang, as witness the great and glorious "Green Pastures," later his "Having Wonderful Time," and now he has come along with "Two Bouquets." It seems to this observer that this last selection is a genuine hazard. It is quaintly Victorian, and musicals of that sort have a habit of languishing in Manhattan.

Valley Council Boy Scouts Pitch Shelters at Neenah Park for Annual Camporee

Neenah—Scouts, big ones, little ones, tenderfoot, eagles, and all variations between are attending the ninth annual valley council camporee at Riverside park this weekend. They arrived Friday, coming by truck, bus, automobile and even by bicycle and on foot. With them they brought materials of various kinds to build shelters to protect them from the weather over the weekend.

The patrol shelters varied from regulation tents to lean-tos of boughs and paper tents. Along with them the scouts brought exhibits of handicraft and woodcraft which will be judged for patrol and troop rating today.

Some of the late arrivals Friday were handicapped by darkness as they attempted to set up their tents. Troop No. 41, Combined Locks, came away without sufficient tents, but Wesley Olson, scoutmaster of troop No. 9, Menasha, came to their aid and helped them establish camp while the night was getting darker.

Paper tents in various forms were popular. Included in the advocates of paper tents were troop No. 48, Brillion, sponsored by St. Mary church; Troop No. 21, Clintonville, sponsored by the Methodist church; troop No. 16, Appleton, sponsored by All Saints Episcopal church; troop No. 9, Menasha, sponsored by the Wooden Ware; troop No. 4, Appleton, sponsored by the American Legion; and troop No. 43, Neenah, sponsored by the First Methodist Episcopal church.

The Cobra patrol of Troop 16, Appleton, had a huge paper tent designed similar to an Indian hut made with the tent trunks of young saplings. The paper tents of troop 43, Neenah, were built on the order of small doghouses but were very neat and compact, each holding two boys. R. M. Billings, scoutmaster of Troop 43, said that the paper was waterproof and could be made into water-proof and water for two days.

Troop No. 4, Appleton, also had paper tents of the doghouse variety. Troop No. 1, sponsored by St. Joseph church, Appleton had a number of open air shelters and lean-tos. The boys had a roof of cedar branches over their heads and little else. Troop No. 29, Menasha, built a birch entrance at its plot of ground. Troop No. 45, Neenah, had a rustic fence also with rustic wash stand.

SCOUTS SLEEP IN VARIETY OF SHELTERS AT ANNUAL CAMPOREE

Neenah—Although sleep may not be important to the valley council boy scouts attending the ninth annual jamboree at Riverside park, all of them had shelters of various types ranging from regular tents to little more than a roof of boughs overhead. Scouts of the Flaming Arrow branch in case of rain—for their protection. The sides were entirely open providing free access to mosquitoes. Shown in the left picture in the center and jutting outward on the west side will be the diving section which will be 60 feet long and 28 feet wide. The main section will have a graduating depth of from three feet at one end to 5 feet 6 inches in the center and then to three feet at the other end. In the diving section, the pool will be 12 feet around the edges and rising to eight feet at the center.

New Schedules to Be Adopted at 2 Menasha Churches

Changes Hours of St. Thomas and St. Patrick Services

Menasha—The summer schedule of services will be inaugurated Sunday morning in St. Thomas Episcopal church, according to the Rev. A. Chambers, rector, as holy communion is celebrated at 8:30. On the second, fourth and fifth Sundays of each month, morning prayer and communion will be held at 8:30, on the first and third Sundays, holy communion will be celebrated, and in addition, on the second and fourth Sundays, holy communion will be celebrated at 7:30 in the morning, during the summer.

A change of schedule in the hours of mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church has been announced. Masses will be said Sunday morning at 5:30, 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30 and 10:30. The children's mass is at 9:30. St. Patrick's choir will sing at the field mass for the scouts at Riverside park at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. Marvin Kiser of St. Patrick's church parish, accompanied by G. W. Unser, St. Mary's parish, will direct the choir.

The first Sunday after Trinity will be observed in Trinity Lutheran church at the 8:45 German and 1 o'clock English services Sunday morning. The Rev. Paul G. Bergmann, pastor, will preach a sermon on "Misericordia Lazarus".

A special congregation meeting will be held following the 10 o'clock service, Missionary Circle will meet Thursday afternoon, Sunday, June 26, the annual church picnic and outdoor service will be held in Menasha park.

Father's day will be observed in First Congregational church Sunday morning at the 10:45 worship hour. The Rev. W. A. Jacobs, pastor, will present a sermon on the topic, "A Letter to Dad." The choir will sing "O Mighty God" by A. Wooler and Mrs. F. M. Le Fevre will sing a solo, "The Lord is My Light" by F. Allitson.

A regular meeting of the board of trustees will be held Monday, June 27, at 8 o'clock. Reports of the work of the church and societies during the first six months of the year will be made.

Picnic is Planned Sunday school groups will hold the last sessions until fall Sunday, June 26. Beginning Sunday, July 3, the worship service will be held at 9:30 each Sunday morning during the summer. The annual Sunday school and church picnic will be held at Menasha park Saturday, June 9. A special program is being planned.

Masses at St. John's Catholic church will be celebrated at 5:45, 7:30 and 10 o'clock Sunday morning. At St. Mary's Catholic church, masses will be celebrated at 6 o'clock, 7:15, 8:30, 9:45, and 11:15 Sunday morning.

Neenah Society

Junior American Legion auxiliary will hold a winter social at Kimberly point at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. Plans will be made for attendance at the spring conference at Princeton. Juniors will bring individual meals and winners. The hostesses are Mrs. Fred Martin, Mrs. Ray Vanderwalker, Mrs. Fred Robinson, Mrs. A. Pluger and Mrs. O. B. Pratt.

Twin City club will hold a covered dish picnic luncheon at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Neenah-Menasha Y. W. C. A. Members may bring a guest. Mrs. Clara Knudsen and Mrs. Hans Rasmussen will be hostesses.

First Evangelical church congregation will meet at 7:30 Monday evening in the church.

Twin City Births

A son was born Friday night to Mr. and Mrs. Leo Suchodolski, 813 Clark street, Menasha, at Theda Clinic hospital.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Richardson, Niagara Falls, Canada, Friday, Mr. Richardson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richardson, 413 Pine street, Neenah.

Garage Permit

Neenah—A permit was granted this morning to Gust Backman, 130 Mayer street, to erect a garage at a cost of $200. The permit was issued by John Blenker, assistant city building inspector.

Tenderfoot Scouts Duped in Stunts Staged at First Camporee Campfire

Neenah—Tenderfoot scouts became just a bit suspicious Friday evening at the council campfire which officially opened the ninth annual camporee of the valley council at Riverside park. Stunts for the campfire program were offered by troops of the council but after three or four of them in succession had used the hapless tenderfoot as a dupe, the tenderfoot scouts just sat back and said, "Oh, no, we won't bite any more."

The camporee opened Friday afternoon with registration of the troops and patrols and setting-up of the camp. Some of the lads received permits to leave camp and went swimming at the municipal beach after they had their tents up.

The program Friday night around the campfire opened with songs, led by Walter Dixon, Appleton, valley scout executive. The scouts shouted loud enough to be heard across the river and in Menasha.

The program at the camp fire included various stunts. Five lads from troop No. 48, Brillion, put on a flivver stunt while Dick Hoehne gave a demonstration of twirling and Russell Toms sang a song. Both boys are members of troop No. 20, Kaukauna.

Scouts of troop No. 1, Appleton, built a human pyramid four ranks high which went tumbling as soon as the fourth row was in place. They also started the procession of tricks on the tenderfoot scouts. Troop No. 31, Kaukauna; Troop No. 19, Kimberly; and Troop No. 11, Appleton, continued the fun at the expense of the new scouts.

Clifford Meifert of troop No. 35, Shawano, gave some imitations; Don LeFevre, troop No. 40, Shawano, played several accordion selections and led the whole group singing. A large number of parents and visitors was included in the crowd of several hundred around the campfire.

Present Square Dance Scouts of troop No. 29, Menasha, Elks lodge, did a variation of the square dance while Miles Hewitt played the accordion. Some of the lads wore dresses and were graceful no end. Lavonne and Emory Parker of troop No. 43, Neenah, played two guitars and sang. Bob Deegs, troop No. 48, Appleton, gave

Sonnenberg Gives Report at Flood Control Hearing

Supervisor Presents Findings of Sewage Plant Superintendent

Menasha—E. G. Sonnenberg, third ward supervisor, presented a report of J. M. Holdreby, superintendent of the Neenah-Menasha sewage disposal plant, at the hearing called by the government on flood control of the Wolf and Fox river waters Friday morning at Oshkosh. The meeting was attended by a large number of the Twin City supervisors of the county board as well as other citizens.

Mr. Holdreby's report claimed that a 12 billion cubic foot increase in flow in the Fox river during July, August and September would reduce operating costs at the sewage disposal plant from $8,000 to $10,000 a year.

The hearing was conducted by Lieutenant Colonel W. H. Holcombe of the district war department engineers' office at Milwaukee. The reservoir plan of flood control calls for the development of huge natural basins at the North Lily site in Langlade county and the Leeman site between Shawano and Shiocton. The war department had previously made an adverse report on the reservoir plan.

The brief filed by the Fox-Wolf Conservation and Improvement association covered the proposed construction of the reservoirs at an estimated cost of $93,000 with a total storage capacity of more than nine billion cubic feet of water. Neenah, Menasha, Appleton, Kimberly, Little Chute, Combined Locks, Kaukauna, DePere, New London, Oshkosh and Fond du Lac are members of the association.

Benefits claimed by the association include flood control at New London; reclamation of 5,600 acres of land along the lower Wolf; increase in the low flow in the lower Fox during the summer season; improvement of sanitation and water supply on the lower Fox.

Visitors Will be Greeted Sunday at Brigader's Camp

Sailboating Has Become Most Popular Sport At Onaway

Neenah—Sunday will be visitors' day at Onaway island where the Neenah Boys' Brigade are camping, according to information received today from Stanley Menning, public agent, Menning said, "We want all you parents and friends to visit us and if you bring your own picnic lunches, your boy can eat with you by securing permission from Captain Lyle Syllip."

Sailboating has become the most popular sport at camp this year, according to Menning. In the races Friday, section 2 competed in the morning. In the first race Dick Hanselman's craft took first place, and Werner Fahl was second with Kester Redlin third, while Kenneth Redding was fourth. In the second race in the morning, Dan Kuehl took first place, and Robert Erdman won second with Jack Renner third and Lynn Werner fourth.

In the afternoon races, Donald Erdman was first in the initial contest, while Arthur Jackson was second, and Harold Borenz was third with Donald Bentzen's craft crossing the line in last place. Carl Krause copped the second race, and Kenneth Redding was second with Lyle Lillier talking third and Jack Meyer winning fourth.

The Menominees have scored the most points so far in tribal games, while the Oneidas are second, the Blackfeet third and the Winnebagoes fourth. In Friday morning's games, the Menominees under Chief Jackson won both the junior and senior division baseball games from H. Jacobson's Winnebagoes. In volleyball, the Oneida senior team won from the Blackfeet, but the Blackfeet junior team defeated the Oneida juniors. Harold Borenz is chief of the Oneidas and Melvin Blank is chief of the Blackfeet.

In tent inspection, tent No. 15 and tent No. 4 tied for first place. Kenneth Redlin is the leader in No. 15 and Charles Bart leads No. 4. Harland Hesselman's tent No. 6 was second, and Lynn Werner's tent No. 12 was third.

Camp Stages Show The entire camp went to the Soldier's Home at Waupaca to stage a show. A band concert preceded the show and the "rube band", under the direction of Gilbert Neff, assisted. The presentation took the place of a camp fire last night.

The Rev. W. R. Courtenay gave a talk on "Being Champions" following vester services in the evening. Because of the continued cold weather, swimming was shirked by the boys, but one Brigadier, Donald Haertl, passed the 75-yard swimming test and will be able to swim on the deep side, leaving only 15 boys restricted to the shallow side. Frank Fadner, local photographer, took a picture of the entire camp Friday.

Ridgeway Golfers to Play at Clintonville

Menasha—Ridgeway Golf club members will go to Clintonville Sunday morning to play a return match with the Clintonville golfers. The Ridgeway team scored a 56 to 16 victory in the first match of the season at Ridgeway course on June 5. Twenty-two players participated in that match with Jim Grode shooting the low score.

A. V. Club Members Visit Industrial Girls 'Y' Camp

Neenah—Nine members of the A. V. club of the Twin City Y. W. C. A. spent Thursday at the industrial girls camp of the "Y" at the Meyer cottage near Waverly to take part in the activities and meet Miss Luz Ayala, Mexico city, who is spending two weeks at the Girl Reserve camp of the "Y" at Camp Hilwa near Saxeville. A. V. girls at the camp Thursday were Alice Herne, Josephine Verboom, Ruth Dingledein, Gladys Statton, Ethel Statton, Martha Lichtfus, Estelle Krejci, Marion Adler and Mrs. Marcia Long.

The camp will continue through next week closing Sunday afternoon, June 26. Miss Laura Huber, general secretary of the "Y" who is camp hostess stated today that there is room for two or three additional campers and any employed girl is invited to share in the camp.

Miss Ayala will spend one week in the Green Bay association as international counselor after she leaves the local "Y" camp. This is the first visit of Miss Ayala to the United States.

Miss Huber stated that Mexico City is one of two cities in Mexico at which time there is operating now a Y. W. C. A. association functioning as part of the world-wide Y. W. C. A. One of the outstanding phases of the Y work is to build for greater understanding between races and nationalities in order that prejudice may be done away with and opinions may be based on real understanding.

"The local Y considers it very fortunate that its members may come to know Mexican girls and women through one of their representatives," Miss Huber stated. "The younger girls as well as business and industrial girls and members of the Y who have had the opportunity to meet with Miss Ayala, are learning more of home life in Mexico and what Mexican girls do in their Y activities."

Donors, City Officials Approve Revised Plans For Neenah Pool, Beach

Neenah—The two donors, the council committee on parks and public buildings, Mayor Edwin A. Kalfahs and City Clerk H. S. Zemlock at a meeting Friday afternoon, tentatively approved the revised plans for the $100,000 swimming pool and beach, and the plans will be submitted to the council for its approval at a session tonight at the city hall.

The principal change in the original plans was in the Olympic style swimming pool which will be composed of two sections. The main section will be 165 feet long and 42 feet 6 inches wide. In about the center and jutting outward on the west side will be the diving section which will be 60 feet long and 28 feet wide. The main section will have a graduating depth of from three feet at one end to 5 feet 6 inches in the center and then to three feet at the other end. In the diving section, the pool will be 12 feet around the edges and rising to eight feet at the center.

The original plans called for only one section 165 feet long and 50 feet wide with a graduated depth of from three feet at one end to 12 feet at the other.

4 Spring Boards The purpose of the change, it was explained, is to accommodate a larger number of people in the main pool and still offer adequate diving facilities. The plans showed four spring boards. The depth and size of the main section, however, are sufficient for swimming and can be used for racing, tournaments and various water sports.

Another change planned is the transferring of the children's wading pool from a location northeast of the pool as was recorded in the original plan to a location in conjunction with the women's bath house. The pool which will be 30 feet long and 20 feet wide will be on the extreme north end of the bath house.

One of the main features of the revised plans is a community house which can be used throughout the year. It was pointed out at the meeting that building of the community house would depend upon the council's approval.

Community Building On the first floor of the proposed community building will be a department for women and one for girls, while on the second floor there will be a section for men and a lounge for boys. The community building will be at the main entrance, the southwest.

The main entrance will divide the women's and men's bath houses, the former extending north along the west side of the pool and the latter extending east along the south side of the pool. There will be an office where patrons will purchase their tickets and a concession stand at the entrance.

The women's bath house will have more than 40 semi-closed apartments, the majority of the dressing stalls will be open. All of the stalls in the men's section will be open-air. In each house there will be showers, foot baths, toilets and checking service. The basket system will be used for checking clothes. It will be arranged that the patrons will have to pass through foot baths and showers before they can enter the pool. The scenery which will be on top of the women's bath house will comprise three sections and will seat a large crowd of people. It will face the large swimming pool.

2 Types of Showers In both bath houses there will be two types of showers, called "dry" and "wet" showers. The "dry" showers will be used by those persons not intending to swim, while the "wet" showers will be used by the swimmers.

The social center room or community room will be on the second floor of the community house. It will be 62 feet long and 29 feet wide with a section 20 feet long and 10 feet wide jutting out from one end. There will be a fireplace and kitchen and other conveniences.

Although the pools will be concrete, it has not been stipulated what kind of material will be used to build the bath houses. Members of the council committee at the meeting were Aldermen Edward Schultz, chairman Emil C. Harder, Andrew Andersen, Ole Jorgensen, Neenah High school coach and physical education director and supervisor of the municipal bathing beach, also was at the meeting. William Alderman of the Thomas Talmadge architectural firm, Chicago, was present.

Menasha Society

Menasha—Women's Catholic Order of Foresters, St. Patrick's court, will meet at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in Twin City Y.W.C.A. Mrs. Earl Garfield will be chairman of the committee in charge.

Plans for the church school picnic are nearing completion, according to the Rev. A. A. Chambers, rector of St. Thomas Episcopal church, and the date is set for Sunday, June 26. The picnic which is held annually at the Boy Scout cabin across the lake will be featured by an outdoor service in the morning. Cars will transport the children from the parish house to the cabin at 10 o'clock. The outdoor service is planned for 11 o'clock.

Menasha Women's Benefit association will hold a semi-monthly meeting at 8 o'clock Monday evening in the Knights of Columbus rooms.

Miss Angeline Nadelny, Chicago, Ill., is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Nadelny, Appleton road. Mrs. Arthur St. Louis, Detroit, Mich., another daughter of the Mike Nadelny family, is spending the summer months with her parents.

Miss Margaret Robinson will entertain members of the London Bridge club Monday evening at her home on First street.

Plans for a summer picnic were discussed at the St. Patrick's Sanctuary society meeting Friday evening in the school hall. Details for the afternoon and evening card party Monday at the school hall were also completed.

Plans for a picnic and a pilgrimage to the Odd Fellows home in Green Bay in August were discussed at the Betty Rebekah meeting Friday in the Odd Fellows hall. There will be no meetings during July and August. Mrs. Ruth Larson was chairman of the hostess committee and Mrs. Edna Koller was in charge of a memorial service.

The last of a series of card parties given by the Sanctuary society of St. Patrick's Catholic church will be held Monday afternoon and evening in the school hall. Mrs. C. W. Nelson and Mrs. C. A. Peerenboom will be chairmen of the committee in charge.

First Playground Dance of Season to Be Held at Pavilion

Neenah—The first playground dance of the season will be held at Riverside park pavilion from 8 o'clock until 11 Tuesday night. The dance will be under the supervision of the playground leaders.

The first playground tournament of the season will get underway Monday, Mrs. Florence K. Oberreich, girls' director, reported today. Both girls and boys will compete in the washer tournament in the various divisions, including those 16 and under, 14 and under, 12 and under.

The finals for the city championship will be played at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Green park for the boys and at Washington park for the girls. Helen Strobel and Mrs. Oberreich will be in charge of the girls' tournament. Miss Strobel will be at the Doty park on Monday, the Green on Tuesday, Washington park on Wednesday and Thursday and Doty park on Friday, while Miss Oberreich will be at the playgrounds in the evenings and Monday and Friday afternoon as she conducts the arts and crafts classes on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the Kimberly school manual training room.

The girls' director will be at the Green on Monday evenings, Doty park Tuesday, the Green Wednesday and Doty park on Thursday and Friday at Washington. Gordon Alberts will be in charge of the boys' tournament at Washington park, while George Johnson will be at the Green with Carl Blank at Doty park.

The Menominees have scored the most points so far in tribal games, while the Oneidas are second, the Blackfeet third and the Winnebagoes fourth. In Friday morning's games, the Menominees under Chief Jackson won both the junior and senior division baseball games from H. Jacobson's Winnebagoes. In volleyball, the Oneida senior team won from the Blackfeet, but the Blackfeet junior team defeated the Oneida juniors. Harold Borenz is chief of the Oneidas and Melvin Blank is chief of the Blackfeet.

In tent inspection, tent No. 15 and tent No. 4 tied for first place. Kenneth Redlin is the leader in No. 15 and Charles Bart leads No. 4. Harland Hesselman's tent No. 6 was second, and Lynn Werner's tent No. 12 was third.

Camp Stages Show The entire camp went to the Soldier's Home at Waupaca to stage a show. A band concert preceded the show and the "rube band", under the direction of Gilbert Neff, assisted. The presentation took the place of a camp fire last night.

The Rev. W. R. Courtenay gave a talk on "Being Champions" following vester services in the evening. Because of the continued cold weather, swimming was shirked by the boys, but one Brigadier, Donald Haertl, passed the 75-yard swimming test and will be able to swim on the deep side, leaving only 15 boys restricted to the shallow side. Frank Fadner, local photographer, took a picture of the entire camp Friday.

Ridgeway Golfers to Play at Clintonville

Menasha—Ridgeway Golf club members will go to Clintonville Sunday morning to play a return match with the Clintonville golfers. The Ridgeway team scored a 56 to 16 victory in the first match of the season at Ridgeway course on June 5. Twenty-two players participated in that match with Jim Grode shooting the low score.

A. V. Club Members Visit Industrial Girls 'Y' Camp

Neenah—Nine members of the A. V. club of the Twin City Y. W. C. A. spent Thursday at the industrial girls camp of the "Y" at the Meyer cottage near Waverly to take part in the activities and meet Miss Luz Ayala, Mexico city, who is spending two weeks at the Girl Reserve camp of the "Y" at Camp Hilwa near Saxeville. A. V. girls at the camp Thursday were Alice Herne, Josephine Verboom, Ruth Dingledein, Gladys Statton, Ethel Statton, Martha Lichtfus, Estelle Krejci, Marion Adler and Mrs. Marcia Long.

The camp will continue through next week closing Sunday afternoon, June 26. Miss Laura Huber, general secretary of the "Y" who is camp hostess stated today that there is room for two or three additional campers and any employed girl is invited to share in the camp.

Miss Ayala will spend one week in the Green Bay association as international counselor after she leaves the local "Y" camp. This is the first visit of Miss Ayala to the United States.

Miss Huber stated that Mexico City is one of two cities in Mexico at which time there is operating now a Y. W. C. A. association functioning as part of the world-wide Y. W. C. A. One of the outstanding phases of the Y work is to build for greater understanding between races and nationalities in order that prejudice may be done away with and opinions may be based on real understanding.

"The local Y considers it very fortunate that its members may come to know Mexican girls and women through one of their representatives," Miss Huber stated. "The younger girls as well as business and industrial girls and members of the Y who have had the opportunity to meet with Miss Ayala, are learning more of home life in Mexico and what Mexican girls do in their Y activities."

Plans for a picnic and a pilgrimage to the Odd Fellows home in Green Bay in August were discussed at the Betty Rebekah meeting Friday in the Odd Fellows hall. There will be no meetings during July and August. Mrs. Ruth Larson was chairman of the hostess committee and Mrs. Edna Koller was in charge of a memorial service.

The last of a series of card parties given by the Sanctuary society of St. Patrick's Catholic church will be held Monday afternoon and evening in the school hall. Mrs. C. W. Nelson and Mrs. C. A. Peerenboom will be chairmen of the committee in charge.

Merchants Will Oppose Falcons

League Game Is Scheduled For 10 O'clock Sunday Morning

Neenah—Orville Schultz or Russell Menning will get the mound assignment when the Neenah Merchants oppose the Menasha Falcons at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at Washington park diamond, while George Kosloski who hurled a no-hit game for the Falcons last Sunday against Grand Chute probably will start for Menasha.

The game originally was scheduled for Sunday afternoon. Although they were defeated last Sunday by the Oshkosh Cubs, the Merchants have a chance of tying the Cubs for the first half championship. They have to score victories over the Falcons and Little Chute on the following weekend.

Ed Gullickson, Neenah outfielder who was injured during a practice game this week, will be off the injured list tomorrow and will start in the center garden. Fahrkrug will be in the right field and Haufe in left field.

Ken Handler will start at second base, while Manager Bill Handler will be at the initial sack. Gartzke will cover third base with Gamney at short stop, and Christofferson will catch.

The Falcons line-up will be as follows: Nadelny, short stop; F. Kosloski, first base; J. Kosloski, second base; Pawlowski, third base; H. Kosloski, catcher; Dombroski, center field; Omarchinski, left field; and Shelski, right field.

Building Inspector Adopts Office Hours

Menasha—H. O. Haugh, city health officer, has announced that he will be at his office in the fire station from 9:30 in the morning to 12 o'clock noon and from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon to attend to his duties as city building inspector. Mr. Haugh was named building inspector by the council at its meeting Tuesday and Friday took over the books and records of the office from A. E. McMahon, city engineer, who resigned from the position.

Mr. Haugh will issue building permits and also inspect buildings to see that they comply with building regulations. The telephone number of the health officer and building inspector is 612.

Bishop Sturtevant Will Confirm Menasha Class

Menasha—The regular canonical visitation of the Rev. Harwood Sturtevant, bishop of the Fond du Lac diocese, is planned for Sept. 11, according to an announcement made today by the Rev. A. A. Chambers, rector of St. Thomas Episcopal church. The bishop will administer the rite of confirmation during his visit. All adults and young people desirous of being confirmed have been asked to contact the Rev. Mr. Chambers in order that classes of instructions may be organized during the summer.

REPAINT TRUCK

Menasha—The city garbage truck has been removed from service this week and will be given a new white coat of paint at Oshkosh, according to H. O. Haugh, city health officer. The body will be removed from the truck and the old paint will be turned off before the new is applied and based on. Rubbers will be collected on Wednesday as usual, using collected trucks, according to Mr. Haugh. Collection will be made in the second district which includes Water street and the area north to, but not including, Second street.

The Twin Cities office of the Appleton Post-Crescent for its editorial, circulation and advertising departments is located at 510 N. Commercial street and the telephone number is 4100. News items, copy or orders for advertising and orders for subscriptions may be left at the office or may be telephoned. This number also may be called before 7 o'clock in the evening for delivery of papers missed by carriers in Neenah or Menasha.

Jedwabny Again Officer Of Utilities Association

Marshfield—D. E. S. Cary, Evansville, was elected to the presidency of the Wisconsin Municipal Utilities association at the close of the organization's annual convention here yesterday. He succeeds W. C. Stauffer of Manitowish. The association named Neal B. Vthayer, Elkhorn, vice president, re-elected John Jedwabny, Menasha, secretary-treasurer, and voted to hold its 1939 convention at Plymouth.

Churchmen to Attend Session at Oshkosh

Neenah—The Neenah Trinity Lutheran church will be represented at a meeting of the Northern Wisconsin district and Wisconsin Synod meeting at Grand Lutheran church, Oshkosh, June 20 through 24 by the Rev. E. C. Reim, pastor; the Rev. Amos Schwenner, assistant pastor; William Hellerman, principal of the Trinity Lutheran school; and Walter Kuehl.

Menasha Personals

Miss Margaret Kennedy and Miss Genevieve Liebi are visiting for a week in Escanaba, Mich.

NEW TROOP MEMBERS Menasha—Two additional youths have registered for membership in Troop 14 at Menasha. They are Duane Gear and Hugh Geibel.

Be A Safe Driver

ANNOUNCING
24 HOUR SERVICE
AT MASON'S
Phillip's "66" Service Station
509 N. Commercial St., Neenah
General Tire - Exide Batteries

Rx 46

FEET SORE?

For hot, sore, tender, itchy, SWEATY FEET and ATHLETE'S FOOT

Rx 46

"At Your Druggist"

Sheboygan Pastor To Speak Sunday At Neenah Church

Ministers Will Exchange Pulpits for Services

Neenah—The Rev. George B. McCreary, Sheboygan, the choir and organist of his church, will be in charge of the 10:30 morning worship service in St. Paul's English Lutheran church Sunday morning. There will be no 8:50 Sunday morning matins. The Rev. Samuel H. Roth, pastor of St. Paul's church, Miss Gladys Michaelson, organist, and about 35 members of the church will be in charge of the service of the Rev. Mr. McCreary's church at Sheboygan. Sunday, June 26, the annual picnic. Beginning with Sunday, July 3, the summer schedule of services will go in effect with services at 7:30 and 9 o'clock each Sunday morning.

The Rev. G. Peterson, Oshkosh, again will preach the sermon at the 10:45 morning worship services in Our Saviour's Lutheran church. Sunday school will meet at 9:30.

The summer schedule of services will begin Sunday morning in Trinity Lutheran church as English service is held at 8 o'clock and German at 9:15. Holy communion will be celebrated at both services.

Catholic Services

Masses will be celebrated at 5:30, 7:30 and 10 o'clock Sunday morning in St. Margaret Mary Catholic church.

The Spirit of God and the World Outreach of Christianity will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Carl F. Zietlow, pastor, at the 10:30 morning worship service Sunday in First Evangelical church. Sunday school will meet at 9:30 Sunday morning. The religious vacation school continues for another week at the church. A congregation meeting will be held at 7:30 Monday evening.

The Rev. E. C. Kollath, pastor of Immanuel Lutheran church will present a sermon on "Poverty at the Gate of Wealth" at the 10:30 English service Sunday morning. The special choir will be in charge of special anthems. Sunday school will be held at 9:30. The Brotherhood members will be entertained at luncheon Sunday noon at the Gust Strohmeier farm in the town of Neenah after which a social afternoon is planned.

Young People to Meet

Whiting Memorial Baptist church will hold the morning worship service at 10:40 Sunday morning with the Rev. W. L. Harms, pastor, conducting the service. The choir will present special music. Sunday school meets at 9:30. The young people will meet at 6 o'clock Sunday evening. Miss Ruth Johnson will be leader. The weekly prayer meeting will be at 7:30 Thursday evening with Bible study on verses beginning with the letter N.

"Life that is Boundless" will be the topic of Sunday morning worship service at the Rev. Walter R. Courtney, pastor, at 10:30 Sunday morning in First Presbyterian church. The quartet will sing "Fear Not, O Israel" by Max Spicker and "Bless the Lord, O My Soul" by Ippolito-Ivanoff.

The chorus choir will meet for practice at 7 o'clock Thursday evening. Friend's class of the church will hold a picnic supper at 5:30 Friday evening in Riverside park.

"Is the Universe, Including Man, evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the lecture topic at the morning service in First Church of Christ, Scientist. A midweek meeting will be held Wednesday evening.

The afternoon Sunday school of First Fundamental church of Neenah will meet at 2:30 Sunday afternoon with the discussion topic, "The Suffering Servant." At 6:30 Sunday evening, both the junior and senior Young People's groups will meet to hear a talk by the Rev. Charles R. Polley.

Radio Rally

Sunday evening at the 7:30 hour, the Portage church of the air with its radio staff will conduct a radio rally directed by the pastor, the Rev. Charles R. Polley. Male quartets, trios, duets and solos as well as instrumental selections will mark the service. The group broadcast over WIEU from 3 o'clock to 3:45 each Sunday afternoon and from 2:30 to 3 o'clock each Tuesday.

At the midweek Bible study in First Fundamental church, the Rev. W. G. Wittenborn, pastor, will speak on the third chapter of Romans. "The whole world guilty before God" is the question he answered scripturally, "what happens on this earth during the millennial Reign of Christ."

At 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, the Ladies Prayer band will meet at the church for a missionary meeting at which time, the Rev. Chris Pappas, noted Chicago evangelist, will speak. The public has been invited to attend. The Rev. Mr. Pappas, son of a Greek Orthodox Catholic priest, is field director of the Cicero Fishermen's club. He is holding revival services from Sunday evening, June 19, to and including Tuesday evening, June 28, at the First Fundamental church of Oshkosh, of which the Rev. Mr. Wittenborn is also pastor.

Father's day will be observed at the First Methodist Episcopal church 9:30 Sunday morning worship hour in Masonic temple with the Rev. Henry Johnson, pastor, presenting a sermon on "Playing the Game of Life." A troop of Boy Scouts from the Riverside park Boy Scout camporee will be special guests at the service. The choir will sing "Praise Ye the Father" by Gounod. The Epworth League will hold an out-door meeting at 7:30 Sunday evening.

LANDS BIG FISH

Menasha — "Cute little rascal" is the way Roy Kuester describes the tiger muskellunge that he is shown holding above. He caught the fish below the dam in the Fox river at the Mill street bridge several days ago but needed the assistance of two other fishermen before he could land it. The fish weighed 38 1/2 pounds, was just a quarter-inch short of 4 feet long and was 2 1/2 inches around.

There's another one there, even bigger," Kuester says, "and I'm going to catch him too. Just watch and see." Other fishermen have corroborated the fact that there is another huge muskie in the waters around the dam.

Schedule Final Races In Pre-Season Series For Nodaway Members

Neenah — Final races in the pre-season series of the Neenah Nodaway Yacht club sailboat racing season will be sailed this weekend. There will be two races, one Saturday afternoon and the other Sunday afternoon. Crafts in all classes will race Saturday, while boats in all classes except Class A will compete Sunday.

Only one race was held last weekend, a sudden storm which upset several boats heading for the starting line having prevented Sunday's races from being run. As the result there will be only six races in the pre-season series.

The championship series will start next weekend with 15 races scheduled for the series—including two special races. One of the special races will be on July 4, while the other will be a race to Garlic Island on either July 24 or 30.

4-H Club Has Meeting At Black Creek Home

Black Creek — The Black Creek 4-H club held a meeting with Miss Marjorie Hartsborn, president, at the home of Mrs. Lyle Kurtz. Lunch was served following the business meeting. The July meeting will be held with Rita Huhn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Minkebeig, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Grimm, the Misses Beatrice Nettekoven and Laverne Hennies of Kaukauna, were guests at a covered dish supper Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nussbaum.

Miss Beryl Huhn of Eagle River spent two weeks at her home here. Mrs. Elmer Grimm, who advanced spent this week with her aunt, Mrs. Lyle Kurtz.

Six Reappointed to U. W. Athletic Board

Madison — Four faculty members and two alumni members of the University of Wisconsin Athletic board were reappointed by the board of regents Friday.

Walter J. Mehl, Wauwatosa, distance star of the Badger track team was named to succeed Charles "Chuck" Fenske, of West Allis, as student representative on the board.

The faculty members are Dr. William Lorenz, chairman; Dr. H. C. Bradley, Prof. Oliver Rundell and Prof. E. White. The alumni members are Dr. J. P. Dean, Madison, and Howard I. Potter, Chicago.

President Clarence A. Dykstra said the faculty committee believed the present board should be given another year to continue its work of reorganizing the athletic department.

Judge Heinemann to Hear Probate Cases

Ten probate cases will be heard in the county court of Judge Fred V. Heinemann on Tuesday, June 28. Cases are hearings on administration in the estates of Marie Franck and Emilie Miller, hearings on the will of Elizabeth Koffend and Hattie Rohrig, and hearings on sale of real estate of Fred Thompson, hearings on claims in the estates of Fred W. Ruscher, Sarah

Scouts Compete In Contests at Annual Camporee

Fire by Friction, Knot Tying and Water Boiling Events Conducted

Neenah—Competitive contests among patrols attending the ninth annual valley council boy scout camporee were conducted at Riverside park this morning in two divisions.

It took Dale Bergner of the Beaver patrol of troop No. 11, Appleton, just 50 seconds to produce flame by the fire by friction method. Other places in his division were Russell Hill, Indian patrol of troop No. 24, Clintonville, second; James DeShaney of the Moose patrol of troop No. 11, Appleton, third; Bob Stumpf of the Mohican patrol of troop No. 11, Appleton, fourth, and Charles Mack of the Mohican patrol of troop No. 30, Clintonville, fifth.

Fire Contest

Glen Vandehey of Rippling Water patrol of troop No. 31, Kaukauna, won the other division of the fire by friction contest with a time of 62 seconds. Roman Zimmerman, Owl patrol of troop No. 3, Menasha; Herb Merrill of Hawk patrol of troop No. 3, Menasha, and Tad Shepard also of the Hawk patrol of troop No. 3, Menasha, followed in that order. Robert Sireing of the Black Panther patrol of troop No. 27, New London, was fifth.

Dick Wynne and Arden Smith of the Black Panther patrol of troop No. 7, New London, went through the knot tying routine in one minute to win the division championship. Hogan Mathewson and James Kuehlman of the Flaming Arrow patrol, of troop No. 7, were second. Third place went to Lester Drumm and Ernest Thoys of the Beaver patrol of troop No. 12, Appleton. Harold Oik and Glenn Krause of Silver Fox patrol of troop No. 23, Clintonville, were fourth and J. Oik and Don Hogan of the Panther patrol of troop No. 30, Clintonville, were fifth.

Knot Tying

A time of one and one-quarter minutes gave Charles Mack and Orville Marquardt of the Mohican patrol of troop No. 30, Clintonville, first place in the other division in the knot tying contest. The other results were Ed Kerswill and Art Sauter of the Flying Eagle patrol of troop No. 11, Appleton, second; Gordon Munson and Joseph Guntz of the Moose patrol of troop No. 11, Appleton, third; Walter Friedland and Maurice Terrio of the Flying Eagle patrol of troop No. 14, Menasha, fourth, and Roman Zimmerman and Bill Spengler of the Owl patrol of troop No. 3, Menasha, fifth.

Both Divisions of the Water Boiling Contest

Both divisions of the water boiling contest were won with times of eight minutes. In this contest the team of two scouts kindles a fire and brings a can of water to a boil so that the water bubbles over the top. The water bubbles over the top of the can of water. The team of the Flying Eagle patrol of troop No. 11, Appleton, took first place in one division, while Ray Nagel and Ralph Mooney of the Wolf patrol of troop No. 20, Kaukauna, took first in the other.

Boil in 8 Minutes

In the first division Dick Flom and J. Merrill of the Viking patrol of troop No. 3, Menasha, were second; Billy Rulisch and George Zachow of the Silver Fox patrol of troop No. 23, Clintonville, third; Phil Bowers and Art Lorrige of the Wolf patrol of troop No. 26, Marion, fourth, and Tom Vette and Bill Knapp of Beaver patrol of troop No. 20, Kaukauna, were fifth.

In the other division Ed Kerswill and John Wiegand of the Flying Eagle patrol of troop No. 11, Appleton, were second. The other places included George Snow and John Stoeger, Jr., of the Moose patrol of troop No. 11, Appleton, third; Robert Bragg and Don Newton of the Bear patrol of troop No. 2, Appleton, fourth, and Charles Wagner and Norbert Vingling of the Otter patrol of troop No. 31, Kaukauna, fifth.

The Places of the winners will determine points towards the honor patrol awards to be made Sunday morning.

Elizabeth Carter, Edward Reitzner and Jilia Refke and hearing on final account in the estate of Henry J. Junge.

Ethel Seager, 180 Gruenwald avenue, Neenah, had her tonsils removed this morning at Theda Clark hospital.

DANCE

Sunday, June 19

RUBE'S WESTERNERS

LADIES FREE until 9:30 p.m.

After 9:30 Adm. 10c & 15c

LITTLE CHICAGO

TONIGHT

Chicken Lunch

Served — Beer 5c

Paul Koleno

"King of the Ivories"

Playing Nightly at

VAN'S BAR

(Opposite Rainbow)

ROAST CHICKEN

With All Trimmings

— Tonight —

2nd Anniversary

Celebration, Wed. June 22

Everybody Welcome!

Olive's Tavern

W. Wisconsin Ave.

LEGAL NOTICES

STATE OF WISCONSIN, COUNTY COURT, OUTAGAMIE COUNTY. In the matter of the estate of Elizabeth Koffend, deceased, in probate.

Pursuant to the order made in this matter by the county court for Outagamie county on the third day of June 1938.

Notice is hereby given that at a special term of said court to be held at the court house in the city of Appleton in said county, on Tuesday, the 11th day of July, 1938, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

Dated June 18, 1938.

By order of the Court, FRED V. HEINEMANN, Judge.

SIGMAN & SIGMAN, Attorneys, Appleton, Wisconsin. June 4-11-18

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Elmer W. Behrendt, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Main St., Lot 3, Block 35, Kimberly, Wis.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Harry Gerondale, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Cor. Main and Kimberly Ave., Lot 10, Block 35; Klashuis Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Andrew De Leeuw, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Lot 1, Block 35; Gov. Lot 1.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Henry Wynboom, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Kimberly Ave., Lot 2, Block 50, Hewitt Sub. Div. Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Joseph A. Coppens, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Main St., Lot 14, Block O, Village Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that all claims against the said Hilda Rohrig, deceased, late of the city of Appleton, in Outagamie county, Wisconsin, must be presented to said county court at the city of Appleton in said county, on or before the 17th day of October, 1938, or be barred; and that all such claims and demands will be examined and adjusted at a term of said court to be held at the court house in the city of Appleton, in said county, on Tuesday, the 10th day of October, 1938, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

Dated June 10th, 1938.

By order of the Court, FRED V. HEINEMANN, Judge.

FRANK P. WHEELER, Attorney, 709 Zuehlke Building, Appleton, Wisconsin. June 11-18-25

STATE OF WISCONSIN, COUNTY COURT, OUTAGAMIE COUNTY. In the matter of the estate of Hilda Rohrig, deceased, late of the city of Appleton, in said county, on or before the 17th day of October, 1938, or be barred; and that all such claims and demands will be examined and adjusted at a term of said court to be held at the court house in the city of Appleton, in said county, on Tuesday, the 10th day of October, 1938, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

Dated June 10th, 1938.

By order of the Court, FRED V. HEINEMANN, Judge.

FRANK P. WHEELER, Attorney, 709 Zuehlke Building, Appleton, Wisconsin. June 11-18-25

NOTICE is further given that all claims against the said Hilda Rohrig, deceased, late of the city of Appleton, in Outagamie county, Wisconsin, must be presented to said county court at the city of Appleton in said county, on or before the 17th day of October, 1938, or be barred; and that all such claims and demands will be examined and adjusted at a term of said court to be held at the court house in the city of Appleton, in said county, on Tuesday, the 10th day of October, 1938, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

Dated June 10th, 1938.

By order of the Court, FRED V. HEINEMANN, Judge.

FRANK P. WHEELER, Attorney, 709 Zuehlke Building, Appleton, Wisconsin. June 11-18-25

MUSIC and DANCING Tonight and Sunday Night — Presenting — The Valley Playboys

Featuring Singing Entertainment

CHICKEN LUNCH Served No Cover Charge

Under den Linden So. Side KAUKAUNA

South Side Tavern

So. Oneida & Fremont St.

ROAST CHICKEN, Sat. 25c

BONELESS PERCH 15c

FRIED CHICKEN . . . 35c

FROG LEGS . . . 25c

STEAK LUNCHES . . . 25c

T-BONE STEAKS . . . 35c

Served Daily 12 to 12 P.M.

BEER, large glass . . . 5c

WHISKEY, 2 yr. old . . . 10c

WINE, Popular Brands 5c

BARN DANCE

Given by Jos. A. Kohl, Contractor.

on the Leo Koepke farm, 4 miles north of Mackville. Turn west 1 1/2 mi. at Pleasant Dale School, or 2 mi. S. of Center Valley.

Tuesday, June 21

GOOD OLD TIME MUSIC Refreshments

Adm. Gents 25c Ladies 15c

For lots of fun and Whoopie come on out!

LEGAL NOTICES

Wisconsin, must be presented to said county court at the city of Appleton in said county, on or before the 17th day of October, 1938, or be barred; and that all such claims and demands will be examined and adjusted at a term of said court to be held at the court house in the city of Appleton in said county, on Tuesday, the 10th day of October, 1938, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

Dated June 18, 1938.

By order of the Court, FRED V. HEINEMANN, Judge.

SIGMAN & SIGMAN, Attorneys, Appleton, Wisconsin. June 4-11-18

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Elmer W. Behrendt, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Main St., Lot 3, Block 35, Kimberly, Wis.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Harry Gerondale, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Cor. Main and Kimberly Ave., Lot 10, Block 35; Klashuis Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Andrew De Leeuw, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Lot 1, Block 35; Gov. Lot 1.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Henry Wynboom, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Kimberly Ave., Lot 2, Block 50, Hewitt Sub. Div. Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Joseph A. Coppens, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Main St., Lot 14, Block O, Village Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Henry Wynboom, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Kimberly Ave., Lot 2, Block 50, Hewitt Sub. Div. Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

EGGERT'S BAR—733 W. College Ave.

If you haven't tried the good old fashion German Sauerbraten served every Thursday at this popular tavern you have certainly missed something. Excellent home cooking is also given to its Spring Chicken, Frog Legs and Fish Lunches served daily.

STARK'S HOTEL—317 N. Appleton St.

Recognized for many years as the home of fine foods, tasty, and appetizing cooking. Fried Spring Chicken, Boneless Perch, Sandwiches & Chili served daily with Roast Duck featured on the menu on Sat's. Also known at 6:00 P. M.

You Will Like — THE MARITIME TAVERN

336 W. WISCONSIN AVE. FOR . . .

FRIED CHICKEN

ROAST DUCK

ROAST TURKEY

LUNCHES — Served with all trimmings every SATURDAY NIGHT Starting at 6:00 P. M.

Try the Post-Crescent Classified Ads

Roast Chicken

TONIGHT

FRESH SHRIMP

Tenderloin Steak

Sandwiches

Served at all times

Fish Fry Every Fri.

BOOT'S BAR Highway 41 N. Side, Kimberly Road

Music Tonight by SWEDE & GOIK

BONELESS PERCH and FRENCH FRIES 10c Served Every Fri. Night

CHUTE INN

Pint St. Little Chute Syl. Warner

IRA'S BAR

116 So. Walnut St.

FRIED CHICKEN

Every Sat. Night

French Fries

Serving Starts 6:30 P. M.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Elmer W. Behrendt, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Main St., Lot 3, Block 35, Kimberly, Wis.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Harry Gerondale, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Cor. Main and Kimberly Ave., Lot 10, Block 35; Klashuis Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Andrew De Leeuw, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Lot 1, Block 35; Gov. Lot 1.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Henry Wynboom, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Kimberly Ave., Lot 2, Block 50, Hewitt Sub. Div. Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Joseph A. Coppens, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Main St., Lot 14, Block O, Village Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Henry Wynboom, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Kimberly Ave., Lot 2, Block 50, Hewitt Sub. Div. Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Kimberly, Wis.: Name—Joseph A. Coppens, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Main St., Lot 14, Block O, Village Plat.

PAUL A. LOCHSCHMIDT, Village Clerk of Kimberly, Wis. June 17-18-20

EGGERT'S BAR—733 W. College Ave.

If you haven't tried the good old fashion German Sauerbraten served every Thursday at this popular tavern you have certainly missed something. Excellent home cooking is also given to its Spring Chicken, Frog Legs and Fish Lunches served daily.

STARK'S HOTEL—317 N. Appleton St.

Recognized for many years as the home of fine foods, tasty, and appetizing cooking. Fried Spring Chicken, Boneless Perch, Sandwiches & Chili served daily with Roast Duck featured on the menu on Sat's. Also known at 6:00 P. M.

You Will Like — THE MARITIME TAVERN

336 W. WISCONSIN AVE. FOR . . .

FRIED CHICKEN

ROAST DUCK

ROAST TURKEY

LUNCHES — Served with all trimmings every SATURDAY NIGHT Starting at 6:00 P. M.

Try the Post-Crescent Classified Ads

Roast Chicken

TONIGHT

FRESH SHRIMP

Tenderloin Steak

Sandwiches

Served at all times

Fish Fry Every Fri.

BOOT'S BAR Highway 41 N. Side, Kimberly Road

Music Tonight by SWEDE & GOIK

BONELESS PERCH and FRENCH FRIES 10c Served Every Fri. Night

CHUTE INN

Pint St. Little Chute Syl. Warner

IRA'S BAR

116 So. Walnut St.

FRIED CHICKEN

Every Sat. Night

French Fries

Serving Starts 6:30 P. M.

LEGAL NOTICES

Final account, which account is now on file in said court, and for the allowance of debts or claims paid in good faith without filing or allowance as required by law, and for the assignment of the residue of the estate of said deceased to such persons as are by law entitled thereto; and for the determination and adjudication of the inheritance tax, if any, payable on said estate.

Dated June 2, 1938.

By order of the Court, FRED V. HEINEMANN, Judge.

LUDWIG S. GODFREY, Attorney for the Estate, 110 North Center, Appleton, Wisconsin. June 4-11-18

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the town clerk of Town of Dale: Name—Chas. Lecky, Address—Kimberly, Wis. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: Lot 7, Block 2, Leppia's Addition to the Village of Dale.

ADELINE SCHIESSER, Town Clerk of Dale. June 16-17-18

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the town clerk of Town of Dale: Name—Harry Perkins, Address—Medina, Wisconsin. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: On the NW corner of Section 25 in the town of Dale.

ADELINE SCHIESSER, Town Clerk of Dale. June 16-17-18

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR TAVERN LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the village clerk of Combined Locks: Name—Mrs. Henry Kamps, Address—Appleton, R. R. 1. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: On the NW corner of Section 25 in the town of Dale.

ADELINE SCHIESSER, Village Clerk of Combined Locks. June 16-17-18

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the town clerk of Town of Dale: Name—Raymond Haas, Address—Dale, Wisconsin. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: On the NW corner of Section 25 in the town of Dale.

ADELINE SCHIESSER, Town Clerk of Dale. June 16-17-18

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the town clerk of Town of Dale: Name—Firmen Holzschuh, Address—314 S. Outagamie, Appleton. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: On the NW corner of Section 25 in the town of Dale.

ADELINE SCHIESSER, Town Clerk of Dale. June 16-17-18

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE. Notice is hereby given that the following application for a license to deal in intoxicating liquor has been filed with the town clerk of Town of Dale: Name—Henry Seifert, Address—Dale, Wisconsin. Kind of license applied for: Class B. Location of premises to be licensed: On the NW corner of Section 25 in the town of Dale.

ADELINE SCHIESSER, Town Clerk of Dale. June 16-17-18

WHEREVER YOU GO — DEMAND BEER—That Is BEER

Walter's Eau Claire

Distributed by WEST END BEER DEPOT

728 W. College Ave. TEL. 3562

TAVERN and HOME DELIVERY SERVICE

Service in Neenah, Phone 341, Neenah Cash Store

Service in Menasha, Phone 5697, Ralph's Beer Depot

You will like the new Eau Claire

FAMILY STYLE PALE BEER — Available in Cases and G's

It's Different!

DANCE — Sunday, June 19

VAN'S VALLEY

Music by SPANISH NITE-N-GALES

Located on County Trunk E 4 Mi. N. of Freedom

JAKES TAVERN

516 W. College Ave.

CHICKEN LUNCH SATURDAY NIGHT 25c

Beer 5c—Card Parties Wed. and Sun. Nites. Lunches at all times.

For Your Information

Tavern, dancehall operators,

New London Man Marries Oshkosh Girl

THE marriage of Miss Marion LaFontaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank LaFontaine, Oshkosh, to Homer Churchill, New London, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Churchill, Clintonville, was solemnized at 8 o'clock Friday morning in a private ceremony at St. Mary's parsonage at Oshkosh by the Rev. William A. Ruel. Their attendants were the bride's sister, Miss Jean LaFontaine, and Harry Wells, New London, a cousin of the bridegroom.

A dinner was served at one o'clock at Mrs. Ruel's on Jackson drive, Oshkosh, to about 30 guests. During the afternoon, "open house" was held at the home of the bride's parents, 22 Winnie street, Oshkosh, where a buffet supper was served to relatives and friends. The young couple has left on a week's motor trip through northern Wisconsin and when they return will reside in New London, where Mr. Churchill is chief engineer at the plant of the Borden Milk company. Since Mr. Churchill's graduation from the Clintonville high school in 1933, he has been employed at the Borden plants in Clintonville and New London. His bride is a graduate of the Oshkosh high school.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Churchill, Clintonville; and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wells and family, New London.

Lecky-Buchanan
Miss Pearl Lecky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lecky, Dale, became the bride of Leonard Buchanan, Hortonville, in a ceremony performed at 2 o'clock this afternoon by the Rev. Victor Grosshuesch at Zion Reformed church, Dale. The attendants were Miss Charlotte Lecky, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and Miss Violetta Philippi, Harold Bock and Victor Behrend. Mrs. Ira Lecky of Appleton played the wedding march, and Lois Griswold and Marie Leppla sang "Because."

A reception at the home of the bride's parents was to follow the ceremony, and a 6 o'clock wedding dinner will be served to about 75 guests. A wedding dance will be given at the R. N. A. hall, Dale, in the evening. Relatives from Ada, Minn., Chicago, Neenah, Arkdale, Milwaukee, Appleton and Hortonville will be present.

Prahl-Zimmerman
At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon Miss Bernice Prahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Prahl, route 3, New London, will become Mrs. Ralph Zimmerman of Manawa in a ceremony at the parsonage of the Emanuel Lutheran church at New London. The bridegroom is the son of Charles Zimmerman of Eldon, Wis. The Rev. W. E. Panfili will perform the nuptial rites. Miss Dorothy Brown, Racine, will be bridesmaid for her cousin and Kenneth Prahl, brother of the bride, will be best man.

A wedding dance will be held at Bear Lake Sunday evening following a reception and dinner at the home of the bride's parents. After a several days' trip through northern Wisconsin the couple will make their home at Manawa, where Mr. Zimmerman is a painter. The bride was graduated from New London high school in 1936.

Geiser-Woelfel
The marriage of Miss Sylvia Geiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Geiser, Chilton, and Kenneth Woelfel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woelfel, Chilton, took place in St. Martin's Catholic church, town of Marlenshaw, at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Beatus Bauer. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Adela Geiser, as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Armelle Geiser, Claiette Garvers, Lucille Suttner and Marcella Seichter. The best man was Marcellus Woelfel, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Clem Geiser, Herbert Geiser and Roland Woelfel. A reception and wedding dinner were held at the home of the bride's parents, 150 guests being present. Mr. and Mrs. Woelfel will reside in Chilton.

Parties

Mrs. Rose Korte, welfare chairman of Harvey Pierre auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars, was hostess at a benefit card party last night at her home on route 2, Appleton. Twelve tables were in play and bridge prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charles Thompson and Mrs. A. W. Juhnlin, while schafkopf prizes went to Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Robert Olson, Ross Glascher, E. J. Schaefer and Mrs. E. Schaefer.

John J. Schaefer, Sugar Bush, was honored at a birthday party Friday night at his home. Games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Fred Radder, Miss M. E. Broer, Mrs. Irvin Huebner, Victor Krueger, Arlo Hintz Arthur Hintz. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Krueger and son, Victor, Mrs. August Zisch, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hilker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Witt, Mr. and Mrs. Al Nelson, Sugar Bush; Miss M. E. Broer, Mrs. Frank Gehrike, Clintonville; Mrs. and Mrs. George Pohlman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weber, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ashel, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cues, Appleton; Mr. and Mrs. John C. Minneapolis; Mrs. James Neilson, Robert J. Nelson, Bear Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steidle, Stephenville; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Radder, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hintz and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Anson and family, Mrs. Herman Conrad and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. August Gerks, New London; Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Huebner and family, Shiocton.

Mrs. Rose Belin, 828 W. Franklin street, entertained several friends at her home Thursday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary. Prizes at schafkopf were won by Mrs. Elsie Van Caster, first, and Mrs. Marie Berro, Friday.

Golf Takes Important Place in Summer Social Activities of Appleton, Vicinity

Picnic Ends Program of Bible School

FIRST Baptist church vacation school which has been in progress for the last two weeks closed its classes with a picnic Friday at the city park. Forty-five children and eight faculty members attended. The concluding service will be held Sunday morning at the children's day program at 10:45 in the church.

Teachers in the vacation school included Miss Mabel Gillespie, Mrs. Douglas Frommiller, Miss Alice Taylor, Mrs. Mary Payzant, the Rev. R. H. Spanzler, Mrs. A. R. Ends, Mrs. P. F. Stallman, Mrs. William Delrow.

Altar Guild of All Saints Episcopal church will hold a picnic at 6:30 Monday night at Pierce park, the last gathering of the group for the summer. A short business meeting will follow the supper. Mrs. C. B. Turner, Mrs. Herb Henke and Mrs. Walter Ochiltree will be in charge of arrangements.

Miss Janet Pullinwider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pullinwider, 837 E. Hancock street, and Miss Harriet Schlagenhauf, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Schlagenhauf, 319 N. Lawe street, plan to attend the thirteenth annual Epworth League institute to be held at the Brillion camping grounds 24 miles east of Forest Junction. The institute will open Monday and continue all next week, including classes, meetings and recreation.

Women's Christian Temperance Union members gathered at the grave of Mrs. John Graef in Riverside cemetery Friday afternoon for a ceremony in observance of flower mission day. Mrs. C. C. Nelson, president, spoke of Mrs. Graef's work for the union, the deceased having been superintendent of flower missions for 15 years. Mrs. Emma Hubbard, devotional leader, sang a solo and Miss Flora Kethroe read a poem, and the entire group sang several hymns. The graves of other deceased members were decorated as well as that of Mrs. Graef.

The ice cream social and star gazing party that was to have been given by the Evening circle of the Presbyterian Guild last Wednesday night and then postponed because of cloudy weather has been scheduled now for next Tuesday night, June 21.

One hundred twenty-five young people attended the dance given by Sons of the American Legion last night at the Legion club house. A program was presented by pupils of the Beverly Breinig school of the dance as follows: Toe dance, Lola Mae Riceles; rhythm tap, Bob Lemke; fencing tap, Mabel and Ruby Loose.

Mrs. J. Schreier and Mrs. M. Crow won schafkopf prizes, Mrs. P. Greene and Mrs. J. E. Hughes bridge awards and Mrs. K. Deml a special prize at the open card party given by Christian Mothers society of St. Mary church Friday afternoon at Columbia hall. Nine tables were in play and Mrs. George Culligan and Mrs. L. R. Schwarz were in charge. There will be another party next Friday.

Comes spring and a club is no longer just a bid in a bridge game to the golf-playing women of this community. It becomes the most important implement in their favorite sport, and they have been busy since May practicing their putting and driving. Taken at some of the first "ladies' days" of the season at North Shore, Riverview and Butte des Morts golf clubs, these pictures give proof of the popularity of the game. Learning the correct way to hold their clubs from Everett Leonard, pro at the Butte des Morts, the three young women in the picture at the upper left are Mrs. George Koepke, left, Miss Margaret Flank, center, and Mrs. Harold Zaag, right, the last of New London.

A group of North Shore Golf club women coming down a hill on their course is shown at the top center. Left to right, they are Mrs. Earl Wyman, Oshkosh, Mrs. Chester Shepard, Menasha, and Mrs. Morgan Davies, Oshkosh. Waiting their turn to tee off, the four Butte des Morts Golf club women resting on a bench at the upper right are, reading in the customary direction, Mrs. Fred Bendt, Mrs. Nick Engler, Mrs. Don Curtin of Kimberly and Mrs. Stephan Konz.

Mrs. R. A. Peterson, women's sports chairman at North Shore this year, and Mrs. Kenneth Dickinson, who won the prize for low net score at one of the ladies' day events at the club this month, are in the picture at the lower left. Mrs. H. A. Rothchild is shown putting on the Riverview Country club course in the picture at the lower center. The scene at the lower right also was taken at Riverview and shows, left to right, Mrs. L. A. Buchanan, Mrs. William Buchanan, Mrs. W. C. Wing and Mrs. James Whelan. (Post-Crescent Photos)

Miss Mary Mortimer and Robert Rusch To be Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

B LUE delphiniums and white candles will decorate the altar at which Miss Mary Mortimer, daughter of Mrs. Leila Mortimer, 315 N. Oneida street, and Robert Rusch, Glens Falls, N. Y., son of Mrs. Katherine Rusch, 607 E. Doty avenue, Neenah, will be married at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. William J. Spicer at All Saints Episcopal church.

The bride will be given in marriage by her brother Robert Mortimer, and preceding them to the altar will be the ushers, Carl Rusch, Neenah, and Willard Shibley, Chicago; the bridesmaids, Miss Mary Jane Sensenbrenner, Menasha, and Miss Esther Plant, Chicago; and the maid of honor, Miss Lucille Rusch, Neenah. It will be an all white wedding.

For a half hour before the ceremony, from 3:30 to 4, Mrs. Barbara Simmons Webster will present an organ program.

A small reception will be held at the Heathstone Tea room after the ceremony. Out-of-town guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Al Moss, Stevens Point; Willard Shibley and Miss Esther Plant, Chicago; and Miss Marjorie Wilson, Elmhurst, Ill.

Mr. Rusch and his bride will go through Canada on their wedding trip, stopping at Lake Placid and Laranas lake. After July 1 they will be at home at 66 Notre Dame street, Glens Falls, N. Y., where the bridegroom is employed by the International Paper company. Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Lawrence college, where the former became affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi sorority and the latter with Phi Delta Theta fraternity. Mr. Rusch also studied at the Institute of Paper Chemistry, where he was awarded his M. S. degree.

Craig-Wilson
A wedding of interest to central Waupaca county residents was that of Miss Jean Craig, daughter of W. F. Craig of Royallton, and Philip Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Wilson, Waupaca, who were married at the Methodist Episcopal church in Waupaca Friday afternoon by the Rev. Hugh Midall. The only attendants were the parents of the young couple.

After a short trip through the southern part of the state, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will be at home in Green Bay, where the bridegroom is employed by the Fairmont creamery. The bride graduated from Manawa high school in 1931, and from the Central State Teachers college at Stevens Point. She taught for two years at Little River and for the last four years has been in charge of the Little Wolf school.

Pidde-Hultman
The marriage of Miss Dorothy E. Pidde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Pidde, Manawa, and C. Albin Hultman, Milwaukee, son of Wash "washable" wall papers carefully. Make a heavy sand, using warm water and a mild soap. Apply the suds to the paper with a soft cloth. Quickly remove with a soft, clean cloth. Do not let the suds remain on the paper too long—it may loosen it.

Reservations Filled For First Camp Week

Reservations for the first week of camp at the Girl Scout camp at Onaway Island, Waupaca, have been filled completely and the girls scheduled to attend that week will leave next Friday. First week campers are to have their physical examination blanks at the Girl Scout office by Monday.

A new plan for handling luggage of the campers is being carried out this year. All luggage will be sent up to Onaway the day before the campers arrive. It must be brought to the Vocational school garage between 8 and 10 o'clock Thursday morning where Mrs. Dan Courtney of the camp committee will be present to receive it and check it.

President of Auxiliary to Attend Meet

MRS. PATRICK GERARDEN, president of Charles O. Baer auxiliary of United Spanish War Veterans, will be the only delegate from the local auxiliary to the annual state encampment of camps and auxiliaries at Eau Claire which opens Sunday for four days. From Charles O. Baer camp will go Mike Steinhauer, Louis Jeske on Monday and Aaron Zerbel and George Kloepfel on Tuesday.

Nine tables of cards were in play at the open card party given by Charles O. Baer auxiliary Friday night at the armory. Prizes at schafkopf were won by Mrs. Joseph Hassmann, Frank Lyons, Mrs. Kate Semel, Mrs. Cornelius Meyer and Mrs. Ida Miller at bridge by Mrs. Hugh Pomeroy, and at dice by Mrs. Aaron Zerbel and Mrs. Albert Beltz.

Pythian Sisters will have a pot-luck supper at 6 o'clock Monday night at Odd Fellow hall for members and their families. A flag day program will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Agnes Dean, and the supper chairman will be Mrs. Gilbert Trentlage.

Church Club to Meet at Werner Cottage Sunday

An outing at the E. V. Werner cottage at Shawano lake is planned by the Mr. and Mrs. club of First Congregational church for Sunday. Reservations have been received already for 48 persons. The group will leave Appleton at 1:45 and will have an outdoor picnic supper at the lake. Entertainment will consist of games, swimming and horse-back riding.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Application for a marriage license has been made at the office of John E. Hantschel, Outagamie county clerk, by Harvey W. Uecker, route 3, Black Creek, and Alice E. Affeldt, route 1, Sugarbush.

Be A Safe Driver

Teams To be Formed for Ladies' Day

PARTICIPANTS in the ladies' day golf program at North Shore Golf club Monday will be divided into two teams, the reds and the whites, and the losers will buy the luncheon for the winners. Co-golf chairmen for the day are two Green Bay women, Mrs. L. H. Joannes and Mrs. C. B. Rich. Mrs. Nathan Bergstrom, Neenah, will be bridge chairman for the day.

The club will have its first dinner-dance of the season tonight. Members of the Beta Alpha alumnae club and their husbands or men friends will be entertained at an all-day picnic Sunday at the summer cottage of Mrs. Roy Babcock, Neenah, on Point Comfort near Green Bay.

Two standing committees, program and good cheer, were appointed at the meeting of Appleton Girls club following a picnic supper Friday night at Appleton Woman's club. The program committee for next year includes Miss Theresa Sonntag, Miss Emma Pynn, Miss Vera Pynn, Miss Emma Schwandt and Miss Mabel Younger, and the good cheer committee consists of Miss Emma Pope and Miss Marie Ziegenhagen.

Thirty-one members attended the meeting which was the last until September. The supper committee included Miss Helen Schmidt, chairman; Mrs. Josephine Rahn, Miss Henrietta Seiler and Miss Minnie Thiesenhusen.

With the exception of a joint picnic with the Neenah Betsy Ross club sometime during the summer, there will be no more meetings of Betsy Ross club of J. T. Reeve circle. Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, until September, it was decided at the meeting of the club Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Laura Pierce, 805 W. Front street, Mrs. Hattie Miller and Mrs. Hugh Pomeroy were appointed to meet with the Neenah group to decide on a flag. A donation was made to the flag fund for the new Appleton high school at the meeting yesterday. A pot-luck supper followed the business session.

Several guests are expected to attend the Phi Mu alumnae picnic Monday night at the Dan Steinberg cottage at Shore Acres. They include Mrs. Einar Tangen, Mrs. G. Kubitz and Miss Esther Norris, Manitowoc; and Mrs. P. Peterson, Madison. A hot-dish supper will be served at 6 o'clock with Mrs. Ruth Kanouse in charge.

Celebrate Wedding Anniversary at Party

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Femal, 703 S. Story street, celebrated their twenty-fourth wedding anniversary last evening at Rainbow beach on Lake Winnebago. About 10 guests were present. Dancing and cards furnished entertainment.

Shower Is Given for Miss Selig

MISS MILDRED SELIG, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Selig, 1002 N. Durkee street, who will be married to Ervin Wiedenaupt, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wiedenaupt, Kimberly, June 25, was honored at a kitchen shower given by her sister, Miss Lauretta Selig, Friday night. Prizes at dice were won by Mrs. Harold Peterson, Miss Erna Boldt and Mrs. Fred Harko, Kimberly. Other guests were Mrs. Albert Selig, Jr., Mrs. Harvey Selig and the Misses Grace Wiedenaupt, Bernice Wiedenaupt, Adeline Selig and Anita Selig.

Mrs. Margaret Zapp, 1032 W. Lawrence street, and Miss Cora Maas, Little Chute, entertained about 30 guests at a pre-nuptial shower Thursday night at the former's home in honor of Miss Evelyn Vandenberg, who will be married next Saturday morning in St. Joseph's church to Jerome Zapp. Most of the guests were employees of the Pettibone-Peabody company, where the bride-to-be is employed. Prizes at cards were won by Mrs. Richard Lamers, Kimberly; Mrs. Robert Gallagher, Appleton; Mrs. Joe Clark, Green Bay; Mrs. Emma Pocan, Miss Maas and Mrs. Sylvester Vandenberg, Little Chute.

Miss Bernice Vogel, Chilton, was honored at a kitchen shower Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Luchterhand, Chilton, at which the latter and Mrs. L. D. McMunn were hostesses. Honor at five hundred went to Mrs. Frank Vogel and Mrs. George Vogel and at schafkopf to Miss Minnie Hertel and Miss Bernice Vogel. Others present were Mrs. Clarence Luchterhand, Mrs. Sylvester Vogel and Miss Lucille Noll.

Miss Charlotte Kauf, Chilton, was guest of honor at a pre-nuptial shower Wednesday night given by Miss Mary Katherine Hugo at her home in Chilton. Bridge was played and prizes won by Mrs. Norbert Sturm, Mrs. Vincent Reinkeber, Mrs. C. J. O'Donnell and Miss Jeanette Connell.

Haas-Stadler
Miss Bernadette Haas, Paris street, Menasha, and Charles Stadler, Neenah, were married at 8 o'clock this morning in St. Mary's Catholic church, Menasha, by the Rev. John Hummel. Miss Erna Haas was her sister's attendant and Norbert Millken attended for the immediate families. The wedding party left for the home of the bride after which the young couple left on a wedding trip. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Stadler will make their home at 523 1/2 Elm street, Menasha. Mr. Stadler is employed in the Kimberly-Clark corporation.

THE CREAM MILK

THE BOTTOM IS AS RICH AS THE TOP!

EASILY DIGESTIBLE!

"BEST FOR BABY — BEST FOR YOU"

NUTRITIA

EXCLUSIVE PRODUCT OF THE

APPLETON PURE MILK CO.

Phone 834

Twin City Couple to Be Married

AT 7:30 this evening in the William H. Schmidt, Jr., home at 220 Third street, Neenah, Miss Freda D. Schmidt, daughter of the William Schmidts, and Walter U. Stommel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stommel, 313 Second street, Menasha, will be married by the Rev. W. A. Jacobs, pastor of First Congregational church, Menasha. Miss Wilma Schmidt will be her sister's bridesmaid and Paul Stommel will attend his brother as best man. A reception, for immediate relatives and friends will follow the ceremony. A short wedding trip is planned by the bride and bridegroom after which they will make their home in the Brin apartments in Menasha. Mr. Stommel is employed in the office of the Menasha Wooden Ware company.

Dombrowske-Jedwabney
Miss Cecelia Dombrowske, daughter of Mrs. Anna Dombrowske, 510 Fifth street, Menasha, and George Jedwabney, son of Mr. A. Jedwabney, 523 Fifth street, Menasha, were married at 10 o'clock this morning in St. John's Catholic church, Menasha, by the Rev. S. A. Elbert. Miss Agnes Jedwabney, Menasha, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Monica Buzanowske, Alvin Michalkiewicz, both of Menasha, and Virginia Naleway, Chicago. Ill. Bergratia Pakalsko was best man and the other attendants were Anthony Buzanowske, Francis Michalkiewicz. A wedding dinner and reception were held this afternoon in Falcon hall. Following a wedding trip, the young couple will reside on Fifth street, Menasha. Mr. Jedwabney, who is a graduate of Menasha high school, is a member of the Menasha police force. Out-of-town guests at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Naleway, daughters, Virginia and Grace, and Edward Kowal, Chicago.

Blajeske-Frank
Miss Rosa Blajeske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Blajeske, 847 Racine street, Menasha, and Joseph Frank, son of Mrs. Anna Besaw, Kaukauna, were married at 9 o'clock this morning in St. John's Catholic church, Menasha, by the Rev. S. A. Elbert. Miss Leona Marsh, Menasha, a cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Miss Louise Marsh and Miss Mary Kunich, Menasha, were bridesmaids. Shirley Blajeske, a niece of the bride, acted as flower girl. Wilfred Van Evanhoven, Kaukauna, was best man, and Max Neabling, Neenah, was the other attendant. A wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. A reception for about 100 guests was held during the afternoon. The young couple left on a wedding trip to Michigan. Upon their return, they will make their home at Kaukauna.

Kuehnemann-Peterson
Mrs. Dora Kuehnemann, 521 E. Franklin avenue, Neenah, and Charles F. Peterson, 314 Second street, Neenah, were married at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Emanuel Lutheran church parsonage in Neenah by the Rev. E. C. Kollath, pastor. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Haldebrand, Neenah, attended the couple. A wedding dinner for the immediate relatives was held following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson will leave for a wedding trip through northern Wisconsin on their return, will make their home at 521 E. Franklin avenue, Neenah.

Gullickson-Rou
St. Paul's English Lutheran church, Neenah, was the scene of the wedding, at 10:30 this morning, of Miss Lucille Gullickson, daughter of Mrs. Amelia Gullickson, 93 S. Lake street, Neenah, and Foster L. Rou, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rou, 407 Harrison street, Neenah. The Rev. Samuel H. Roth, pastor, read the service. Miss Margaret Rou and Russell Rou, sister and brother of the bridegroom, attended the young couple. After a wedding trip to northern Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Rou will make their home at 129 Washington avenue, Neenah.

Mr. Rou is employed in the Lakeview mill of the Kimberly-Clark corporation.

Peggy Rae Horton To be Bride of Howard Carmany At Congregational Church

An ice blue satin gown, Miss Peggy Rae Horton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lacey Horton, 518 N. Mary street, will walk with her father down the aisle of the First Congregational church at 4 o'clock this afternoon to exchange wedding vows with Howard Carmany, Ripon, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Carmany, Wittenberg. The Rev. John D. Hanna will read the marriage service.

The bride's only attendant will be her cousin, Miss Betty Meyers, Milwaukee, and Carlisle Christensen, Wautoma, will be Mr. Carmany's best man. Howard Horton, John Horton, Elmer Bosserman and Carleton Kuck will be the ushers. Don Gerlach, who will play during the half hour preceding the ceremony, also will play the wedding march.

A reception for about 75 guests will be held at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony. Those from out of town will be Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Meyers and their family, Betty, Dick, Frederick and Jean Meyers, and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Searle, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Carmany and Miss Florence Carmany, Wittenberg; Miss Ruth Horton, aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richmond, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Judge and Mrs. Frank Calkins, Wisconsin Rapids.

When they return from a Canadian wedding trip, Mr. Carmany

Miss Ruberg Will Sail For Europe

A MEDITERRANEAN cruise followed by a tour of the continent is the interesting summer trip in which Miss Marie Ruberg, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Ruberg, 727 E. Eldorado street, Miss Ruberg is a teacher at Whitefish Bay near Milwaukee. She will leave Appleton next Wednesday for New York where she will meet a party of friends and sail June 25 on the Vulcania, Italian liner. The group will stop at several Mediterranean ports and will disembark at Naples and tour Italy, Switzerland, the Black Forest and Rhine country in Germany, France, Belgium, Holland and England. The party will return about the middle of August on a French liner.

Miss Jane Brunke, 39 N. Bellaire court, has returned from Milwaukee, where she attended the commencement exercises at Marquette university.

Miss Nancy Errington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Errington, 919 W. Spring street, will leave tomorrow to spend her summer with her grandmother, Mrs. John Lesselyong, Marshfield. Her brother, William, will leave tomorrow also to visit his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Alwin, at Star Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Errington will spend the weekend visiting friends and relatives in the southern part of the state.

Miss Peggy Ann Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fisher, 632 W. Prospect street, has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kramer, Milwaukee for the last two weeks. She is expected home Sunday or Monday.

H. J. Weller, 905 N. Rankin street, and A. T. Jense, 1525 S. Outagamie street, have returned from a 10-day fishing trip to Bayfield, Wis., and Kenora and Emo, Canada. Mrs. Weller and two children spent the week at the Jense cottage at Lake Poygan.

Among the Lawrence college faculty members who will spend the summer in Europe is Miss Dorothy Waples, professor of English, who left recently for England. She will join Miss Dorothy Bethurum, also professor of English at Lawrence who has been on leave of absence this year to study in Italy and England, and the two will travel and study for the summer and return to Lawrence in the fall.

Rabbi and Mrs. Ralph De Koven and daughter, Elinor, 503 N. Durkee street, will leave Sunday for a several weeks' trip to Florida.

Annapolis Graduate Visiting at Waupaca

Waupaca — Page Knight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Knight, is spending a few days in the city en route from Long Beach, Calif., where he has been stationed on the U. S. S. Salt Lake City, for Pensacola, Fla. Here Page will enter the naval air base. Mrs. Knight stopped off in Abilene, Texas, to visit her parents before going to Pensacola. Page is a graduate of Annapolis, class of 1935.

Gordon Ebbe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Ebbe, who recently graduated from the University of North Dakota, has been spending a few days in Waupaca. He is now at Ft. Snelling for two weeks with the R. O. T. C. He will spend two weeks in Waupaca after that when he will go to the World Chamberlain airport at Minneapolis where he will begin the study of airplane engines July 15. On Sept. 1 he will be stationed at Pensacola, Fla., with the Naval Air Reserve. His ultimate plan is to design planes.

A student in mechanical engineering, Gordon was second high of 179 applicants from North and South Dakota and Minnesota for a position at Pensacola, rating those honors in both physical examination and scholastic standing.

Jean Grace Ebbe is home for the summer after her first year at the University of North Dakota where she is majoring in home economics.

THAT INFECTIOUS ROOSEVELT SMILE
Here is America's No. 1 bridal couple of 1938, as John Roosevelt, son of the President, and his bride-to-be, Anne Lindsay Clark, left the Clark home at Nahant, Mass., two days before their wedding date, for a dinner dance in their honor. John's famed Roosevelt grin brought a contagious smile to Anne's face.

John Roosevelt, Anne Clark Married in Massachusetts

Continued from page 1

ruth, financier friend of the president, and scores prominent in New England society.

Republican lines were present but not prominent at the ceremonies. From a wall near the pulpit, a bronze bas relief of Anna Cabot Mills Lodge, grandmother of Republican Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, looked down upon the president. The new occupant of the chief executive and Mrs. Roosevelt bore the name of the Lovells.

Present were 20 persons bearing the Roosevelt name, but absent were the more prominent Republican members of the Roosevelt clan, including Mrs. Alice Longworth, daughter of "Teddy" who sent her "regrets" and the Theodore and Kermit Roosevelts.

Behind the ancient organ, installed in 1879 and played today by Malcolm Lang of Boston, were two youthful organ pumpers who confessed themselves to be of Republican leanings.

The ceremonies ended, the bridal party led the 350 who could squeeze into the church to join 300 others at the century-old Nahant club for a reception highlighted by a champagne toast to the bride.

John and Anne set their honey-moon "sleigh" for 4:30 p. m., east-daylight time concealing their destination, but according to persistent report, they were headed for the Roosevelt summer home at Campobello island, New Brunswick, before sailing for Bermuda.

The ceremonies followed, the bride party led the 350 who could squeeze into the church to join 300 others at the century-old Nahant club for a reception highlighted by a champagne toast to the bride.

John and Anne set their honey-moon "sleigh" for 4:30 p. m., east-daylight time concealing their destination, but according to persistent report, they were headed for the Roosevelt summer home at Campobello island, New Brunswick, before sailing for Bermuda.

HOLLYWOOD LIGHTS CAMERA ACTION HAPPENINGS

BY ROBBIN COONS
Hollywood — Next to "Alexander's Ragtime Band" the most limelighted of recent pictures is "Yellow Jack," a solid and compelling screen adaptation of the Sidney Howard-Paul de Kruif play about the conquest of yellow fever.

The Zanuck musical was no surprise to Hollywood, although it is better even than expected. "Yellow Jack" was. The teaming of Robert Montgomery and Virginia Bruce (seen last in the light of "100 Years") suggested, however unfairly that the movies were going to do awful things to another fine stage play. Instead, "Yellow Jack" gives Montgomery his best acting role since "Night Must Fall," and unreels convincingly as a story of unmelodramatic heroism. It has humor and humor, and a little romance along with its starker business, none of it forced. There are fine performances especially by Lewis Stone, Henry Hull, Charles Coburn and Sam Levene, with Buddy Ebsen, Alan Curtis, Andy Devine and William Henry all excellent. George B. Seitz directed.

Crime Doesn't Pay
Any picture directed by Fritz Lang commands attention, and "You and Me," co-starring Sylvia Sydney and George Raft, is no exception. Convicts on parole, both employed in the same department store where the boss's hobby is giving ex-criminals a chance, are the chief characters, and the theme is crime-doesn't-pay with a new, dollars-and-cents reason. It might have been better, in this opinion, if Lang had told his metropolitan fairy tale straightforwardly without the musical preamble stating his theme, and without resorting to "impressionistic" sequences — but maybe we don't know art when we see it. And Raft might have said "Shet up!" a few times less. But "You and Me" has much to commend, including a clever fight sequence between Raft and Guinn Williams, and a nice character performance by Vera Gordon.

Post-War Stuff
"Three Comrades" is Frank Borzage's directorial version of the Erich Maria Remarque novel of post-war Germany. Robert Taylor, Francis Tone, Robert Young are the titular trio, and Margaret Sullivan the valiant girl. That war — scarred "lost generation" marches again against despair and hunger and political strife, and gets little enough for its pains. But Borzage gets one of his better sentimental love stories against an exciting background. Miss Sullivan, Tone and Young do best by the acting, with Guy Kibbee, Henry Hull and Lionel Atwill in plummy character parts.

"White Banners" is the third of Lloyd C. Douglas's way-of-life novels to reach the screen. As "Green Light" and "The Magnificent Obsession," the lead characters philosophize and practice their preachings. Standard-bearer here, however, is accomplished Fay Bainter, whose cheerful turn-the-other-cheek tune works wonders in the tangled lives of a poor professor and his family which she "adopts" one snowy day in 1919. Whatever you may think of dramatized sermons, or the philosophy put forth, Miss Bainter's sensitive performance and the work of Claude Rains, Jackie Cooper, Bonita Granville and Kay Johnson make "White Banners" an affecting more than acceptable. Edmund Goulding directed.

K. of C. Degree Team To Officiate Sunday At Chilton Meeting

Kaukauna — Kaukauna's second degree team of Council 1033, Knights of Columbus, will exemplify that degree tomorrow at the second and third degree initiation ceremonies at Chilton for K.C.'s of this section of the state.

Council members, the team and the nine Kaukauna candidates to take the second and third degree in the order, will leave the city at noon tomorrow to join Knights from Chilton, Berlin, Menasha and Oshkosh, who also will have candidates in the ceremonies. Transportation will be furnished to any members who desire to attend the exemplification, if they will come to the Wisconsin avenue club rooms at noon.

Members of the degree team include John Van de Loo, James F. Cavanaugh, Louis J. Faust, C. P. Goetzman, Kaukauna; and the Rev. Peter Salm, St. John, Council 1033, who under the direction of Harold Hoollhan, will furnish music for the occasion.

Softball Loop to Open Play Monday

Junior and Senior Play-ground Leagues Complete Organization

Kaukauna — Senior and junior softball leagues will swing into action at the library playground next week, as the summer schedule of games starts Monday under the direction of Clifford Kemp, city recreational director.

Games will be played in the 6-team junior circuit on Monday, Wednesday and Friday and in the 4-team senior loop on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Jim Gustman's Gustman Chev outfit will clash with Leo Van de Loo's Modern Shoes in the opening tilt Monday morning. In the senior league opener Tuesday Jerry Reichel's Cubs will meet Phelan Femal's Sox.

Captains and managers of the junior teams are: Old Time Tavern, James Mathes, captain, and Don Jappes, manager; Kaukauna Times, Leroy Peters, captain, and Don Reichel, manager; Morten Barbers, Connie Hatchell, captain, and Jack Mertles, manager; Greenwood, Don Rohlinger, captain, Tom Brenzel, manager; Gustman Chev, Jimmy Gustman, captain, and O. Vanevenhoven, manager; Modern Shoes, Leo Van de Loo, captain, and Lee Kobussen, manager.

In the senior league four teams will play, though captains have been named by Kemp for only three. The fourth captain will be selected according to the ability and sportsmanship that one of the likely leaders shows on the field.

The teams and captains are: Cubs, Jerry Reichel, manager; Phelan Femal, Tigger, Harold Walsh; the Giants are still without a captain.

Kaukauna Churches

TRINITY EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH, Corner Grignon and Tobacco streets. Rev. Paul Oehlert, pastor. 8:30 a. m. English service. 9:45 a. m. German service with holy communion.

BROKAW MEMORIAL METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, corner Portier and Catherine streets. Rev. G. C. Sanderson, minister. 8 a. m. worship hour. Sermon subject, "What Faith Means."

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Crooks avenue. Rev. G. C. Sanderson, minister. 9 a. m. Worship hour. Sermon subject, "What Faith Means."

IMMANUEL EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH, corner Sullivan avenue and Sixth street. Rev. John Scheib, minister. 9 a. m. Sunday school. 10 a. m. worship hour. Text, Acts 11:26: "The Disciples Were Called Christians First in Antioch." Theme: "Am a Christian." 11:15 a. m. Sunday school. Young People's society picnic at Corchals cottage. 9 a. m. Monday, Bible school. 7 p. m. Tuesday, choir rehearsal. 9:15 a. m. Friday, Bible school picnic.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY, Club rooms, public library. 9:45 a. m. Sunday school. 10:45 a. m. Church services. Sermon subject, "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, testimonial meeting. 2 to 5 p. m., Thursday, reading room open.

KAUKAUNA GOSPEL TABERNACLE, 211 W. Wisconsin avenue. Rev. L. R. Clevenger, pastor. 9:30 a. m. Sunday school. 10:45 a. m. Morning worship. 6:30 p. m. Young People's meeting. 7:45 p. m. Evening worship. 7:45 p. m. Tuesday, Bible training class. 7:45 p. m. Friday, prayer service.

HOLY CROSS CATHOLIC CHURCH, corner Doty and Desnoyer streets. Rev. A. Garthaus, pastor. 5 a. m. Low mass. 7 a. m. Low mass. 8:30 a. m. Low mass for children. 10 a. m. High mass. 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Our Mother of Perpetual Help services.

ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH, corner Seventh street and Hendricks avenue. Rev. Alphonse Roder, pastor. Rev. John Haen, assistant. 5 a. m. Low mass. 7 a. m. Low mass for children. 9 a. m. High mass followed by benediction. 11:30 a. m. Low mass. 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Our Mother of Perpetual Help devotion.

Floor of Post Office Cleaned and Rewaxed

Kaukauna — Work on cleaning and rewaxing the Kaukauna post office floor was completed today, with the special process used in federal buildings.

The floor was first cleaned with a steel wool cleaning machine and then resurfaced with wax. Several workmen did the job on shifts, so that as much as possible of the work could be done before and after closing hours at the post office.

City Officials Attend Hearing On Flood Control

Favor Movement to Build Reservoir in Wolf River Near Lilly

Kaukauna — Three Kaukauna representatives attended a hearing in Oshkosh yesterday before Colonel W. H. Holcombe of the Milwaukee Water Power Users, and Donald Bisek, No services were held in the church proper while the work was in progress, though parishioners heard morning mass from the sacristy this week.

Mayor Lewis F. Nelson, Herbert Weckwerth, manager of the city utility, and Charles Seaborn, superintendent of the Thilmany mill, and president of the Association of Fox River Water Power Users, attended the hearing in the Oshkosh city hall. Weckwerth read a brief to the assembly, which included other Fox and Wolf river cities, to express the support of Kaukauna in the movement to build the reservoir.

Proponents of the project believe that the reservoir will help control the water level in Lake Winnebago and in the Fox and Wolf rivers. Mayor Nelson said today. Control of the water level means flood control, clearer water in summer, and conservation of fish in the rivers and lake, he said.

According to the plans outlined at the meeting, the reservoir would be built with federal money that might be available by having it allotted from the recent omnibus bill, appropriating money for flood control, which was passed by congress.

Thilmany's Bunch Hits for 9-8 Win

Mill Office Team Defeats North Side CYO in Twilight League Tilt

Kaukauna — A third inning rally in which the Thilmany mill office team bunched two hits which an assortment of walks and errors gave them a 9 to 8 victory over the north side C.Y.O. in a Twilight league softball game played at the library grounds last night.

The winners got five runs in the third, and though the C.Y.O. boys kept building up their tallies in the third, fifth and seventh, they still fell short when their last three hitters struck out in the ninth inning.

Both teams scored in the first inning and the C.Y.O. stayed even until the fatal third. After that the winners collected only two more tallies while the losers got five, but the mill had enough for the margin of victory. The losers out-hit the mill team, connecting safely 13 times, while office boys, got only seven bingles, though they waited out nine walks, which kept the winners busy. C. Jansen got three hits for five to lead the winners hitters. Pat Burns got three for four for the losers.

Motorists Warned to Park Cars Correctly

Kaukauna — Persons who park their automobiles in the space before the old Union Bag mill were warned by police yesterday to observe the law in regard to correct parking. Some cars had been driven on onto the space at the wrong angle, and some were not clear of the road.

Oshkosh C. Y. O. Team To Play at Kaukauna

Kaukauna — St. Mary's senior C. Y. O. softball team will be hosts to the invading Sacred Heart parish team of Oshkosh tomorrow a C. Y. O. league game to be played at the St. Mary's diamond at 2 o'clock. The battery for the Kaukauna outfit will be Pat McMahon pitch, and Ken Vils catch.

A picnic and church dinner will be held tomorrow at Holy Angels parish, Darby, with the St. Mary's high school band, Menasha, furnishing the music in the afternoon. Chicken dinner will be served from 11 a. m. to 2 p. m.

KAUKAUNA PERSONALS

Kaukauna — Richard Powers, former Kaukauna resident and now of Chicago, is visiting relatives and friends in this city. Powers has just finished a 3-month European tour, on which he visited among other places, France, Italy and Egypt.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kromer, daughter Miss LaVerne Kromer, son Junior, and Robert Goetzman, will leave Sunday on a 2-week trip through the western states, with stops at North Dakota, where they will visit relatives, Canada, Yellowstone National park and the Black Hills in South Dakota.

Miss Hortense Berens will leave tonight for Minneapolis, Minn., to spend the week with Mrs. Thomas Burke, the former Miss Zita Harrington of Kaukauna.

Miss Dora Lee of the Brown-Wilcox home, Berlin, visited friends in Kaukauna Thursday. She is a former resident of this city.

Mrs. William Hohman is seriously ill at her home, 900 McTee avenue.

Miss Thelma Durkee, former Kaukauna resident and at present a teacher in the public school system of Flint, Mich., is visiting at the home of the Misses Marie and Eunice Muiholland.

Elmer Grebe district N. Y. A. supervisor, is back in Kaukauna today after attending the 2-day convocation of state National Youth Administration directors and supervisors at Waukesha.

Miss Agnes Bell and Ben Bell are

Finish Resurfacing of Kaukauna Church Floor

Kaukauna — Floor mats were rolled down in the aisles of Holy Cross church yesterday as work of resurfacing the main church floor was completed by John Geigle, janitor, and several parish men who assisted him.

Three coats of a bakelite surfacing were used, but the damp weather prevented it from drying sufficiently for the application of the two coats of wax, that will be put on the floor next week. Men who assisted in the job were Henry Foegen, Barney Wilpolt, Ethan Brewster, Jerome Schuman and Donald Bisek. No services were held in the church proper while the work was in progress, though parishioners heard morning mass from the sacristy this week.

Benefit Shows to Raise Funds for Stricken Chinese

Rice Bowl Committee Makes Arrangements for Movies July 5 and 6

Kaukauna — Thirty-two representatives of Kaukauna's civic organizations ate rice last night and promised their support to the national Bowl of Rice movement to raise money for the relief of civilian Chinese.

A theater benefit, to be held at both Kaukauna theaters Tuesday and Wednesday, July 5 and 6, was chosen as the means of raising relief funds by the committee, which gathered at a lunch meeting in the Tea Shop, with Ruben Rosenblatt, chairman, in charge.

According to the plan outlined by Chairman Rosenblatt, the organizations represented will sell tickets for the movies to be presented in the city theaters. Tickets will sell for the regular admission price of 25 cents, and the fund will receive 25 per cent of the gross receipts at the theaters, including those taken in at the box office on the night of the show. Student and children's tickets will be sold at the regular reduced rates at the box office on the days of the performance, and a children's matinee will be held Tuesday, July 5.

Persons who attended the meeting and the groups represented are: M. A. Raught, Elks; E. F. Rennie, Valley Boy Scout council; Mrs. G. R. Greenwood, Lady Knights of Columbus; George R. Greenwood, treasurer of the committee, and the Advancement association; Herb Specht, American Legion; the Rev. John Haen, St. Mary's church; Kenneth Vils, St. Mary's senior C. Y. O.; Miss Virginia Van Dyke, St. Mary's junior C. Y. O.; Earl Keil, machinists union; L. F. Nelson, City of Kaukauna; Arthur Mongin, Jr., secretary of the committee, and the Lions' club; T. L. Seggelink, Catholic Knights of Wisconsin; Mrs. Joseph McCarty, committee member.

Miss Mildred Nelson represented the Business and Professional Women's club; Frank Mitchell; Veterans of Foreign Wars; Al Hartzheim, Eagles; Joseph T. Sadlier, Knights of Columbus; William Van Dyke, Vaudeville theatre; Charles G. Winge, Odd Fellows; James Kain, Local 20; Mrs. Emma Agen, Women of the Moose.

Others were Mrs. Elizabeth M. Ives, Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Mrs. Kate Specht, Auxiliary, American Legion; Mrs. A. W. Sager, Mrs. Phil Dix and Mrs. J. J. Haas, Ladies Aid, Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed Lutheran church; Mrs. H. T. Runte, St. Ann's court, Women's Catholic Order of Foresters; Mrs. Emil Franz, Holy Cross Christiana; Mrs. J. J. Sager, O'Connell, Women's club; and Mrs. Theodore Nyles, St. Mary's Altar society.

Cavanaugh Will Talk At Holy Name Meeting

Kaukauna — James F. Cavanaugh, superintendent of city schools, will speak at the Holy Name society meeting tomorrow morning to address the Holy Name society there on the subject, "The Better Things in Life."

Party Leaders to Meet Kaukauna — A meeting of the directors of the Union party of Outagamie County will be held at 7 o'clock Monday evening in the city council chambers of the Municipal building.

The Kaukauna office of the Appleton Post-Crescent is located in the Jules Mertes barbershop on Wisconsin avenue. William Dowling is the correspondent-in-charge and the telephone number is 107. Subscribers may call this number until 6:30 in the evening if their papers were not delivered.

Automobile Hits Gate At Lawe Street Bridge

Kaukauna — The automobile of an unidentified motorist ran against a gate on the Lawe street bridge at midnight Thursday, causing slight damage to the arm of the gate. No one was near enough to the accident to identify the automobile, police said today.

spending a few days visiting friends and relatives in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Weckwerth traveled to Marshfield yesterday, where Mr. Weckwerth attended the public utilities convention.

Mrs. Willis Stroebe, Appleton, visited with her mother, Mrs. A. K. Moreness, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John McLaughlin, LaCrosse, Mrs. Maurice Lilikon, Madison, and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Moriarity, Milwaukee, spent several days this week with Mrs. John Jaekels.

Daniel Femal, Chicago, arrived yesterday for a visit at the home of his grandfather, Anton Pechotta.

CLIP THIS COUPON

THE FAIRMAID SHOP

406 W. College Ave. Appleton

Fountain Feature

Saturday and Sunday

This Coupon entitles you to a

Jumbo Chocolate Soda

for only

Between the hours of 2 to 5 P. M. and 8 to 10 P. M.

CLIP THIS COUPON

GET PROOF OF GREATER SAVINGS!

FRIGIDAIRE

WITH NEW SILENT METER-MISER
SAVES MORE ON CURRENT-FOOD-ICE-UPKEEP

SAVE ALL 4 WAYS..

or you may not save at all!

COME IN...SEE WHY

KILLOREN'S

227 W. College Ave. Phone 5670 118 S. Superior St.
SEE OUR 4-WAY SAVING DEMONSTRATION

PRICES AS LOW AS $121.50 EASY TERMS

Bridle Path Plaids

Ready for a brisk canter at sun-up is this riding coat of shadow-plaid wool tweed worn with cavalry twill breeches. Its colors are brown and beige. It goes to ride with a mannish white shirt and wood-brown tie.

Opening Lead Was Incorrect

BY ELY CULBERTSON

In electing the opening lead, it sometimes is possible to make a choice that has two distinct chances for success as against another that has only one. West overlooked this point in selecting the lead in the following deal and, as a result, cost himself and partner several match points.

East dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.
Match-point duplicate.

NORTH
K 7 5 3 2
A J 8 6
9 4
A J 6

WEST
A 9 6
A 10 5 2
A 7 3
K 10 3 2

EAST
A
9 4 3
Q J 10 6 2
Q 8 4

SOUTH
A 10 8 4
K Q 7
K 8 6
7 5

The bidding:
East South West North
Pass Pass 1 heart Pass
2 diamonds 2 spades Pass Pass clubs Pass Pass 5 spades
Pass Pass Pass Pass

Obviously, West's opening bid was pretty weak. In fact, it would have been indefensible except as a third, or possibly fourth, hand bid at match-point duplicate. East did not like to sell out to a low spade contract, hence his three club "stretch." As the cards lay, and with a good guess for the club jack, East-West could have gone even farther with their club bidding, but they hardly could assume such favorable chances.

West, oblivious to every thought except that his partner had responded with two diamonds, made the fatal opening lead of the diamond ace. After that nothing could defeat declarer. In all, he lost one spade, one heart, one diamond, and one club.

The choice of the opening lead had been far from logical. East had not bid diamonds alone; he also had bid clubs. From West's point of view a club opening should have been just twice as safe as a diamond opening. The diamond opening would be proper only if East had specifically the diamond king, whereas the club opening would be quite safe, and constructive, if East had either the club ace or queen.

Surely a consideration of this type is not "over the head" of any player. As may be seen, a club opening, except a diamond, would have resulted in declarer's losing two diamond tricks instead of one, and with them his contract.

Family Shouldn't Suffer When One Can't Eat Dish

BY ANGELO PATRI

"O, mother, look at these lovely strawberries. Can't we have some? I love strawberry shortcake, but we never have any. Get some, please." "No. They give your brother the rash." "What? The rash?" "Yes, yes; you know perfectly well that if John eats strawberries he gets a rash." "Suppose he does? Can't the rest of us have strawberries? We don't get the rash. Why shouldn't we enjoy them even if he can't?" "I can see how you could eat strawberries and know they would give you a rash. What about us? Let him eat any, need he?" "Your brother the rash. Such selfishness—" "Get a rash. Let him. If he is foolish enough to eat what hurts him, let him. But please buy us strawberries so we can have a shortcake. Dad likes it and I do, and Lou does, and so do you. Let John eat something else. I mean it, mother. It isn't just strawberries. It's John. He won't go to the seashore so we can't go; he can't abide dancing so we can't have any in the house. What about us? Let him eat what he likes, and do what he likes, and let the rest of us live, too. I want some strawberry shortcake." "All right. Get it. But remember, if your brother eats it and gets sick—" "I'll laugh. He should have eaten his apple-top. You just ruin him, mother. I'm going to make you the most luscious shortcake, and you're going to eat it and enjoy it. Never mind his rash." "It isn't sensible to let one member of the family call the tune for all the rest, any time. Family life means taking turns, whatever comes. If a dish hurts one member of the family while the rest enjoy it, let the odd one have something else. I have known some of these different children to forget all about their difference, eat and enjoy the thing they feared and live happily ever after. It is possible for one member of

Uncle Ray's Corner

A Little Saturday Talk

Another letter has come from the man who told us about his tame porcupine, "Smoky Lady," and I am going to print it because it raises some questions.

"Can you believe it," writes Mr. A. D. Lindsay, "that I own the moon and the sun, the stars, the comets, meteors, asteroids—everything—everywhere beyond this world?"

"It happened this way: On a May night in 1938, I was watching the full moon. It seemed so large and beautiful that I thought of it as real estate, and said to myself, 'Nobody owns it!' Then I decided to acquire it by original claim deed.

"I wanted to be sure I was in the right, so for 13 months I thought it over. In that time I had included the sun and everything else beyond this world in my desires. So in June, I made original claim deeds for everything mentioned. I took all legal steps necessary, and they are recorded in Deed Book 11, pages 28 and 29, at Irwin county courthouse, Ocala, Ga.

"Now I get letters from various parts of the world from astrologers and others who want to buy a star or the moon or a constellation. To all prospects, I have only one answer, 'Henry Ford is not rich enough to buy them, so I know that you cannot.'

"Over the radio I have been introduced as the richest man in all the history of time. Not only am I the world's wealthiest person but all my celestial holdings are tax exempt."

Since that letter came, I have taken a good look at the star-filled sky, and have wondered how any one could claim to own it. Mr. Lindsay is lucky he does not have to pay taxes on so much "real estate."

Before I buy anything, I always want to know that the man who sells it to me really owns it. Perhaps Mr. Lindsay did not think of that point when he went to the courthouse. He did not try to buy the sun, the moon and the stars, to be sure, but he did go to the trouble of laying a claim to them.

Could Irwin county ever have the right to give deeds to the heavenly bodies? Does any county own them, or does the United States own them?

Could all the nations of the earth put together be said to own them or to have the right to dispose of them? If someone replied, "Yes," I would ask, "How about the claims of people on Mars or any other planet (if there are such people) to the sun?" How about the claims to the stars of people of millions of planets which may be spread throughout our universe?

If I had made claims to the heavenly bodies, I would give them up in a hurry. For one thing, there would be the danger of taxes. The sun and the moon are not taxed now, but how about the future? In these days, public officials are not missing much when it comes to taxes.

More important, I would not want to "own" the sun and the moon and the stars. They seem to me the common property of all who can enjoy them.

Uncle Ray
(Copyright, 1938)

Use this Coupon to join the 1937 Uncle Ray Scrapbook Club!

To Uncle Ray,
Care of the Appleton Post-Crescent,
Appleton, Wisconsin.

Dear Uncle Ray: I want to join the 1937 Uncle Ray Scrapbook Club, and I enclose a stamped envelope carefully addressed to myself. Please send me a Membership Certificate, a leaflet telling how to make a Corner Scrapbook of my own, and a printed design to paste on the cover of my scrapbook.

Name _____
Street or R.F.D. _____
City _____ State or Province _____

Foot Care Important For Women

BY ELSIE PIERCE

The number of inquiries on foot care are a good barometer of feminine interest in this subject, at this season.

What to do about callouses; how to treat thickening cuticle; what shade of nail polish to use; how to overcome excess perspiration. These are but a few of the questions but because they seem to be of such general interest I shall answer them here:

Thickening cuticle, particularly if it has grown down over the nail may be a little difficult to work back. Don't attempt to do it all in a single sitting. And don't soak the nails too long or the nails themselves as well as the cuticle will become softened. Dip small pads of cotton in oily cuticle remover placing one small pad over each nail and leave on for three or four minutes. Then dip a cotton-tipped orange stick into the remover and press the cuticle back very gently. Rub and remove loosened particles of cuticle with a soft towel. Don't press too hard and don't work on any more of the dead cuticle than that which is soft and pliable. Try again in a day or two. And in about a week most of it will be well loosened and cleaned away.

Callouses

Very often I am asked for directions for "cutting away callouses." This is something I definitely do not advise anyone but an expert to do. Remember that cutting a wee bit too deep may cause a scratch or abrasion (to say nothing of a wound) which in turn may lead to infection. Again, the oily cuticle remover comes to the rescue. Moisten a cotton-tipped orange stick in the remover, then dip in powdered pumice and gently work away the top layers of hardened skin. As in the case of hardened cuticle, be content to do a little each day instead of digging hard. Continue until the callous disappears.

Nail Make-up

If you are painting the toes at all, you might as well be bold about it. Fresh tints are too innocuous. The true rose-reds have more character. When the skin begins to tan, a reddish brown or rust.

Also I have a complete booklet on Care of the Hair (Booklet 203) which is yours for ten cents. It covers the subject thoroughly. Send for it, giving your name and full address to The Bell Library, in care of the Appleton Post-Crescent, 247 West 43rd Street, New York, N. Y. (Copyright, 1938)

FLARED APRON

4331

By ANNE ADAMS

It's banner year for flared hemlines—even to aprons—and all smart housewives know it. That's why we say: be sure to order Pattern 4331, the newest of Anne Adams' apron creations! What a "buy" it is—so cool, youthful and animated—comfortable to wear with its shoulder straps that can't slip off, its generous-size pockets and its tie belt that holds all snugly in place. Send your order today, and run up at least two styles—ric-rac trimmed ecruette or ging-ham, and button-finished lawn or dimity.

Pattern 4331 is available in sizes small, medium and large. Small size view A takes 3 yards 36 inch fabric and 4 1/2 yards ric-rac; view B, 3 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) to this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

Don't envy the smartness of other women—send for the new Anne Adams summer pattern book at once—and make the most of your outfit you ever owned! You and the children, can have the season's favorite styles in the newest fabrics—for very little money. Planning a stay at the beach? Remaining in town? No matter where you summer you'll want what is pictured . . . and that's everything from sand-and-sea togs to filmy dance gowns. Price of book fifteen cents. Price of pattern fifteen cents. Book and pattern together twenty-five cents.

Send your order to Appleton Post-Crescent, Pattern Department, 243 W. 17th St. New York, N. Y.

Northwest Pageant Will be Presented At Erb Park July 21

Plans for the Northwest Territory celebration here July 21 were developed at a meeting of the committee from the Lions club last night at the Conway hotel.

George E. Johnson is general chairman for the event at which a pageant depicting seven episodes in the establishment of the Northwest Territory will be shown.

Players in the pageant will be a group of 36 men who left Ipswich, Mass., last December. The pageant is being presented in cities along the trek taken by the original settlers.

The pageant will be presented at Erb park at 8 o'clock on the evening of July 21. It will climax a day of celebration in the city, starting with a parade in the morning featuring ox teams and covered wagons in which the pageant players travel. A home talent program is planned for the afternoon at Erb park.

8 Scouts to Represent Council at State Fair

Eight valley council scouts will be among the 150 who will set up camp at the Wisconsin state fair at Milwaukee Aug. 20-22. Each council in the state is given a certain quota for the camp.

The scouts will camp for four days at the fair Aug. 24-28. The camp will include a land ship for sea scouts, fishermen's shacks, Indian teepees, and an explorer's unit.

Walter Dixon, valley council executive, is a member of the committee for the project.

DEFENSE FUND

Copenhagen—(AP)—Denmark has turned away from its old belief that "the best defense is no defense." The reason is Nazi Germany.

The dominant social democrat party has decided to vote 50,000,000 kroner ($11,000,000) for defense.

But this on only a start. Denmark and Sweden together may fortify both sides of the Oeresund, the strait that separates them.

View schoolhouse on County Trunk

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Poole and daughters, Marion and Jeanette, and son, Gordon, were guests the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Poole in Madison.

Mrs. Frank Scott, has returned home from Milwaukee where she was called by the death of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Raymond Scott.

Mrs. Lou Edwards returned to her home in Chicago Tuesday after a few days visit at the Joe Poole home. Her daughter, Miss Lou Ann, who accompanied her here, remained for a more extended visit.

The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pearl Wilkinson. A social afternoon was spent with devotional services conducted by the members. Mrs. Laurel Strong gave a reading. The regular business session was held and a cafeteria supper was served. The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. H. F. Schroeder.

A number of young people from here attended the wedding dance given at the Fraser auditorium at Nichols Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Florence Wilbur and Claude Surpre of Deer Creek who were married that day in Clintonville.

A business meeting of the teachers and officers of the Congregational Sunday school was held Wednesday evening at the H. F. Schroeder home.

Can't Lead Double Life Without Being Found Out

BY DOROTHY DIX

Dear Miss Dix—I am a middle-aged married woman. Live in a small apartment. Have no children. My husband makes only enough for us to scrape by on. He has no desire to go about and have good times, nor does he make any effort to see that I have pleasures. I have every afternoon and evening free on my hands and I crave good times. I have a close married girl friend whose life is just like mine. We are both attractive and appeal to men. She has dates with men who have cars and she goes places and does things that I would be afraid to do. She pleads with me to do likewise and says that I, too, will find romance and pleasure and no one will be the wiser. Would you tell me of the dangers I would run if I took my friend's advice, and what would you advise me to do?

A. T. W.

Answer:

Well, the first danger that you will face, if you take your friend's advice, will be a certainty of finding yourself without a husband or a home or a settled support and with a damaged reputation. Don't delude yourself into thinking that you can lead the double life without being found out. You can't go around to places of amusement, or have dates with strange men without meeting somebody whom you know and who will tell your husband.

Wrongdoing can't be kept secret. No matter how carefully you hide your love nest, some one will discover it. No matter how warily you guard your speech and movements, something you do or say, something in your manners and expression, some little gewgaw or finery that you can't resist wearing, will give you away and start tongues wagging.

Nobody knows how gossip starts. It doesn't even have any tangible thing to go on. It is just something that people sense about the woman who goes wrong. It is the aura of evildoing about her.

Furthermore, the good times you buy at the expense of your principles won't be so good as you think they are. Maybe you will ride in fine automobiles with men who are

Old Gardener Says:

Often in summer the water in pools becomes slimy and green. This is caused by millions of tiny plants called algae growing in the water. This green slime can be made to disappear, without injury to the fish, by careful use of copper sulphate. Only a very small amount of this chemical should be used. About a teaspoonful in a pool ten feet in diameter. Copper sulphate is very heavy and will sink to the bottom of the pool if allowed to go its own way. The best method is to place the crystals in a cloth bag and wave the bag in the surface of the water for a minute or so. If each section of the pool is treated in this manner the slime should soon disappear. Danger of killing the fish is avoided if the copper sulphate is not used in large quantities and if it is not allowed to remain in the pool for more than a short time.

(Copyright, 1935)

My Neighbor Says—

If you haven't time to press the tie your husband wants to wear in the morning, roll it up tightly and leave it over night. All the little creases will come out.

Pumice stone is useful in removing cigarette and ink stains from the fingers. Simply wet the stone and rub it against the stain.

(Copyright, 1933)

phone number twenty-four hours. And if you should go to them for help they would turn you down cold. They are spending their money on gay young girls, not on women who are down and out.

You ask for advice. Here it is. Have nothing more to do with the friend who is trying to persuade you to drag your skirts in the mud because hers are soiled. She bodes you no good, as the old fashioned melodramas used to say. Then, consider your husband a little and have some sympathy for him. If he has no desire for good times and doesn't make any effort to take you out, it is because he is so hard-worked and tired and discouraged that he has no heart for pleasure. Spend your spare time trying to cheer him up and put fresh courage and heart into him.

Then get something to do. If you have your afternoons and evenings free don't spend them in idle repining because you have nothing interesting to do. Find a job if you possibly can. Work is the only absolutely foolproof antidote there is for boredom. When you are doing the thing you like to do and know how to do it well, you are having the best good time there is on earth.

If you can't get a job, the reason probably is that you do not know how to do any one thing well enough to make your services of value to an employer. If that is the case, spend the time that hangs so heavily on your hands in studying a trade. There are free classes in every conceivable subject which you can attend. Go to one of them and learn how to be an expert in some particular line so that you can sell your work and not your body for the good times you crave.

(Copyright, 1935)

Daily Cross-Word Puzzle

ACROSS

1. Expense
2. Strike gently
3. Hastened
12. Jewish month
13. Infestation
14. Adherent of the crown
15. Eagle Indian
16. Herb with large red flowers
17. Hermit
18. Vexed, annoyed
19. City in Idaho
20. Telephone
21. Fox
22. Spider
23. Foregone
24. Soup dish
25. Kind of bird
26. Covers the top of a wall
27. Morning time
28. Proper name
29. Lovers' name
30. Singing

DOWN

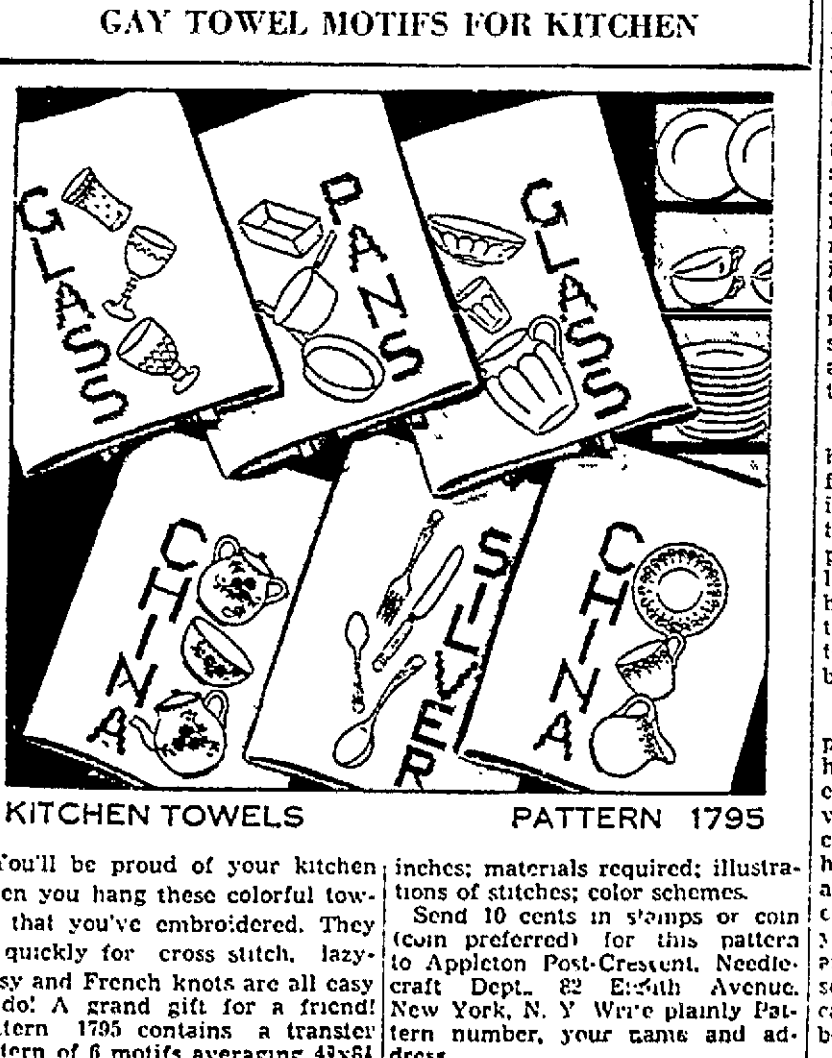

1. Result of an election
2. Great Lake
3. Pair
4. One who manufactures goods or raises
5. Farthest
6. Little child
7. Juice
8. Yule
9. Reeling
10. Hawaiian
11. Wreath
12. Loosely
13. Measure
14. Kind of bean
15. Frequent
16. Bird
17. Mode of slandering
18. Rock
19. City in Holland
20. Sour
21. Sea fishing
22. Force
23. Tarsia
24. Motion
25. Fastener
26. Arrow poison
27. Piece of
28. Pastboard
29. One who does profession
30. Suffix

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

PER SPOT TRIAP
ATE ELSE SANE
CONTRAST EITE
KNOW TAIHITIAN
VILLIE ENEIS
PLATO ARSENIC
SOT COPISE ADO
ITERATE CIARET
AITT SITIR
RECREATE DABS
OBOE WARRIATA
TOPS ALGIA ONE
ANET SEEN RETT

1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8. 9. 10. 11.
12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22.
23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30.
31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46.
47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53.

GAY TOWEL MOTIFS FOR KITCHEN

KITCHEN TOWELS

PATTERN 1795

You'll be proud of your kitchen when you hang these colorful towels that you've embroidered. They go quickly for cross stitch, lazy-daisy and French knots are all easy to do. A grand gift for a friend! Pattern 1795 contains a transfer pattern of 6 motifs averaging 4 inches each. materials required: illustrations of stitches; color schemes. Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to Appleton Post-Crescent, Needlecraft Dept., 82 E. 4th Avenue, New York, N. Y. Write plainly Pattern number, your name and address.

Ladies Aid Society to Have Bazaar at Leeman

Leeman—The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church will hold a bazaar and ice cream social at the church basement on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. H. F. Schroeder entertained at a party at her home Tuesday afternoon in honor of the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Janet. Games were played and refreshments were served. Those present were: Eunice Larsen, Lorraine Leeman, Irene Reese, Kathryn Allen, Lois Hazen and Ruth Thompson. Evangelistic meetings are being held each evening at the Pleasant

THIS WEEK'S Special

CHERRY BUTTER CRUNCH VANILLA

This tempting trio combines the goodness of juicy, red-ripe Sturgeon Bay cherries—Tasty, Butter Crunch tid-bits—and full-flavored Vanilla Ice Cream.

Get the Special Listed Above and many other varieties of

LUICK'S Ice Cream

Exclusively at

OAKS

CANDY SHOP
One Store Only
Next to Hotel Appleton particular people refer aint, aint, products and paper

EET AINT CO.

219 W. College Ave.
Phone 3301, Appleton
Art Scheil, Mgr.

WHAT'S FOR LUNCH?

HOT SPAM WICH

delicious new HORMEL MEAT of many uses for many occasions

THE NERBS
Help Wanted
By Sol Hess

THEM TRUNKS? THEY BELONG TO YOUR BROTHER AND THERE WAS $985 EXPRESS ON 'EM

JUMPING JELLY BEANS! IS HE GOING TO STAY HERE FOR THE REST OF HIS LIFE?

DO ME A FAVOR—GET CONFIDENTIAL WITH MY BROTHER—FIND OUT IF HE HAS MONEY OR EXPECTS TO SIT ON MY LAP FOR THE REST OF HIS LIFE

CHANCES ARE IF HE HAD MONEY THERE'D BE SOME EVIDENCE OF IT BEFORE THIS

I THINK HE'S YOURS FROM NOW ON BUT I'LL TRY TO FIND OUT

NOW DON'T DOUBLE-CROSS ME—YOU HAVE SO MUCH FUN MAKING ME MISERABLE, PLEASE BE ON MY SIDE JUST FOR ONCE!

NOXAGE WATER DET.

NOXAGE THE HEALTH WATER WITH A JIG IN EVERY SWIG

STORE ROOM

6-18

(Copyright, 1938, by The Sol Hess Syndicate, Inc. (Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Office))

BLONDIE
Blondie Allows for Shrinkage
By Chick Young

OH, BOY!

MAMA—WHO'S THAT GREAT BIG PIECE OF CAKE ON THE TABLE FOR?

THAT'S FOR YOU, DEAR

AW, GEE, THAT LITTLE BITTY PIECE?

6-18

TILLIE THE TOILER
The Sign of the Goat
By Westover

DON'T YOU LOVE DANCING UNDER THE STARS, MACKIE—WACKIE?

IT'S OKAY I GUESS

SPEAKING OF STARS, MAC—WHEN'S YOUR BIRTHDAY?

JANUARY 3 RD, BUT THAT DON'T MEAN A THING TO ME

WELL, IT SHOULD—YOU WERE BORN UNDER THE SIGN OF CAPRICORN—THE GOAT—YOU'RE LOYAL—KIND-HEARTED—AND SECRETEVE

THE GOAT—THAT'S ME, AND MY FUTURE IN THE STARS DON'T LOOK ANY TOO BRIGHT, EITHER

MAC THOUGHT HE SAW TILLIE FAINTLY IN THE STARS

6-18

Russ Westover

THIMBLE THEATRE, Starring POPEYE
The King's Horses —the King's Men
By E. C. Segar

WHERE SWEETPEA GOES, I GOES!

AND WHERE POPEYE AND SWEETPEA GOES, I GO AND WHERE POPEYE, SWEETPEA AND OLIVE GO, I GO

AN' WHERE POPEYE, SWEETPEA, OLIVE AN' WIMPY GO—SO GOES POOPDECK

HEH! HEH!

BUT WE DON'T ALLOW STRANGERS IN DEMONIA!

DON'T BE SILLY. WE AIN'T STRANGERS, WE'VE KNOW'D EACH OTHER FOR YEARS

AND WHERE MY DEAR SWEET PAL, POPEYE GOES, TOAR GO, TOO—HOW YOU ARE, MY ONE-EYE' BUNCH OF HONEY?

TOAR!

6-18

E. C. Segar

DAN DUNN
Secret Operative 48
By Norman Marsh

THIS IS THE LAST ROOM I'VE GOT TO FIX--THESE MATTRESSES BURNING WILL MAKE A NICE SMUDGE!

YES! THE CHIEF AND HIS MEN ARE WAITING DOWN THERE--AND THERE'S IRWIN, BETTER GET BACK TO MY ROOM!

HEY, THERE'S ONE OF SLADE'S THUGS! TRYING TO GET INTO THE ROOM WHERE CHIEF KIRK'S DAUGHTER IS TIED UP!

HEY YOI!--KEEP AWAY FROM HERE, MUG!

TAKE THAT! HEY, FIRE! FIRE!... NOW,--I'VE GOT TO GET THE CHIEF'S DAUGHTER OUT!

6-18

Norman Marsh

ALL IN A LIFETIME
Parental Problems
By Beck

LAZY MY EYE. INSTEAD OF WASHING THE CAR FIRST AND THEN SPRINKLIN' THE LAWN, I'M COMBINING THE JOBS AND SAVING WATER AND TIME.

NEVER MIND ALL THE PAINT YOU'RE KNOCKING OFF JUST TO SPRAY THE WATER FARTHER.

THE TROUBLE IS, YOU ALWAYS BUILD UP THE DRIPPING OF A FAUCET TO THE ROAR OF NIAGARA!—FOR INSTANCE, THAT UNCLE WHO LEFT YOU HIS ESTATE—WHO WAS HE—AND WHAT GIVES YOU THE IDEA HE WAS WEALTHY?

SIMPLY THIS, MY PANSY PATCH, BOTH SIDES OF MY FAMILY WERE ILLUSTRIOUS AND PEOPLE OF MEANS—MY YES!—WHEN A LAD I OFTEN HEARD OF UNCLE BENTLEY DAWSON APPLAGATE'S VAST LAND HOLDINGS!—THE THOUGHT OF COMING INTO RICHES EXCITES ME TO HIGH PITCH! AH—MAYBE A POT OF OOLONG AND A JAM CRUMPET WOULD QUIETEN ME DOWN,--EH, M'DOVE!

IF NOTHING ELSE, THE JUDGE IS RICH IN IMAGINATION

6-18

THE KARR SPRING UNIT
IN THIS SPRING-AIR MATTRESS IS GUARANTEED 15 YEARS

The World's Finest For Only $39.50

$1.00 Down Delivers

THE MATTRESS
THAT feels so good

Only with a Spring-Air Mattress do you get the guaranteed Karr spring construction;—guaranteed for years of comfort-full, trouble-free use (The Karr spring construction; (counter-balanced for greater comfort) makes Spring-Air conform perfectly to your body.

As Little As $24.50 Buys A Genuine Spring-Air

WICHMANN
Furniture Company

OCTAGON HOUSE
BY PHOEBE ATWOOD TAYLOR

The Story So Far: Asey Mayo Cape Cod detective, is investigating the murder of Marina Lorne, whose husband's post office mural has aroused suspicion. She was killed by a left handed blow from her sister's knife. Asey knows Pam Frye is innocent, as well as Tim Carr, boarder at the Frye's Octagon House. Marina was married to Tim, unknown to Jack Lorne, and also had played around with Roddy Strutt, who is now being 'menaced.' Then the barn burns down. Tim and Asey are knocked out in the woods, and Pam's father is found unconscious in the Lorne's cottage. The problem uppermost in Asey's mind is a $50,000 lump of ambergis Pam found the day of the murder. Pam hid it in the coal bin, and her father moved it to the barn.

Chapter 30
ASEY'S OPINION

"Did Aaron hear anyone in the house when he came to?" Dr. Cummings asked.

"He didn't hear anythin' or any one," Asey said, "until Pam called him. He didn't have a watch, an' the time element's all confused. He must have been out for a good while though."

"How'd he get the ambergis in to the barn?"

"Believe it or not," Pam said, "he just casually wheeled it there yesterday morning."

"He didn't?" Cummings asked.

"He did," Asey assured him. "Same order of things as my paintin' and putt'in' yesterday. With troopers to the right of him an' troopers to the left of him, he wheeled it out to the barn in an offhand manner—it was still covered up with the tarpulin—an' dumped it into an old zinc lined feed bin. The cops didn't say a word. Aaron was been open an' aboveboard, an' they was sort of lovin' interest in doin' his feet-steps by then anyway, an'—Hanson was away at the time. That's how that happened."

"And Asey doesn't think that the ambergis was in the barn when it burned?" Pam said.

"Of course, that particular bin was near the door and I suppose it would be the first thing anyone would look into—but see here Asey. If the person who fired the barn actually had looked around before he'd have found the ambergis in the feed bin. And then, there wouldn't have been any need of burning the barn at all unless—"

"No," Asey said. "He looked around, an' couldn't find it, so he burned the barn in order to let us to point it out."

"Listen, Asey," Cummings said. "I put the stuff in the coal bin. Pam finds it and has a fast, 'al no' in there it'll be safe in the barn. So he takes it there. Someone wants to know where the ambergis is. You can't find it, so you burn the barn—well, if they can't find it in the bin, they can't find it in the barn. And if they can't find it, then it's just as good as up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn't. They're not within a mile of this place, anyway. It's been looked over again this morning."

"Listen," Pam said. "I've got another idea. Suppose someone found the ambergis in the bin, removed it, and then fired the barn to make us think the ambergis was burned up in it. What about that side, Asey?"

"I thought of it, but I don't like it," Asey told her. "If he'd have swiped it, he'd have beaten it and not passed for the fire to call attention to thine. Pam, the barn then would be lost, an' too much time, and of course, how an' when could anyone of not the ambergis away with that mob in the woods, later?"

"Perhaps that's why Shorty and O'Malley are missing. Perhaps they saw the man take it away, and perhaps they went after it."

"Wait an' let me get straightened out," Cummings said. "Aaron put it in the barn. Someone else—call him B—removes it. Someone else—call him C—hunts for it, an' can't find it, an' so he burns the barn. And now you think there's still another person, D, who's responsible for the violent bifflings that went on. Well, that leaves you with three people, or one person three up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn't. They're not within a mile of this place, anyway. It's been looked over again this morning."

"Listen," Pam said. "I've got another idea. Suppose someone found the ambergis in the bin, removed it, and then fired the barn to make us think the ambergis was burned up in it. What about that side, Asey?"

"I thought of it, but I don't like it," Asey told her. "If he'd have swiped it, he'd have beaten it and not passed for the fire to call attention to thine. Pam, the barn then would be lost, an' too much time, and of course, how an' when could anyone of not the ambergis away with that mob in the woods, later?"

"Perhaps that's why Shorty and O'Malley are missing. Perhaps they saw the man take it away, and perhaps they went after it."

"Wait an' let me get straightened out," Cummings said. "Aaron put it in the barn. Someone else—call him B—removes it. Someone else—call him C—hunts for it, an' can't find it, an' so he burns the barn. And now you think there's still another person, D, who's responsible for the violent bifflings that went on. Well, that leaves you with three people, or one person three up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn't. They're not within a mile of this place, anyway. It's been looked over again this morning."

"Listen," Pam said. "I've got another idea. Suppose someone found the ambergis in the bin, removed it, and then fired the barn to make us think the ambergis was burned up in it. What about that side, Asey?"

"I thought of it, but I don't like it," Asey told her. "If he'd have swiped it, he'd have beaten it and not passed for the fire to call attention to thine. Pam, the barn then would be lost, an' too much time, and of course, how an' when could anyone of not the ambergis away with that mob in the woods, later?"

"Perhaps that's why Shorty and O'Malley are missing. Perhaps they saw the man take it away, and perhaps they went after it."

"Wait an' let me get straightened out," Cummings said. "Aaron put it in the barn. Someone else—call him B—removes it. Someone else—call him C—hunts for it, an' can't find it, an' so he burns the barn. And now you think there's still another person, D, who's responsible for the violent bifflings that went on. Well, that leaves you with three people, or one person three up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn't. They're not within a mile of this place, anyway. It's been looked over again this morning."

"Listen," Pam said. "I've got another idea. Suppose someone found the ambergis in the bin, removed it, and then fired the barn to make us think the ambergis was burned up in it. What about that side, Asey?"

"I thought of it, but I don't like it," Asey told her. "If he'd have swiped it, he'd have beaten it and not passed for the fire to call attention to thine. Pam, the barn then would be lost, an' too much time, and of course, how an' when could anyone of not the ambergis away with that mob in the woods, later?"

"Perhaps that's why Shorty and O'Malley are missing. Perhaps they saw the man take it away, and perhaps they went after it."

"Wait an' let me get straightened out," Cummings said. "Aaron put it in the barn. Someone else—call him B—removes it. Someone else—call him C—hunts for it, an' can't find it, an' so he burns the barn. And now you think there's still another person, D, who's responsible for the violent bifflings that went on. Well, that leaves you with three people, or one person three up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn't. They're not within a mile of this place, anyway. It's been looked over again this morning."

"Listen," Pam said. "I've got another idea. Suppose someone found the ambergis in the bin, removed it, and then fired the barn to make us think the ambergis was burned up in it. What about that side, Asey?"

"I thought of it, but I don't like it," Asey told her. "If he'd have swiped it, he'd have beaten it and not passed for the fire to call attention to thine. Pam, the barn then would be lost, an' too much time, and of course, how an' when could anyone of not the ambergis away with that mob in the woods, later?"

"Perhaps that's why Shorty and O'Malley are missing. Perhaps they saw the man take it away, and perhaps they went after it."

"Wait an' let me get straightened out," Cummings said. "Aaron put it in the barn. Someone else—call him B—removes it. Someone else—call him C—hunts for it, an' can't find it, an' so he burns the barn. And now you think there's still another person, D, who's responsible for the violent bifflings that went on. Well, that leaves you with three people, or one person three up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn't. They're not within a mile of this place, anyway. It's been looked over again this morning."

"Listen," Pam said. "I've got another idea. Suppose someone found the ambergis in the bin, removed it, and then fired the barn to make us think the ambergis was burned up in it. What about that side, Asey?"

"I thought of it, but I don't like it," Asey told her. "If he'd have swiped it, he'd have beaten it and not passed for the fire to call attention to thine. Pam, the barn then would be lost, an' too much time, and of course, how an' when could anyone of not the ambergis away with that mob in the woods, later?"

"Perhaps that's why Shorty and O'Malley are missing. Perhaps they saw the man take it away, and perhaps they went after it."

"Wait an' let me get straightened out," Cummings said. "Aaron put it in the barn. Someone else—call him B—removes it. Someone else—call him C—hunts for it, an' can't find it, an' so he burns the barn. And now you think there's still another person, D, who's responsible for the violent bifflings that went on. Well, that leaves you with three people, or one person three up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn't. They're not within a mile of this place, anyway. It's been looked over again this morning."

"Listen," Pam said. "I've got another idea. Suppose someone found the ambergis in the bin, removed it, and then fired the barn to make us think the ambergis was burned up in it. What about that side, Asey?"

"I thought of it, but I don't like it," Asey told her. "If he'd have swiped it, he'd have beaten it and not passed for the fire to call attention to thine. Pam, the barn then would be lost, an' too much time, and of course, how an' when could anyone of not the ambergis away with that mob in the woods, later?"

"Perhaps that's why Shorty and O'Malley are missing. Perhaps they saw the man take it away, and perhaps they went after it."

"Wait an' let me get straightened out," Cummings said. "Aaron put it in the barn. Someone else—call him B—removes it. Someone else—call him C—hunts for it, an' can't find it, an' so he burns the barn. And now you think there's still another person, D, who's responsible for the violent bifflings that went on. Well, that leaves you with three people, or one person three up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn't. They're not within a mile of this place, anyway. It's been looked over again this morning."

"Listen," Pam said. "I've got another idea. Suppose someone found the ambergis in the bin, removed it, and then fired the barn to make us think the ambergis was burned up in it. What about that side, Asey?"

"I thought of it, but I don't like it," Asey told her. "If he'd have swiped it, he'd have beaten it and not passed for the fire to call attention to thine. Pam, the barn then would be lost, an' too much time, and of course, how an' when could anyone of not the ambergis away with that mob in the woods, later?"

"Perhaps that's why Shorty and O'Malley are missing. Perhaps they saw the man take it away, and perhaps they went after it."

"Wait an' let me get straightened out," Cummings said. "Aaron put it in the barn. Someone else—call him B—removes it. Someone else—call him C—hunts for it, an' can't find it, an' so he burns the barn. And now you think there's still another person, D, who's responsible for the violent bifflings that went on. Well, that leaves you with three people, or one person three up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn't. They're not within a mile of this place, anyway. It's been looked over again this morning."

"Listen," Pam said. "I've got another idea. Suppose someone found the ambergis in the bin, removed it, and then fired the barn to make us think the ambergis was burned up in it. What about that side, Asey?"

"I thought of it, but I don't like it," Asey told her. "If he'd have swiped it, he'd have beaten it and not passed for the fire to call attention to thine. Pam, the barn then would be lost, an' too much time, and of course, how an' when could anyone of not the ambergis away with that mob in the woods, later?"

"Perhaps that's why Shorty and O'Malley are missing. Perhaps they saw the man take it away, and perhaps they went after it."

"Wait an' let me get straightened out," Cummings said. "Aaron put it in the barn. Someone else—call him B—removes it. Someone else—call him C—hunts for it, an' can't find it, an' so he burns the barn. And now you think there's still another person, D, who's responsible for the violent bifflings that went on. Well, that leaves you with three people, or one person three up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn't. They're not within a mile of this place, anyway. It's been looked over again this morning."

"Listen," Pam said. "I've got another idea. Suppose someone found the ambergis in the bin, removed it, and then fired the barn to make us think the ambergis was burned up in it. What about that side, Asey?"

"I thought of it, but I don't like it," Asey told her. "If he'd have swiped it, he'd have beaten it and not passed for the fire to call attention to thine. Pam, the barn then would be lost, an' too much time, and of course, how an' when could anyone of not the ambergis away with that mob in the woods, later?"

"Perhaps that's why Shorty and O'Malley are missing. Perhaps they saw the man take it away, and perhaps they went after it."

"Wait an' let me get straightened out," Cummings said. "Aaron put it in the barn. Someone else—call him B—removes it. Someone else—call him C—hunts for it, an' can't find it, an' so he burns the barn. And now you think there's still another person, D, who's responsible for the violent bifflings that went on. Well, that leaves you with three people, or one person three up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn't. They're not within a mile of this place, anyway. It's been looked over again this morning."

"Listen," Pam said. "I've got another idea. Suppose someone found the ambergis in the bin, removed it, and then fired the barn to make us think the ambergis was burned up in it. What about that side, Asey?"

"I thought of it, but I don't like it," Asey told her. "If he'd have swiped it, he'd have beaten it and not passed for the fire to call attention to thine. Pam, the barn then would be lost, an' too much time, and of course, how an' when could anyone of not the ambergis away with that mob in the woods, later?"

"Perhaps that's why Shorty and O'Malley are missing. Perhaps they saw the man take it away, and perhaps they went after it."

"Wait an' let me get straightened out," Cummings said. "Aaron put it in the barn. Someone else—call him B—removes it. Someone else—call him C—hunts for it, an' can't find it, an' so he burns the barn. And now you think there's still another person, D, who's responsible for the violent bifflings that went on. Well, that leaves you with three people, or one person three up."

"They looked for it," Asey replied, "an' they didn't find it, so they set the barn on fire to see it."

"If they didn't find the ambergis in the bin," Pam interrupted, "where in heaven's name was it, Asey? You by a left handed makin' sense?"

"Sure I am," Asey said. "Your father put it in the bin. But someone moved it from the bin after your father put it there, an' before the person who fired the barn began his huntin'. That's clear, ain't it?"

"Asey Mayo, do you mean that there's more than one person after this ambergis?"

"I'm sort of beginnin' to think Asey admitted in a characteristic understatement, 'that maybe perhaps there possibly might be.'"

Barn Burner or Bitter?

"Two," Cummings said. "Two? What do you mean, two?"

"Two people, or two sets," Asey said. "Maybe more. Probably more. I wouldn't know. That's what I been wrestlin' with in my mind. I think the feller that fired the barn ain't the one that bifled Tim Carr and Aaron an' me. The barn burner uses his head. The bitter seems to be a violent sort of lad. The barn burner—"

"You certainly can't call him any quiet shrinking violet!" Pam interrupted. "And after all, arson isn't one of the gentler crimes!"

"I know. But I think the person that burned the barn hunted through it first and then waited around to see if his burnin' theory worked out. N'en I think he called it a day, an' left. I'en I think that someone else carried on the violent part, biflin' your father before the fire, an' Tim an' me after it. An'—"

"And what about those two troopers, O'Malley and what's-his-name?" Cummings asked.

Asey shrugged. "No one knows. Hanson's tryin' to solve that one right now. Phaps they landed up with the violent gent, phaps they didn re 58,398 fans in Chicago.

NEWSPAPER ARCHIVE

Week-end Digest of Business Activity In Appleton and Vicinity

Home Mutual Safety Emblem Is Sign Of Protection; Proof of Insurance

"Drive Carefully . . . Death Is So Permanent" is the slogan found on the safety emblem of the Home Mutual Casualty company given to all policyholders. These emblems can be seen in increasing numbers upon automobiles in Appleton and in various communities throughout the state. Whenever you see this sign on the car, you know that the driver or owner of the car is protected. It is not a safe practice, however, to rely upon a sign on the other fellow's car to protect you in event of accident. . . . the sign on your car is what counts.

Today automobile insurance is a greater social necessity than it has ever been. Victims of automobile accidents may be found in every hospital. Last year the highway death toll was 40,300, and over a million persons were injured. The expense of hospitalization of the injured, the cost of surgical and medical treatment, the loss of time, and physical impairments resulting from automobile accident injuries presents a social problem to every community, village, and city. Traffic accidents cost the American people more last year than was spent for new automobiles and trucks. It would be hard to estimate the social loss. We think of wars as being tragic with their toll of death and grief stricken; yet, in the period from July 1, 1928 to December 31,

1935, more men, women and little children were killed by motor vehicles on our streets and highways than were killed in action or died from wounds in all the wars in

Shellane Gas Is Aid to Families Beyond City Mains

Three Million Dollars Invested in Perfection of Famous Product

Three million dollars for a dinner may sound ridiculous, however, that amount of money and more has been invested in the perfection, use, and distribution of the famous product known as Shellane in order that families everywhere can enjoy all the delights of modern menus less the customary drudgery which people necessarily experienced in preparing meals who lived beyond city gas service. Shellane, the three million dollar product, responsible for alleviating former discomforts in meal preparation and food protection is a pure, natural gas which is compressed and delivered to your home in cylinders and piped directly to your kitchen range, refrigerator, or water heater.

It is hard to believe that a cranky old kitchen stove can rob you of the joy of living. But count the hours of drudgery, scrubbing, scouring, carrying coal and emptying ashes and see how it steals your time energy, leaving the housewife worn-out at the end of the day, dull, and a poor companion. Shellane saves all this needless, back-breaking labor and puts an end to soot and dirt. It does not even stain your pots and pans but gives you all the conveniences of city gas service for just a few cents a day. Its installation and operation are simple, consisting of merely placing two cylinders of Shellane on a base outside your home in an inconspicuous place, covered with a neat canopy. The gas is then piped through concealed copper pipe directly to your range, refrigerator, or water heater.

The Appleton Appliance Company with headquarters at 219 N. Story street, operated by N. J. Loselyong, owner, with Kenneth R. Mokros, sales manager, offers the famous Shellane gas service. The firm maintains a constant supply for users and installs full cylinders whenever needed. It features also, the Universal range which is operated efficiently with Shellane gas. The Appleton Appliance Company is distributor, too, for Servel Electrolux refrigerators, the beautiful gas operated automatic refrigerator which has no moving parts to get out of order, a feature important to anyone anxious to avoid expensive repairs. This by using Shellane gas and the Electrolux refrigerator, modern refrigeration is made available to homes that have been denied this convenience.

Hot water always on tap during the winter and summer for dishwashing, shaving, bathing, or laundering is available through use of Shellane by installation of a Ruud automatic gas water heater at small cost. Demonstration of these appliances may be had at the Appleton Appliance Headquarters without obligation and trial use in your own home can be arranged.

Woman Is Injured in Freak Traffic Mishap

Mrs. Louise Sommerholder, 66, route 1, Menasha, suffered an injured leg in a freak traffic accident on W. College avenue at 11:15 yesterday morning. Harry Sommerholder stopped his car on the avenue and as Mrs. Sommerholder was stepping from the machine Mrs. Myrtle Kaufman, Appleton, backed a car from a parking stall and Mrs. Sommerholder was squeezed in the door, according to a police report.

which the United States has ever been engaged.

In spite of all that is being done now to prevent accidents, there is no indication that the loss of life and property caused by automobile accidents will be reduced.

The need for automobile insurance equipped to give safe, dependable protection becomes apparent when the laws, which impose liability upon owners and operators of motor vehicles, are considered. For instance, under the Wisconsin laws, if you are only ten per cent negligent and the other party ninety per cent, you are liable for fifty per cent of the damages in case third parties are killed or injured. If the other party's attorney can convince the jury that you were only one per cent negligent, the law requires you to pay one half of the damages sustained by the guests in your car or in the other car involved in the accident. If the driver of the other car has neither insurance nor property with which to make good his share of the damages, then, strange as it seems, you are obliged to pay the entire amount.

Perhaps, an even greater incentive for carrying adequate liability and property damage insurance may be found in section 85.135 of the Wisconsin Statutes which says that a person must pay for damages caused by his operation of a motor vehicle or quit driving. This law has teeth. Bankruptcy does not relieve the judgment debtor from making good the damages to injured parties if he would retain the privilege of driving a car on Wisconsin highways.

Your best protection, the Home Mutual believes, is a policy in the Home Mutual Casualty Company, whose offices are located on the fourth floor of the Irving Zuelke building. No technical reports nor red tape are required in case you are in an accident. Competent, courteous home office claim adjusters are always at hand to serve you. Office: Telephones are 4600 and 4601; residence phones are 6402 and 5636.

INSTRUMENT REPAIR SHOP IS FINEST

Above is shown a section of the new Bierzitz Musical Instrument Repair service department located at 209 N. Appleton street. The Bierzitz firm recently moved to its new location, having formerly occupied quarters above the La Villa Restaurant at 130 E. College avenue. Seated in the picture busily engaged in his instrument repair work is Lothar Bierzitz, head of the firm and in personal charge of all instrument repair and sales work. Standing at his left is Howard Smith, bookkeeper and general representative of Bierzitz.

Located also at the same headquarters is the Beirnard Piano Store having moved to its present location from 223 N. Appleton street. The Beirnard company, under the direction of C. A. Beirnard, owner and ball and Star pianos. A large selection of reconditioned pianos is carried in stock and is being sold at the present time at extremely low and reasonable terms. New pianos may be purchased for as little as $150 a week or may be rented for 50c a week with the rental to apply against future purchase if desired. Generous trade-in allowances are given on any type of musical instrument in the purchase of a piano.

The new headquarters of the Bierzitz Musical Instrument Repair Service and the Beirnard Piano store provides both firms with additional display space and larger and more efficient repair departments. The factory method repair service of Bierzitz is well known not only in this line but throughout this section of the state. Lothar Bierzitz has been engaged in this type of work over fourteen years servicing grade schools and private and public band organizations.

The larger repair and servicing department makes possible, Mr. Bierzitz states, better application of the factory repair system featured here, allowing room for more repair equipment and the adding when necessary of new types of factory equipment facilitating the application of the most modern and efficient means of service. Equipment of this type not only assures quality work but time-saving work which makes possible lowest cost in repair jobs. A visit is made each year by Mr. Bierzitz to the Elkhart, Indiana musical instrument factories of which there are many in order to secure any new factory repair and service methods.

In addition to offering all common types of instrument repair such as sterilizing, polishing, dent removal, adjusting, refacing, gold lacquering of brass instruments, repadding, overhauling, adjusting, refacing, and individual fitting of mouthpieces of reed instruments, recharging, repairing, and adjusting of violins, cellos, and basses, electric cleaning, polishing, moth proofing, recovering of keys with Ivorine in the tuning of pianos, the Bierzitz firm calls attention to several special services. It employs the Selmer Way of servicing Clarinets using Selmer parts in all the work. Special attention and accurate work is given to repadding. Mr. Bierzitz points out that there is a great deal of difference between ordinary work if air is not to escape and if the job is to remain permanent. In lacquering and polishing perfect cleaning is essential for a good job. Another point of service is the adding of flush bands to eliminate cracks. These are a few of the many services offered by this firm. Inquiries regarding any type of instrument repair or reconditioning service are welcome. You are invited to stop in at the firm's headquarters at any time and learn in detail just what methods are used and their possibilities.

The exclusive Fox River Valley agency for the Martin and Indiana line of band instruments is also held by the Bierzitz firm. These instruments are recognized throughout the country as being of superior quality because they are the only make of instruments built by hand. These fine instruments in addition to used instruments are offered under easy payment plans with liberal trade-in allowances.

OFFER NOVELTY ACT AT CELEBRATION

Here are the Schuch sisters, Mary playing the Hawaiian guitar. Gladys with a Spanish guitar. Van Zeeland will present their novelty act on July 2nd at the big celebration. These talented girls have played and sang over several radio stations and have won numerous amateur contests in nearby towns.

A message for the residents of Neenah, Wisconsin. Next week the Van Zeeland Music Company will open a new studio at 104 N. Commercial street in Neenah. This studio will be open Tuesdays and Saturdays, afternoon and evening. We extend to you an "Open House" invitation to visit us this week. Come up and see our students in action!!

Child Health Center

Conducted at Waupaca

Waupaca—Waupaca's third maternal and child health center of the year, sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary in an arrangement with the state board of health, was held Friday at the city hall, with Mrs. Archibald Gmeiner in charge.

Dr. Charlotte Fisk, staff physician of the state board's bureau of maternal and child health, conducted the center. She was assisted by Miss Estelle Jung, Waupaca county nurse, and members of the auxiliary.

The usual health examinations for infants and pre-school children who were accompanied by their mothers, and personal talks on prenatal care for expectant mothers, were offered by Dr. Fisk. The registration hours were from 8:30 to 11:30 a. m. and from 1 o'clock to 3:30 p. m.

Service Officers Will Meet at Camp Douglas

Edward Lutz, Outagamie county service officer, will attend the annual convention of the Wisconsin County Veterans Service Officers association Saturday and Sunday, July 16 and 17, at Camp Douglas. Election of officers will be held. The officers will be guests of the department of Ralph M. Immell, adjutant general, who will be one of the speakers at the confab.

Be A Safe Driver

Jack Russel Will Play at Waverly Sunday, June 19

Big Free Dance Every Sunday Afternoon 2:00 To 5:00 P. M.

Sailing along in great fashion, the Waverly Beach ballroom, under the management of "Connie" Estler, is attracting larger and larger crowds since its opening May 8, each Wednesday and Sunday night. Attendance is not only equalling the record of last season but on a few occasions has considerably exceeded it. Big time bands, bargain admission prices and all around splendid dancing accommodations account mainly for this continuing and every increasing patronage, the management states.

Considerable interest is being shown by dancing enthusiasts in the approaching next Sunday, June 19 of Jack Russel and his world famous orchestra. The unusually high rating enjoyed by this sensational organization in orchestra circles is the envy of many potential big time bands. He is considered the "top" in dance orchestras by many people in spite of the fact that many other excellent bands are well up in line for first place honors. The admission price is being kept consistently low, the charge being 40c before 9:00 p. m. after 9:00 55c.

Wednesday, June 22, will bring to Waverly Bobbie Love and his internationally famous swing orchestra direct from Jackson, Miss. This midweek dance, as patrons know, is Waverly's Booster dance night which is 15c with a Booster card before 9:30 and 25c after.

Free Sunday afternoon dances held from 2:00 to 5:00 P. M. with popular orchestras furnishing the music are also attracting larger crowds every Sunday. These dances are especially popular because they enable folks to combine picnicking with dancing at Waverly if they wish absolutely free. Waverly's free picnic grounds are in full operation with hundreds of families enjoying its fine picnicking facilities every Sunday as well as during the week.

You are invited to bring your baskets at any time and stay for an entire day at a time if you wish. You will find plenty of amusements and concessions, merry-go-round, shooting gallery, penny arcade, amplified public address and music system furnishing music throughout the park in addition to the free dancing in the ballroom Sunday afternoons and the regular dances every Wed. and Sunday night.

Waverly's beautiful picnic grounds with its dozens of clean, serviceable picnic tables, its spacious parking areas, its powerful lighting equipment, assuring safe and convenient parking has long been popular as a summer recreation center for folks of the entire Fox River Valley.

Accommodations are offered free for private picnics, parties, bridge, anniversaries, birthdays, weddings, and the like. Chicken, frog legs, steak lunches and sandwiches are served daily at the Waverly Beach tavern. Draft beer is served at 5c a glass with expertly prepared hi-balls and gin bucks at 15c. Visit the Waverly tavern at your next opportunity. You will enjoy the short, pleasant drive, the cool lake breezes, the tavern's excellent accommodations and the tasty lunches and mixed drinks served.

State Restaurant

Pleases Patrons With Finer Food

Popular Eating Place Takes Burden From Cooking at Home

Dieticians tell you, basing their statements on actual tests, how important a part your surroundings play in the enjoyment of food. Thinking it over, you will remember the meals you have enjoyed most where the food was excellent and the surroundings attractive and restful.

The New State Restaurant long ago recognized these important scientific facts and have based their operation thereon. Good food, attractively served in charming surroundings, has done wonders in making State Restaurant patrons happy. Folks enter this unusual eating place in a pleasantly expectant frame of mind and are never disappointed. Their attitude is based, of course, upon previous pleasant experiences at the State and upon the air of complete friendliness which greets you and characterizes the place. Families like to come here. Professional and business people like it. They are pleased with the splendid food so swiftly and unobtrusively served and appreciate especially the fact that all this comes to them at so low a cost.

It is the State Restaurant where people go after the show, after the party or dance, and for daily routine meals. As a rest from the necessary over-exertion resulting from long hours spent in the kitchen preparing routine meals the New State Restaurant suggests that the family vote be in favor of dining out tomorrow and enjoy a fine dinner at this popular eating place. You will find the State Restaurant open at all hours ready to serve you.

BIG FREE DANCE AND PUBLIC PICNIC EVERY SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Sunday Night

WAVERLY BEACH

Grist Offers the Finest, Most Complete Fur Service Obtainable

Pioneering Appleton Furrier Gets Latest Frigidair Equipment to Round Out Perfect Fur Service . . . At New Low Prices!

A trip with your fur coat . . . from the time you give it to one of Grist's Bonded Messengers until it is ready to be returned to you . . . is truly an interesting and educational one. If we were to sneak into your coat pocket here's what would happen:

You phone 5308 and one of Grist's Courteous Bonded Messengers immediately calls for your coat. (You need not pay for storage until your coat is returned in Fall, if you wish). It is immediately taken to the Electro-Watchman protected building at 231 E. College Avenue where it is doubly protected by insurance.

Here it is carefully and thoroughly dust cleaned by experts. And here's where we are discovered but we'll go along anyway. This cleaning process dislodges and removes all dust and moth larvae, and stimulates the natural oils, keeping the pelts soft and new looking. Then your garment is carefully combed, if necessary.

And now it is ready for inspection! This operation . . . like all the others . . . is scientifically done by thoroughly trained and experienced craftsmen. Expert care given by Experts . . . that is the theme of Grist's Fur Service.

Now . . . the coat has been cleaned and inspected and is ready to be put away until you want it in the Fall.

So we go to the Storage Vault, which is conveniently located on the Grist premises, making your garment instantly available. This year the storage space has been more than doubled . . . and the latest Frigidair Cold Storage Equipment installed. The exclusive Malm method, United States Government approved and backed by a certificate issued by the Department of Agriculture and Markets, is a feature of this modern Cold Storage. You can be sure that your fur and fur trimmed garments are absolutely safe from moths, germs, life, fire and theft all summer long . . . and for a slight additional charge you receive a World Wide insurance policy good for 12 months from the time your coat is placed in storage!

New Structural Steel
ALSO USED STRUCTURAL STEEL
IRON PIPE — PIPE FITTINGS New and Used All Sizes
BELTING — Rubber and Canvas
I. BAHCALL, INC.
975 N. Meade St. Appleton, Wis.

New Location
BEIRNARD PIANO STORE
KIMBALL & STORY & CLARK
209 N. Appleton St. Tel. 3263 W
Exclusive Agency for Martin — Indiana — Band Instruments
BIERITZ
Musical Repair, Sales, Service
New Location
209 N. Appleton St. Tel. 2314

Have Those Shoes Rebuilt "The Coppens Way"
COPPENS SHOE REBUILDERS
PHONE 711 CALL & DELIVERY 119 E. COLLEGE AVE.

YARDLEY BEAUTY AIDS
Ideal Gift for the June Brides
Sold Exclusively at BELLINGS
204 E. College Ave.

A Real Man
Your kiddies will be delighted when you give them our doughnuts or cookies to eat.
Our baked goods are made from the very best ingredients that money can buy and they are always fresh.
HOFFMAN BAKERY
We Deliver Phone 423
423 W. College Ave.

TRY OUR FOUNTAIN SPECIALS
During the Warm Days
Snider's Restaurant

Petersen Press
Printing of All Kinds
Phone 1384
604 W. COLLEGE AVE.

Refrigerated Fur Storage
Store your Furs in the Fox River Valley's finest Fur Vault.
KRIECK, Furs
Phone 1078
220 E. College Ave.

BLUE PRINTS
Valley Blue Printers
Phone 2497
744 W. Spencer St.

OPEN MEETING
Technocracy Inc.
Every Monday Night
WOMAN'S CLUB
Everyone Cordially Invited

NEW State RESTAURANT

PLAN NOW FOR ARTISTIC MEMORIALS
Consult Us — We Will Be Glad to Be of Service to You
TWIN CITY MONUMENT WORKS
Phones 930W 930R
301 - 07 Main St. Neenah, Wis.

SHELLANE gives you a really modern kitchen... all the conveniences of city gas service for just a few cents a day.

APPLETON Appliance Co.
Phone 3296-M

Every Sat.—Turkey Dinner 35c
Steak Days, Tuesdays, Thursdays
T-Bone Steak Dinner . . . 45c
All Dinners Complete With Soup, Rolls and Dessert
LA VILLA
Restaurant and Candy Shop
130 E. College Ave.

Firestone
TO SUPPLY & SERVICE STORES
W. College Ave. at Richmond St.
Come in and have your Brakes Tested Free

Monogrammed Stationery
$1.00 Per Box
BAUER PRINTING CO.
315 W. College Ave. Phone 587

DIVIDEND PAYING
Auto Public Liability Fire Compensation
INSURANCE
EMPLOYERS MUTUALS
Richard J. White
206 Irving Zuelke Bldg.
Phone 6700

A Complete Line of ELECTRICAL FIXTURES
See Our Display
Maynard Electric Service
115 E. Spring St. Phone 2730

PHONE 1820 NOW for GEENEN'S
Bank Vault Fur Storage
Garments hung in individual fur bags an exclusive
GEENEN'S feature!

FLOWERS
All Beautiful Spring Varieties
Wayside Floral Co.
Ph. 112 — Little Chute
We Deliver Free—Open Eve.

ICE is BEST for REFRIGERATION
CRYSTAL CLEAR ICE CUBES in 5 Minutes in the New COOLERATOR
The Air Conditioned Refrigerator
ACCEPT A 10 DAY FREE TRIAL
LUTZ ICE CO.
Showrooms Open Till 9 P. M. Saturdays

J. M. VAN ROOY PRINTING CO.
PHONE 1054
Hotel Appleton Building
Letter Heads, Bill Heads, Wedding Announcements.

Robert A. Schultz
Masonry and Concrete Contracting
Ask us for estimates
Ph. 864 1228 W. Lawrence St.

CINDERELLA
SAXIE SEIDEL — 15c To All
EWECO PARK — Oshkosh — SUNDAY — EARL KEMP

PURE MANUFACTURED ICE
500 COUPON BOOK 1.75 Boxed
FOR AIR CONDITIONED REFRIGERATION
See the EVERPURE First
Made in Wisconsin
COAL — COKE — WOOD — ICE
J. P. LAUX and SONS
PHONE 1690 903 N. UNION ST.

MATTRESS REBUILDING
Your Old Mattress $4.90
Rebuilt Like New $8.95
Also Inner Springs $8.95
Built in . . .
For Short Time Only:
New Inner Spring Mattresses
For Sale
Perigo Mattress Co.
129 Canal St. Neenah Phone 44

FUR STORAGE
Phone 5308

GRIST FURS
231 - E. College Ave.
APPLETON, WISCONSIN.

Wedding Announcements
Chris. Roemer Estate
119 So. Appleton St. Phone 1790
Printers Since 1887

RIVERSIDE GREENHOUSES
1236 E. Pacific St. Conway Hotel
Phone 5400 Phone 3012
Flowers sent anywhere

NEW & USED CAR PARTS
AT GREAT SAVINGS
Rebuilt Generators
AUG. JAHNKE
Wrecking — Towing
New Bld. 41 Tel. 1431V

SEE OUR FINE SELECTION OF USED CARS
O. R. KLOEHN CO.
BUICK — PONTIAC — G. M. C. TRUCKS
211-213 E. Washington St. Appleton Phone 6440

Robert Wiese, 839 E. Atlantic St., is another progressing member of the Van Zeeland Band which will entertain at Erb Park on July 2nd.

In celebration of his 13th birthday, which was last Saturday, his father gave him this 120-Bass Scandalli which he is holding.

Indeed, this is a fine birthday present, and although we are one week late, congratulations and good luck to you, Robert Wiese!

Stop in at —

VAN ZEELAND MUSIC CO.
106 N. Oneida St.
Phone 1650

CALL 432
WILLIAM NEHLS
INTERIOR DECORATOR
226 W. Washington St.
WALL PAPER — PAINTS